

not exceeding six years, appropriating the Dividend of such Fellowship during that period to a fund, to be called the Pension Fund, applicable to the payment of the Pensions of Fellows and the special emoluments of Pensioner Fellows under the eleventh chapter of this Statute; provided that the total number of Fellowships so suspended, together with the number of Fellowships held under the Founder's Statutes and the Statutes of 1861, shall not at any time exceed six.

4. At any election a Fellowship, which is not actually vacant, but which, so far as can be then foreseen, will be vacated on or before the first day of the Michaelmas Term then next following, may be treated as a vacant Fellowship.

5. The intellectual qualifications of the candidates and their proficiency in any branch or branches of the University studies shall be ascertained in such manner as the Governing Body shall determine. The electors shall choose in each case that candidate (being otherwise duly qualified) whom they shall think most fit to be a Fellow of the College as a place of education, religion, learning, and research, but they shall not be bound to elect any candidate whom they shall not consider of sufficient merit for election.

6. The electors to Fellowships shall be the Provost, the Vice-Provost, and at least seven other Fellows, to be annually appointed by the Governing Body.

7. No person shall vote at any election of Fellows who has not taken part in ascertaining the qualifications and proficiency of the candidates.

8. Before proceeding to make their election, the electors shall severally make the following declaration:—

"I do solemnly declare that I will vote for those candidates who are [that candidate who is] in my judgment the most fit to be Fellows [a Fellow] of the College, as a place of education, religion, learning, and research."

9. No candidate shall be elected a Fellow without the concurrence of at least one-half of the electors present at the election; the Provost, or in his absence the Vice-Provost, or in the absence of both the Senior Fellow present, having a second or casting vote in case of an equality of votes. If for the want of such concurrence a Fellowship shall remain vacant, the Dividend thereof shall be applied to the purposes mentioned in the second section of this chapter.

10. Within fifteen days after the election, the Provost, or in his absence the Vice-Provost, and at least four of the Fellows, shall meet in the College Chapel and shall call upon the several Fellows elect to make the following declaration:—

"I, M. N., elected a Fellow of this College, do solemnly declare that I will observe all the Statutes of the College, and will endeavour to the utmost of my power to promote the interests of the College, as a place of education, religion, learning, and research."

11. After this declaration the Fellow elect shall be admitted to the Fellowship by the Provost, or in his absence the Vice-Provost, and shall enter upon the emoluments of the same as from the day of his election, provided that any person elected to a Fellowship under the fourth section of this chapter shall not be entitled to any emolument thereof until the same has become actually vacant.

12. If any person elected a Fellow shall be prevented by illness or other grave cause from being admitted within the fifteen days aforesaid, it shall be lawful to admit him at some later time, on his making the declaration hereinbefore provided.

Given under our Common Seal this 29th day of December, 1922.

A STATUTE to alter a Statute made by the Commissioners appointed under The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877 (40 and 41 Victoria, Chapter 48), in relation to the King's College of Our Lady and Saint Nicholas in Cambridge duly made at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of the said College specially summoned for this purpose held on the 28th day of November, 1922, and passed at such Meeting by the votes of not less than two thirds of the number of persons present and voting and submitted for the approval of His Majesty the King in Council.

Whereas by Statute E, Chapter V, made by the Commissioners under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877 (40 and 41 Victoria, Chapter 48), in relation to the King's College of Our Lady and Saint Nicholas in Cambridge as amended by Statute dated the 30th day of November, 1894, and approved by Her late Majesty the Queen in Council on the 29th day of June, 1895, it is enacted as follows:—

CHAPTER V.

Vacation of Fellowships.

1. Subject to the exceptions hereinafter mentioned, every Fellow shall vacate his Fellowship at the expiration of a fixed term of six years, to be reckoned from the day of his election, except in the case of a Fellow elected under the second section of the third chapter of this Statute, in whose case the term of years shall be reckoned from the time of his entering upon the emoluments of his Fellowship; but there shall not be reckoned as part of such term of years any time during which a Fellow has held any one or more of the College and University Offices hereinafter mentioned.

2. Any Fellow who shall have held one or more of the said offices for not less than twenty-five years altogether, shall be excepted from the operation of the last preceding section.

3. The College offices referred to in the two sections last preceding shall be such annual and educational offices as the Annual Congregation shall from time to time determine; and the University offices referred to in the same sections shall be the offices of Public Orator, Registrar, and Librarian, together with such other offices as a Congregation shall, by the vote of an actual majority of the whole Governing Body, from time to time determine.

4. A Congregation may, by the vote of an actual majority of the whole Governing Body, allow any Fellow eminent for learning or science, or whose studies are likely to be of material service in the promotion of any art or science, and whose Fellowship would but for such vote expire within the then ensuing year, to retain his Fellowship for a further period
