

" And with the like consent of the said John Edwin, Bishop of Chelmsford (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said Church called Christ Church, Southchurch, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees or dues to be received in respect of the publication of banns and of the solemnization or performance of marriages, churchings, and burials should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

" We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal Wisdom, shall seem meet.

" The Schedule to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

" The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Southchurch, being:—

" All that part of the Parish of Southchurch, in the County of Essex and in the Diocese of Chelmsford, which is bounded upon the west by the New Parish of Saint Erkenwald, Southend, in the said County and Diocese, upon the south by the Estuary of the River Thames, upon the east by the District of Saint Augustine, Thorpe Bay, in the said County and Diocese, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the north by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said District of Saint Augustine, Thorpe Bay, from the said Parish of Southchurch at the centre of the bridge which carries the London, Tilbury and Southend Line of the Midland Railway across the road known as Thorpe Hall Avenue and extending thence westward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of 1 mile and 22 chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said Parish of Southchurch from the said New Parish of Saint Erkenwald, Southend."

And whereas the said Representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Chelmsford.

Buckingham Palace, S.W.,
2nd February, 1923.*

The KING has been graciously pleased to appoint the Reverend Walter Robert Matthews, D.D., Dean of King's College, London, to be a Chaplain to His Majesty, in the room of the Reverend Arthur Cayley Headlam, C.H., D.D., appointed to be Bishop of Gloucester.

TENDERS FOR TREASURY BILLS AND TREASURY BONDS.

1. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that Tenders will be received at the Chief Cashier's Office, at the Bank of England, on Friday, the 9th February, 1923, at 1 o'clock, for

(a) Treasury Bills to be issued under the Treasury Bills Act, 1877, the National Debt Act, 1889, and the War Loan Acts, 1914-1919, and

(b) £4 10s. per cent. Treasury Bonds, repayable at par on the 15th April, 1932.

2. The maximum amount of Treasury Bills and Treasury Bonds to be issued will be £35,000,000. The amount of Treasury Bonds issued will not exceed £5,000,000, but subject to that limit the total amount issued will be divided between Bills and Bonds in such proportions as Their Lordships may determine.

TREASURY BILLS.

3. The Bills will be in amounts of £5,000 or £10,000. They will be dated at the option of the Tenderer on any business day from Monday, the 12th February, 1923, to Saturday, the 17th February, 1923, inclusive, and will be payable at three months after date.

4. The Bills will be issued and paid at the Bank of England.

5. Each Tender must be for an amount not less than £50,000, and must specify the date on which the Bills required are to be dated, and the net amount per cent. (being an even multiple of one penny) which will be given for the amount applied for. Separate Tenders must be lodged for Bills of different dates.

4½ PER CENT. TREASURY BONDS, 1932.

6. The Bonds will be in denominations of £50, £100, £200, £500, £1,000, and £5,000. They will be exempt from Corporation Profits Tax, and will, as indicated in the Notice of 6th October, 1922, rank pari passu with those issued under the Prospectus of the 21st of April, 1922. They will be dated at the option of the Tenderer on any business day from Monday, the 12th February, 1923, to Saturday, the 17th February, 1923, inclusive; the first dividend, payable on the 15th April, 1923, will represent in the case of each Bond interest to that date from the date of the Bond.

7. Each Tender must be for an amount not less than £50,000, and must specify the date on which the Bonds required are to be dated, and the net amount per cent. (being an even multiple of one shilling) which will be given for the amount applied for. Separate Tenders must be lodged for Bonds of different dates.

8. Tenders must be made through a London Banker, Discount House or Broker.

9. The persons whose Tenders are accepted will be informed of the same not later than the following day, and payment in full of the amounts of the accepted Tenders must be made to the Bank of England by means of Cash or a Banker's Draft on the Bank of England not
