Admiralty, 13th February, 1923.

The President of the Admiralty Transport Arbitration Board has authorised the issue of revised Rules to take the place of those contained in the Notification in the London Gazette dated 31st August, 1914, as set forth below:—

ADMIRALTY TRANSPORT ARBITRATION BOARD.

RULES.

1. Every claim whatsoever arising out of or in respect of the requisitioning of any ship or vessel under His Majesty's Proclamation of the 3rd day of August, 1914, or under Regulation 39 BBB (3) of the Regulations issued under the Defence of the Realm (Consolidation) Act, 1914, or otherwise, which has not already been left with or sent to the Department of State concerned, shall be made out in full detail and left with, or sent to, the Secretary of the Board of Arbitration at Winchester House, 21, St. James's Square, London, S.W. 1, in quadruplicate, within one year from the termination of the War, or the date when the transaction giving rise to the claim took place, whichever may be later.

2. Every claim shall be accompanied by the necessary vouchers and supporting documents, and such explanatory statement as may be required to make clear the nature of the claim, and the grounds thereof.

3. The Secretary of the Board of Arbitration shall lay the claim before the President of the Board of Arbitration, who may direct the claim to be heard and disposed of by a Tribunal consisting of the President and the Vice-President or consisting of either the President or Vice-President and an Arbitrator or Arbitrators selected by the President from the Panel, and the Award of any two members of such Tribunal shall be final and conclusive, and shall not be subject to appeal or review, except upon any direction or determination of the Tribunal on any point of law submitted to it as provided in Section 2 (1) of the Indemnity Act, 1920.

4. The President may, from time to time, vary or supersede the existing Rules for regulating the procedure of the Board to such extent as he may consider necessary or desirable, and may also make additional rules of procedure.

5. The President may, from time to time, authorise the members of the Panel as a body, or any of them, and whether with or without the inclusion of himself or of the Vice-President, to act as a Board for the consideration of questions of general applicability, such as the approximate monthly rate of hire for vessels of different classes and similar matters. Arbitrators nominated by the President in particular cases may have regard to, and consider, but shall not be bound by, the conclusions of any Board so constituted upon the questions submitted to such Board, and the fact that any Arbitrator appointed by the President in a particular case has been a member of any such Board, shall be no objection to his competency as an Arbitrator in such particular case.

The President may authorise any person or persons who, in his opinion, will efficiently and sufficiently represent the interests of parties concerned in any such question of general applicability submitted by any such Board to appear before the Board and represent such interests accordingly.

6. The Tribunal may make Interim Awards as regards any of the questions submitted to them.

7. It shall be competent for the Tribunal adjudicating upon any claim to receive as evidence any information, statements or testimony, which may appear to them likely to be of assistance, notwithstanding that the same may not be evidence according to law.

8. Any matter or question of procedure not disposed of by these rules or any question arising thereon shall be determined by the President of the Board of Arbitration as in his discretion he shall think fit to direct.

9. The Vice-President of the Board of Arbitration may by direction of the President act in any matter hereunder for the President, and he may also act as President should the President for any reason at any time be unable to act. Any direction or decision of the Vice-President when so acting for or as the President shall be as effectual as though made or given by the President.

Trevethin,
President.
