

4. Upon the vacation of a Professorial Fellowship the electors may forthwith elect any qualified person thereto, or may permit such Fellowship to remain vacant until the electors for the time being think fit to fill up the same.

5. The manner of electing to Professorial Fellowships, and all proceedings relating to the election, shall be in the discretion of the electors, provided that the actual election shall be made at a meeting of the electors, and that no election shall be made without the concurrence of at least one half of the electors present at the election, the Provost, or in his absence the Vice-Provost, or in the absence of both the senior Fellow present, having a second or casting vote in case of an equality of votes.

6. The ninth, tenth, and eleventh sections of the third chapter of this Statute shall apply to persons elected to Professorial Fellowships.

And whereas it appears to us the Provost and Scholars of the said College (being the Governing Body thereof) that it is expedient to alter the said Statute E, Chapter VI, in manner hereinafter appearing: Now therefore we the Provost and Scholars of the said College do hereby in exercise of the powers given us by the 54th section of the said Act alter and amend Chapter VI of the said Statute E hereinbefore set out by substituting therefor the following (that is to say):

CHAPTER VI.

Professorial Fellowships.

1. There shall be in the College four Professorial Fellowships, which shall be established and held according to the terms and conditions prescribed by the Statutes of the University for Professorial Fellowships made under the powers of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877.

2. The holders of Professorial Fellowships shall have the same privileges and emoluments as the other Fellows of the College.

3. The electors mentioned in the third chapter of this Statute shall be the electors to Professorial Fellowships.

4. Upon the vacation of a Professorial Fellowship the electors may forthwith elect any qualified person thereto, or may permit such Fellowship to remain vacant until the electors for the time being think fit to fill up the same.

5. The manner of electing to Professorial Fellowships, and all proceedings relating to the election, shall be in the discretion of the electors, provided that the actual election shall be made at a meeting of the electors, and that no election shall be made without the concurrence of at least one half of the electors present at the election, the Provost, or in his absence the Vice-Provost, or in the absence of both the senior Fellow present, having a second or casting vote in case of an equality of votes.

6. The tenth, eleventh and twelfth sections of the third chapter of this Statute shall apply to persons elected to Professorial Fellowships.

(L. S.)

Given under our Common Seal this 29th day of December, 1922.

Whereas it appeared to us The Provost and Scholars of Our Lady and Saint Nicholas in Cambridge at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of the said College specially summoned for this purpose held on the 28th day of November, 1922, expedient to add in manner hereinafter appearing an additional chapter to Statute E and the same was passed at such Meeting by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the number of persons present and voting. Now therefore we The Provost and Scholars of the said College do hereby in exercise of the powers given us by the 54th section of The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877 (40 and 41 Victoria, Chapter 48), submit such addition to the said Statute E for the approval of His Majesty the King in Council (that is to say):

CHAPTER XI.

Pensioner Fellows.

1. Any Fellow, other than a Professorial or Honorary or Additional or Supernumerary Fellow, who shall have reached fifty-five years of age, and shall have been excepted from the operation of Statute E. V. 1, or shall have reached sixty years of age and have held a Fellowship for twenty years or more, shall be qualified for election by a Congregation to a Pensioner Fellowship, provided that he does not hold a pension from the College, or emoluments of an annual value exceeding four hundred pounds in the aggregate derived from any of the following sources, namely: (i) tenure of an office or offices in the College, or (ii) a pension from any other authority than the College, or (iii) a regular appointment or appointments from the University or other authority, or (iv) ecclesiastical preferment. And a Congregation shall have power to decide any question as to the validity of such qualification, and the date from which the emoluments of a Pensioner Fellow shall accrue.

2. A Fellow so qualified shall be entitled to claim election to a Pensioner Fellowship.

3. A Congregation may, by the vote of an actual majority of the whole Governing Body, elect to a Pensioner Fellowship a Fellow who is not qualified for election under the first section of this chapter, if he has held a Fellowship, which may be a Professorial Fellowship, for twenty years or more; provided that any pension which he may be receiving from the College shall thereupon lapse.

4. A Pensioner Fellow shall be excepted from the operation of Statute E. V. 1.

5. The Dividend of Pensioner Fellows shall in each year be fixed at such a rate that the payments to them shall amount in the aggregate to twenty times the Dividend of an ordinary Fellow, less the total amount paid to Fellows under the Founder's Statutes and Fellows under the Statutes of 1861, subject to the condition that it shall not exceed twice the Dividend of an ordinary Fellow. In other respects a Pensioner Fellow shall be entitled to all the privileges and emoluments of a Fellow. He shall retain his seniority in the order of Fellows.

6. A Fellow who has been elected to a Pensioner Fellowship may resume his former status upon signifying in writing to the Provost his wish to do so, and obtaining the consent of the Governing Body.

7. The tenth chapter of this Statute shall apply to Pensioner Fellows.
