27. If at any time a carriage becomes disabled or in any way damaged, or if from any cause in the opinion of the conductor it is impracticable or undesirable to proceed with passengers, the passengers shall, upon request of the conductor, leave the same. If such passengers have paid their fares they shall not be entitled to demand back the amount of their fares so paid, but on production of their tickets shall be entitled to travel by the next available carriage the remainder of the distance in respect of which they have paid their fares. No person shall, except with the leave of the conductor, enter a disabled or damaged carriage.
