

date for any higher degree who shall not have previously taken the lower degree or degrees of the same class. Provided that students whose qualifications are considered suitable may be admitted by the Senate as candidates for the Degrees of Doctor of Laws and Doctor of Science without their having previously obtained the Degrees of Master of Laws and Master of Science respectively, and students who have obtained the Degree of Doctor of Philosophy in subjects within the purview of the Faculty of Arts may be admitted by the Senate as candidates for the Degree of Doctor of Literature without their having previously obtained the Degree of Master of Arts. Provided also that during the war begun in 1914 and after its termination for such period as the Senate shall see fit the Senate shall have power to waive the conditions of this Statute in such a way as will prevent as far as possible any student of the University (whether an honorary (war) degree has been conferred on him by the University or not) from being placed at a disadvantage through going on active service or undertaking other approved duties in connection with national defence, and in particular the Senate may accept such test as the Senate may consider adequate in lieu of the prescribed examinations.

(c) No. 12 of the Statutes for the Constitution and Management of University of London, King's College, as amended.

[NOTE.—The amendment consists in the substitution for the words "Principal of the University" of the words "Principal Officer of the University" and the addition where they appear of the words "the Tutor to Women Students."]
