At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 25th day of October, 1922.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it is enacted by section 6 of the Juries Act, 1922, that provision may be made by Order in Council for authorizing a sheriff to require information to be furnished to him in writing or otherwise by persons summoned to attend on juries with respect to their sex and their professions, callings or businesses, and for imposing on persons who fail to furnish the required information or who furnish false information a penalty to be recovered on summary conviction not exceeding five pounds in respect of any one offence:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon Him by the said section, and of all other powers enabling Him in that behalf, is pleased by and with the advice of His Privy Council to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. Any sheriff by whom a jury summons is issued at any time after the thirty-first day of December, 1922, may require the person to whom the summons is issued to furnish to him in writing information with respect to his sex, profession, calling or business.

2. If any person required by a sheriff to furnish information in pursuance of this Order fails to furnish in writing to the sheriff the required information within three days after the date on which the jury summons is received by him, or furnishes false information, he shall be liable on summary conviction in respect of each offence to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

3. Where a sheriff requires information to be furnished in pursuance of this Order, he shall for the purpose of facilitating the furnishing of the information enclose with the jury summons an officially-stamped postcard on which the information may be given.

4. This Order may be cited as the Jurors (Information as to Professions) Order, 1922.
