Snettisham Drainage District.

Notice is hereby given, that the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries has settled and made an Order under the Land Drainage Act, 1918, constituting a drainage district comprising certain lands in the parishes of Babingley, Dersingham, Heacham, Hunstanton, Ingoldisthorpe, Snettisham and Wolferton, in the County of Norfolk, and that the Order will become final and have effect as an Act of Parliament unless within thirty days from the date of this Notice a memorial that the Order shall not become law without confirmation by Parliament is presented to the Ministry by some person or body affected by the Order and having such interest as is prescribed by Article 4 of the Land Drainage Regulations, 1918 (Statutory Rules and Orders, 1918, No. 1605), as being sufficient for the purpose.

A copy of the sealed Order and of the 6-inch scale map referred to therein has been deposited at the office of the Norfolk Agricultural Committee, Tuesday Market Place, King's Lynn, for public inspection for the period of thirty days from the date thereof.

Copies of the Order (without map) may be obtained from the Ministry of Agriculture at the address mentioned below at the price of one shilling each.

ORDER OF THE MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

(DATED 25TH AUGUST 1922.)

IRISH ANIMALS ORDER OF 1922.

The Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in him under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1914, and of every other power enabling him in this behalf, hereby orders as follows:—

Control of Movement of Cattle and Sheep from Irish Animals Landing Places.

1. Cattle and sheep landed at any Irish Animals Landing Place in Great Britain shall not be moved therefrom except in accordance with the following provisions of this Order.

2. Cattle and sheep shall not be moved from an Irish Animals Landing Place except with a licence granted by an Inspector of the Ministry, and then only to

(a) A market, fairground or saleyard specially authorised by the Ministry for the sale of animals moved from an Irish Animals Landing Place (hereinafter referred to as "a special market"), or

(b) premises other than a market, fairground, saleyard or slaughterhouse; or

(c) a slaughterhouse.

Conditions attaching to Markets at Specially Authorised Premises.

3.—(1) At a special market no animals shall be exposed for sale other than cattle and sheep moved from an Irish Animals Landing Place with a licence under this Order.

(2) Cattle and sheep exposed at a special market shall not be removed therefrom except with a further licence granted by an Inspector of the Local Authority of the district in which the special market is held, and then only to premises other than a market, fairground or saleyard.

Conditions attaching to Licences Authorising Movement as in Article 2 (b) and 2 (c) and in Article 3.

4.—(1) Cattle and sheep moved to premises other than a market, fairground or saleyard from an Irish Animals Landing Place or from a special market shall on arrival at the place of destination specified in the licence be detained therein for a period of thirteen days after arrival thereat, unless the animals are slaughtered on the premises before the expiration of that period.

(2) Cattle shall not be moved from an Irish Animals Landing Place with a licence under this Order unless and until they are marked by and at the expense of the owner or his agent by the clipping of a broad arrow ↑ about six inches long, on the left hindquarter of each of the cattle, if the place of destination specified in the licence is a special market or private premises other than a slaughterhouse, and on the right hindquarter of each of the cattle if the place of destination is a slaughterhouse.

Provisions as to Licences and Movement.

5.—(1) A movement licence granted under this Order shall be available for four days, inclusive of the date thereof, and no longer.

(2) A copy of every licence granted under this Order shall forthwith be sent by the Inspector granting the same to the Local Authority of the District in which the special market or other place of destination is situated, and also to the occupier of the place of destination, except where the place of destination is a special market.

(3) In the case of every movement of animals authorised by a licence under this Order the licence shall accompany the animals throughout the movement, and shall be produced on demand to an Inspector of the Ministry or of the Local Authority, or a Police Constable.

(4) A licence authorising movement to a special market shall be delivered up to a person appointed by the Local Authority to receive such licences at the entrance to the market, fairground or saleyard. Every other licence shall forthwith, after completion of the movement, be delivered up at, or sent by post to, the nearest police station in the same District by the person in charge of the animals at the time of completing the movement.

(5) Animals moved with a licence under this Order shall, so far as is practicable, be moved by rail and be kept separate from all animals which are not being so moved. When being moved by road the animals shall be moved without unnecessary delay to the place of destination specified in the licence.

In the case of animals moved by rail the animals shall not be untrucked for any purpose until they reach the destination station from which they are to be moved to the premises specified in the licence, except that animals may be untrucked for the purpose of feeding or watering within railway station premises, provided that any dock, pen or other part of the railway premises used for this purpose is disinfected in the manner prescribed in Article 7 of this Order both immediately before and after each occasion of such use.

Movement of Animals subject to other Orders or Regulations.

6. Nothing in this Order shall be deemed to authorise the movement of an animal in contravention of any other Order of the Minister or any Regulation of a Local Authority prohibiting or regulating the movement of animals into their District.

Disinfection of Railway Trucks and Railway Loading Banks.

7.—(1) A railway truck or other railway vehicle used for the conveyance of any animals from an Irish Animals Landing Place shall, immediately before any such animal is placed in it, be thoroughly sprayed with liquid disinfectant, under the supervision and to the satisfaction of the Inspector of the Ministry at the Landing Place.

(2) A railway loading bank or loading dock used for the loading of Irish animals at an Irish Animals Landing Place for conveyance therefrom shall, when required by an Inspector of the Ministry at the Landing Place, be thoroughly sprayed with liquid disinfectant.

(3) The liquid disinfectant to be used for the purposes of this Article shall be—

(a) A one per cent. (minimum) solution of chloride of lime containing not less than thirty per cent of available chlorine; or

(b) a five per cent. (minimum) solution of carbolic acid (containing not less than ninety-five per cent. of actual carbolic acid); or

(c) a disinfectant equal in disinfective efficiency to the above-mentioned solution of carbolic acid.

(4) Nothing in this Article shall interfere with the operation of the provisions of the Animals (Transit and General) Order of 1912 as to the cleansing and disinfection of railway trucks and other railway vehicles used for the conveyance of animals on a railway.

Offences.

8. If anything is done or omitted to be done in contravention of this Order, the owner and the person for the time being in charge of the animal, or, in respect of Article 7, the railway company loading the animals or owning the loading banks in respect of which, as the case may be, the same is done or omitted to be done, shall, each according to and in respect of his or their own acts or omissions, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

Interpretation.

9. Slaughterhouse means any premises where animals are habitually slaughtered. Other terms, unless the context otherwise requires, have the same meaning as in the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

Revocation.

10. The Animals (Landing from Ireland) Order of 1922 (No. 7) is hereby revoked.

Commencement.

11. This Order shall come into operation on the thirty-first day of August, nineteen hundred and twenty-two.

ORDER OF THE MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

(DATED 28TH AUGUST 1922.)

The Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in him under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1914, and of every other power enabling him in this behalf, hereby orders as follows:—

1. The restrictions on movement of swine imposed by the Swine-Fever (Regulation of Movement) Order of 1908, and the Swine-Fever (Regulation of Movement) Application Order of 1920, shall not apply to the movement of swine from the sale mentioned in the Schedule hereto to any premises in Great Britain not being a Swine-Fever Infected Place if the swine are accompanied by a licence in the Form F set forth in the First Schedule to the said Order of 1908, granted by an Inspector of the Local Authority of the county of Hertford, and the following conditions, which shall be specified in the licence, are complied with:—

(i) The swine shall be moved to the place of destination specified in the licence and not elsewhere, and shall be there detained and kept separate from all other swine for twenty-eight days unless they are slaughtered on such premises before the expiration of that period, or are moved under

ORDER OF THE MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

(DATED 28TH AUGUST 1922.)

The Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in him under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1914, and of every other power enabling him in this behalf, hereby orders as follows:—

and in accordance with the conditions of a licence in the Form C set forth in the said First Schedule to a bacon factory or slaughterhouse in the same Scheduled Area.

(ii) The swine shall be moved by the nearest available route without unnecessary delay, and during the movement shall, so far as is practicable, be kept separate from all swine not being moved with a licence under this Order.

(iii) After completion of the movement the licence shall forthwith be delivered up at, or sent by post to, the nearest police-station in the same district by the person in charge of the swine at the time of completing such movement.

2. A copy of a licence issued under Article 1 of this Order shall be sent by the Inspector granting the same to the Local Authority of the District in which the place of destination specified in the licence is situate.

3. A licence under this Order shall for the purposes of the Orders mentioned in Article 1 of this Order be treated as a licence under those Orders.

In witness whereof the Official Seal of the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries is hereunto affixed this twenty-eighth day of August, nineteen hundred and twenty-two.

Special Acts (Extension of Time) Act, 1915, as extended by the War Emergency Laws (Continuance) Act, 1920: Further Extension of Time for Operation of a Confirming Act.

CITY OF CARDIFF.

To the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Cardiff;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by the Cardiff Order, 1915 (hereinafter referred to as "the Order"), which was confirmed by the Local Government Board's Provisional Orders (Confirmation (No. 6) Act, 1915, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the city of Cardiff, acting by the Council (hereinafter referred to as "the Council"), were empowered, for the purpose of widening, opening, enlarging, or otherwise improving the streets known as Duke Street, Castle Street, High Street, and Kingsway, to put in force, with reference to the lands described in the Schedule to the Order, the powers of the Lands Clauses Acts with respect to the purchase and taking of lands otherwise than by agreement;

And whereas the time for the exercise of the said powers was extended to the 29th day of July, 1922, by certain Orders made by the Local Government Board and the Minister of Transport in pursuance of Section 1 of the Special Acts (Extension of Time) Act, 1915 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act of 1915");

And whereas under the Act of 1915, as extended by the War Emergency Laws (Continuance) Act, 1920, application was duly made by the Council before the expiration of the time limited as aforesaid for an Order extending that time:

Now, therefore, the Minister of Transport, in pursuance of the powers given to him by Section 1 of the Act of 1915, and of any other powers in that behalf, hereby extends until the 29th day of July, 1923, the time limited as aforesaid for the exercise of the said powers of the Lands Clauses Acts.

Given under the Official Seal of the Minister of Transport, this 14th day of August, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-two.

Board of Trade.—1922.

IPSWICH GAS.

(Application for Special Order under Section 10 of the Gas Regulation Act, 1920.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to the Board of Trade by the Ipswich Gas Company (hereinafter referred to as "the Company"), whose address is Carr Street, Ipswich, for a special Order (hereinafter referred to as "the Order"), under section 10 of the Gas Regulation Act, 1920, for the following or some of the following among other purposes (that is to say):—

To convert or provide for the conversion of the several classes of existing ordinary stock of the Company into (a) stock (hereinafter referred to as "Consolidated Stock"), bearing dividend at an uniform rate subject to increase or reduction in proportion to any reduction or increase below or above the standard price of the price for the time being charged for gas supplied by the Company, and (b) stock (hereinafter referred to as "Redeemable Stock"), bearing dividend at a maximum rate subject to diminution in certain contingencies.

To create or provide for the creation of consolidated stock and redeemable stock to the respective amounts requisite for the purposes of such conversion, and to provide for the issue to the holders of the said existing ordinary stock in substitution for that stock of such amounts of consolidated stock and (in the case of certain of the said existing classes) redeemable stock as may be specified in the Order.

To authorize and require the holders of the said existing ordinary stock (including trustees and others acting in a fiduciary capacity) to accept such amounts of consolidated stock and redeemable stock or of either of those stocks as may be provided for by the Order in substitution for the existing ordinary stock held by them respectively, and to define the rights inter se and otherwise of the holders of consolidated stock and redeemable stock respectively.

To provide that any consolidated stock and redeemable stock substituted for existing ordinary stock shall be held on the same trusts and for the same purposes and in the same manner as the stock for which it is substituted, and that transfers of existing ordinary stock shall, after the date of conversion, take effect as transfers of the appropriate amounts of consolidated stock and redeemable stock or one of such stocks (as the case may be).

To require the delivery up of certificates for existing ordinary stock, and to provide for the issue in substitution therefor of certificates for consolidated stock and redeemable stock or one of such stocks (as the case may be), and to authorize the Company to refrain from paying dividends on consolidated stock and redeemable stock issued in substitution for existing ordinary stock, for which certificates are not delivered up within the prescribed period.

To prescribe the minimum amounts of consolidated stock and redeemable stock in respect of which a holder may be registered, and the multiples in which those stocks shall be transferable.

To provide for the redemption of the redeemable stock.

To repeal or amend section 17 of the Ipswich Gas Act, 1847 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act of 1847"), and section 3 of the Ipswich Gas Act, 1864 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act of 1864"), or one of those sections, and to prescribe a new scale of voting by the stockholders of the Company.

To authorize the Company to raise by the creation and issue of further amounts of consolidated stock any moneys which they were empowered by the Ipswich Gas Act, 1903

(hereinafter referred to as "the Act of 1903"), to raise by the creation and issue of additional Ordinary C. Stock or Preference Stock, but have not so raised.

To repeal, alter or amend section 17 of the Ipswich Gas Act, 1883 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act of 1883"), as amended by the Ipswich Gas (Charges) Order, 1921, and to prescribe a new sliding scale for determining the authorized rate of dividend from time to time on the Consolidated Stock in relation to the price charged by the Company for gas supplied by them in the several quarters of the year or half year.

To authorize the Company to borrow additional sums of money in respect of their existing capital (whether issued or not), and in respect of the proposed additional borrowing powers to create and issue debenture stock, and to apply thereto the provisions of Part III of the Companies Clauses Act, 1863, with such modifications as may be specified in the Order and to provide that the interest on all mortgages and debenture stock of the Company shall rank pari passu.

To repeal, alter or amend all or some of the provisions of sections 9, 10, 11 and 12 of the Act of 1903, and to enact new provisions with respect to the mode and conditions of issue of stock under the powers of that Act or of the Order.

To empower the Board of Trade to waive the intended requirements as to mode of issue of stock and to sanction the issue of stock by subscription.

To repeal sections 19 and 30 of the Act of 1903.

To authorize the Company to raise, by the creation and issue of redeemable Preference Stock or redeemable Debenture Stock, all or any moneys which they are or may be from time to time authorized to raise by the creation and issue of Preference Stock or Debenture Stock; to provide for the redemption of such redeemable stock either by payment in cash or by the issue (free from the provisions relating to the mode and conditions of issue of stock) of substituted stock, whether redeemable or irredeemable, or by the re-issue of maturing redeemable stock; to enable the Company to raise any sums in cash required for such redemption, either by the creation and issue of new Ordinary or Preference Stock (and in the case of Preference Stock, either redeemable or irredeemable) or new Debenture Stock (as the case may be).

To authorize the directors to declare and pay dividends on the preference and consolidated and redeemable stocks of the Company in respect of any half-year ending on the 30th day of June, and to make provisions with respect to the dividends to be declared at the annual general meetings of the Company.

To authorize the directors of the Company to close the register of transfers at such times and for such periods as may be specified in the Order and to make provisions as to transfers tendered to the Company during any period while the register is so closed.

To authorize the directors to establish a fund by contributions out of revenue as part of their working expenses, to be applied for such special purposes (including the defraying of expenses incurred through accidents, strikes or unforeseen circumstances, and the replacement or removal of works and plant) as may be specified in the Order, and to provide for the merger with that fund of the Insurance Fund of the Company, and to repeal section 18 of the Act of 1883.

To authorize the directors to accumulate by annual appropriations out of the revenue of the Company and as part of their working expenses a fund to provide for the renewal and repair of works, mains and plant.

To repeal or amend section 18 of the Act of 1847, and to prescribe a new qualification for the directors of the Company.

To enact that subject to certain conditions persons shall not be disqualified from being or continuing directors of the Company by the holding of any office or place of trust or profit under the Company or by being interested in contracts with the Company, and to authorize any person while being a director to act in any professional capacity on behalf of the Company and to charge and receive fees therefor without being disqualified from continuing to be a director.

To authorize the directors to appoint one or more of their number to be a managing director or managing directors of the Company, and to provide for the remuneration of any managing directors so appointed, and that they shall not be liable to retirement by rotation, and to authorize the delegation to them of all or some of the powers of the directors.

To provide for notice of the candidature of persons for election as directors and of opposition to the re-election of retiring directors, and that in the absence of such notice persons shall not be eligible for election as a director or shall not be entitled to oppose the re-election of a retiring director.

To empower the Company to use for the manufacture and storage of gas and the manufacture, working up and conversion of residual products the following lands (that is to say):—

Lands in the parish of St. Mary Stoke, in the Borough of Ipswich and County of Suffolk, bounded on the west in part by Wherstead Road and in other part by land and garden belonging or reputed to belong to Sarah Frances King, on the north in part by lands used for allotments belonging or reputed to belong to Sir Arthur Charles Churchman, Baronet and in other part by the River Orwell, on the east by the said River Orwell and on the south in part by that river and in other part by land and garden belonging or reputed to belong to the said Sarah Frances King, and to empower the Company to purchase and work up and convert residual products.

To extend the limits of supply of the Company so as to include the parishes of Purdis Farm and Alnesbourne Priory, in the rural district of Woodbridge in the county of Suffolk, and to authorize the Company to exercise within those parishes the like rights and powers as in the existing limits of supply.

To authorize the directors to determine from time to time the remuneration of the secretary and auditors of the Company.

To authorize the Company to give a separate supply of power gas or gas for industrial purposes free from the conditions as to calorific value or purity for the time being applicable to the gas supplied by the Company, and to make charges therefor which will not be taken into account for the purposes of the sliding scale of price and dividend.

To authorize the Company to charge varying prices for gas supplied by them, having regard to the purposes for which the gas is supplied.

To relieve the Company in certain cases from the obligation to supply gas from any main of which the capacity is insufficient for the purpose.

To empower the Company (without prejudice to other remedies) in any case in which they are authorized to cut off and discontinue the supply of gas to any premises in consequence of default by the consumer to disconnect the service pipe at the meter and to prohibit subject to penalties the unauthorized reconnection of the service pipe with the meter, and to confer upon the Company additional powers of entering on premises for the said purposes.

To authorize the Company to enter any premises on which there are any pipes, meters, fittings or apparatus of the Company for the purpose of removing the same in any case in which a person entering into occupation of such premises does not require to take a supply of gas from the Company or to hire from the Company such pipes, meters, fittings or apparatus.

To entitle the Company to require the payment of a minimum annual or other periodical sum where they are required to supply gas for purposes of a stand-by only to persons having a supply of gas from an installation other than that of the Company or a supply of electricity.

To amend section 15 of the Act of 1864.

To empower the Company to require the provision of an efficient non-return valve where air at high pressure is used in connection with the supply of gas and to enter and inspect premises to ascertain whether any such valve is provided and to inspect any valve which has been provided.

To empower the Company to lay down, maintain, repair, remove and renew pipes for procuring, conducting or disposing of oil and other materials and for any such purpose to open and break up streets and roads.

To amend and extend section 28 of the Act of 1903 or otherwise to confer powers upon the Company so as to enable them to contract for the purchase or sale of gas in bulk from or to other gas undertakers or from or to any authority, company or person producing gas of any description.

To provide that any meters, fittings, stoves, engines, apparatus or appliances let for hire by the Company shall remain the property of and removable by them notwithstanding that they be fixed to the premises in which they are situate.

To empower the Company in any case in which they have cut off the supply of gas owing to the default of the consumer to recover from him the cost of reconnection in case he desires to resume the supply and to relieve the Company from the obligation to supply gas to him until he has paid such cost.

To authorize the Company to purchase, take on lease or erect houses and buildings for persons in their employ and offices, showrooms and other buildings, and to maintain and let any such houses or buildings.

To authorize the directors to make superannuation and other allowances and to pay gratuities and pensions to officers and servants of the Company in such circumstances as may be described in the Order, and to subscribe or make donations to hospitals and similar institutions and to exhibitions and to the superannuation, benevolent and sick funds of the employees of the Company, and to apply the funds and revenues of the Company for the said purposes or any of them.

To empower the Company to acquire and use licences or other authorities to work patents in connection with their undertaking.

To authorize the Company or the directors thereof to establish a scheme of co-partnership for their employees, and to provide for the allocation to or for the benefit of the employees participating in any scheme of co-partnership established under powers to be conferred by the Order or otherwise of moneys out of the funds and revenue of the Company.

To empower the Company or the directors thereof, either in connection with any such scheme as aforesaid or otherwise, to accept from their employees sums of money on deposit and to pay interest thereon out of the revenue of the Company, and to issue to any such employee stock of the Company with such rights as to dividend or otherwise as may be specified in the Order, and to make provision as to the transmission of any stock so issued.

To prescribe and provide for the recovery of penalties for infringement of the provisions of the Order.

To make provisions with respect to the authentication and service of notices by the Company and the recovery of demands.

To vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with the objects of the Order, and to confer other rights and privileges.

The Order will incorporate with itself, with or without modification, all or some of the provisions of the Companies Clauses Acts, 1845 to 1889, the Gasworks Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1871, and any Act amending the same respectively.

Any local or other public authority, company or person desiring to bring before the Board of Trade any objection to the draft Order may do so by registered letter addressed to the Director of Gas Administration, Board of Trade, Great George Street, London, S.W. 1, and despatched on or before the 30th day of September, 1922. Any such objection shall state:—

- (a) the specific grounds of objection; and
- (b) the omissions, additions or modifications asked for.

A copy of the objection must be forwarded to the Company or their Agents at the same time as it is sent to the Board of Trade.

A copy of the draft Special Order and an Ordnance map showing the situation of the works for the manufacture and storage of gas and the manufacture, working up and conversion of residual products and the boundaries of the area of supply and of the intended addition to that area have been deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for East Suffolk at the County Hall, Ipswich, and at the offices of the Company, Carr Street, Ipswich, and a copy of the draft Special Order has been deposited with the officers respectively hereinafter mentioned (that is to say):—

With the Clerk to the East Suffolk County Council at his office at the County Hall, Ipswich.

With the Town Clerk of the Borough of Ipswich at his office at the Town Hall, Ipswich.

With the Clerk to the Samford Rural District Council at his office at No. 5, Museum Street, Ipswich.

With the Clerk to the Bosmere and Claydon Rural District Council at his office at No. 20, Providence Street, Ipswich.

With the Clerk to the Woodbridge Rural District Council at his office in New Street, Woodbridge.

Printed copies of the draft Special Order may be obtained at the offices of the Company, Carr Street, Ipswich, and at the offices of the undermentioned Solicitors and Parliamentary Agents, at the price of 1s. each.

Dated this 28th day of August, 1922.

Ministry of Transport.—August, 1922.

TOTTON HYTHE AND FAWLEY LIGHT RAILWAY.

(AMENDMENT.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the month of August, 1922 (the consent of the Minister of Transport to such application being made having been given under Statutory Rules and Orders, 1914, No. 1380), by the Totton Hythe and Fawley Light Railway Company (hereinafter called "the Company") for an Order, pursuant to the Light Railways Acts, 1896 and 1912, as amended by the Railways Act, 1921, to amend the Totton Hythe and Fawley Light Railway Order, 1921 (hereinafter called "the Order of 1921") in the following manner (that is to say):—

To authorise the Company to construct, maintain and work the extension and deviation railways hereinafter described, together with all necessary and proper stations, approaches, works, buildings, sidings, junctions and conveniences therewith (that is to say):—

An Extension Railway (No. 1) commencing by a junction with the railway authorised by the Order of 1921 (hereinafter referred to as the "Railway of 1921") at a point one furlong or thereabouts measured along the centre line shown on the plan deposited in respect of the Railway of 1921 from its commencement, and terminating by a junction with the London and South Western Railway Company's Southampton and Dorchester Railway at a point one furlong one chain or thereabouts measured in an easterly direction from the centre of the footbridge situate on the eastern side of Brokenford Lane.

The said railway (No. 1) will be situate in the parishes of Netley Marsh and Eling, in the rural district of New Forest, in the county of Southampton.

A deviation railway (No. 2) commencing at a point shown on the plan deposited in respect of the Railway of 1921 as five miles one furlong or thereabouts measured along the centre line from the commencement of that railway, and terminating at a point shown on the before-mentioned plan as six miles seven furlongs or thereabouts measured as aforesaid.

The said railway (No. 2) will be situate in the parishes of Dibden and Fawley, in the rural district of New Forest, in the county of Southampton.

To authorise the Company to abandon so much of the Railway of 1921 as will be rendered unnecessary by reason of the construction of deviation railway (No. 2).

To transfer to and vest in the London and South Western Railway Company the powers, rights and privileges conferred on the Company by the Order of 1921 and any other powers which may be conferred on the Company in connection with the present application.

To provide for the winding-up of the affairs and the dissolution of the Company.

Dated the 18th day of August, 1922.

W. BISHOP, Solicitor and Parliamentary
Agent for and on behalf of the Totton
Hythe and Fawley Light Railway Company.

No. 00267 of 1922.

In the Matter of HARRIS (CALNE) AND THE GENERAL PRODUCE COMPANY Limited, and in the Matter of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by an Order dated 28th July, 1922, the Court has directed separate Meetings of the two several classes of Shareholders of the above named Company respectively referred to in the Schedule hereto, to be convened for the purpose of considering and, if thought fit, approving (with or without modification), the scheme of arrangement proposed to be made between the said Company and the two several classes of Shareholders respectively referred to in the Schedule hereto, and that such Meetings will be held at Counterslip Hall, Victoria-street, in the city of Bristol, on Monday, the 11th day of September, 1922, at the respective times specified in the second column of the Schedule hereto, at which respective times and place all the said Shareholders are respectively requested to attend.

A copy of the said scheme of arrangement can be seen at the registered office of the Company, situate at 55, Victoria-street, Bristol.

The said respective Shareholders may attend such Meetings respectively and vote thereat either in person or by proxy, but all proxies must be deposited with the Company at the registered office, situate as aforsaid, not later than 48 hours before the time appointed for the Meetings.

Proper stamped forms of proxy may be obtained from the Secretary of the Company.

The person appointed to act as proxy must in the case of Shareholders referred to as Class 1 be a like Shareholder, and in the case of Shareholders referred to as Class 2 be a like Shareholder.

Where there are joint registered holders of any share any one of such persons may vote at any Meeting, either personally or by proxy, in respect of such share as if he were solely entitled thereto; and if more than one of such joint holders be present at any Meeting, personally or by proxy, that one of the said persons so present in person or by proxy whose name stands first on the register in respect of such share shall alone be entitled to vote in respect thereof.

By the said Order the Court has appointed John Francis Bodinnar, or, failing him, Fernley Gardner, or, failing him, Mathew Barrington Jellett, to be Chairman of each of the said respective Meetings, and has directed the Chairman to report the results of the said Meetings respectively to the Court.

The said scheme will be subject to the subsequent approval of the Court.—Dated this 25th day of August, 1922.

STEPHENSON, HARWOOD and TATHAM,
Solicitors to the Company.

THE SCHEDULE ABOVE REFERRED TO.

Particulars of Meetings ordered to be convened of the Shareholders of the above named Company.	Times appointed for the Meetings on the 11th September, 1922.
Class 1.—The holders of shares (representing the purchase price) issued to and still held by the original vendors.	1. At 11.30 o'clock in the forenoon.
Class 2.—The holders of the remaining shares of the said Company.	2. At 12.30 o'clock in the afternoon, or so soon thereafter as the preceding Meeting shall have been concluded.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.
Mr. Justice Astbury.
No. 00352 of 1922.

In the Matter of KALGOORLIE ELECTRIC POWER AND LIGHTING CORPORATION Limited, and in the Matter of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by an Order, dated the 6th day of July, 1922, the Court has directed separate Meetings of:—

(1) The holders of the Preference shares of the above named Company, and

(2) The holders of the Ordinary shares of the said Company, to be convened for the purpose of considering, and, if thought fit, approving, with or without modification, a scheme of arrangement proposed to be made between the said Company and the holders of the Preference shares and the holders of the Ordinary shares respectively of the said Company.

The said Meetings will be held at Winchester House, Old Broad-street, in the city of London, on Thursday, the 14th September, 1922, at the times below mentioned, namely:—

The Meeting of the holders of the said Preference shares at 12.15 o'clock in the afternoon.

The Meeting of the holders of the said Ordinary shares at 12.30 o'clock in the afternoon or so soon thereafter as the preceding Meeting shall have been concluded, at which place and respective times all the aforsaid Preference and Ordinary shareholders are respectively requested to attend.

A copy of the said scheme of arrangement can be seen at the registered office of the Company situate at Broad-street House, New Broad-street, London, E.C. 2, between the hours of 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. on any week day prior to the day appointed for the said Meetings.

The said Preference and Ordinary shareholders may attend such Meetings respectively and vote thereat, either in person or by proxy, provided that all forms appointing proxies are deposited with the Company at its registered office situate as aforesaid, not later than two clear days before the day fixed for holding the said Meetings respectively.

Forms of proxy may be obtained from the Secretary of the Company.

If two or more persons be jointly entitled to a share, any one of such persons may vote at any Meeting, either personally or by proxy, in respect thereof as if he were solely entitled thereto, and if more than one of such joint holders be present at any Meeting, either personally or by proxy, that one of such persons so present whose name stands first in the Register of Members in respect of such share shall alone be entitled to vote in respect thereof.

The person appointed to act as proxy must in the case of a Preference shareholder be a like holder and in the case of an Ordinary shareholder be a like holder.

The Court has appointed George Charles Howard, or, failing him, Gerald Tattersall Moody (Directors of the Company) to be Chairman of the said Meetings respectively, and has directed the Chairman to report the results thereof to the Court. The above mentioned scheme of arrangement will be subject to the subsequent approval of the Court.
