ORDER OF THE MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

(DATED 22ND SEPTEMBER 1922.)

IRISH ANIMALS ORDER OF 1922 (No. 2).

The Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in him under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1914, and of every other power enabling him in this behalf, hereby orders as follows:—

Reduction to six days of period of detention in respect of Animals moved from an Irish Animals Landing Place under the Irish Animals Order of 1922.

1. Article 4 of the Irish Animals Order of 1922 is hereby revoked, and the following article substituted therefor:—

“ 4.—(1) Cattle and sheep moved to premises other than a market, fairground or saleyard from an Irish Animals Landing Place or from a special market shall on arrival at the place of destination specified in the licence be detained therein for a period of six days after arrival thereat, unless the animals are slaughtered on the premises before the expiration of that period. During that period the animals shall not be removed from the premises except with a licence granted by an Inspector of the Local Authority, and then only to a slaughterhouse for the purpose of slaughter therein. Animals so moved shall be detained at the slaughterhouse specified in the licence until slaughtered.

“(2) Cattle shall not be moved from an Irish Animals Landing Place with a licence under this Order unless and until they are marked by and at the expense of the owner or his agent by the clipping of a broad arrow, ↑ about six inches long, on the left hind-quarter of each of the cattle, if the cattle are not intended for immediate slaughter, and on the right hind-quarter of each of the cattle if the cattle are intended for immediate slaughter.”

Detention of Cattle Moved under Previous Order.

2. Cattle moved from a Landing Place or a special market before the date of commencement of this Order with a licence under the Order hereby modified shall not be required (notwithstanding any provision in such Order) to be detained at the place of destination specified in such licence for a longer period than six days after the date of the commencement of this Order.

Short Title.

3. This Order may be cited as the IRISH ANIMALS ORDER of 1922 (No. 2).

Commencement.

4. This Order shall come into operation
