

Judicature (Northern Ireland) Order, 1921, as relates to the said Schedule is hereby revoked, but without prejudice to the validity of anything already done thereunder.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of March, 1923.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Sir Frederick Ponsonby.
Sir John Baird, Bt.
Mr. Neville Chamberlain.

WHEREAS it is expedient to repeal the Northern Rhodesia Order in Council, 1913, with a view to making other provision for the exercise of the chief command of the Police and Volunteer Forces of Northern Rhodesia:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers by the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, or otherwise in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Northern Rhodesia Order in Council, 1923.

2. The Northern Rhodesia Order in Council, 1913, is hereby repealed.

3. The Commandant of the Northern Rhodesia Police shall exercise the chief command of all police or volunteer forces, whether employed on active service or not.

4. Where by any local proclamation or other instrument in force in Northern Rhodesia any powers or duties are conferred or imposed upon the Commandant-General they shall be deemed to be imposed or conferred on the Administrator, who may, if he sees fit, delegate any of them to the Commandant of the Northern Rhodesia Police.

5. Nothing in this Order shall in any degree affect the control which the High Commissioner is at present empowered to exercise over military and police forces when declared to be on active service.

6. This Order shall come into force on the same date as the Southern Rhodesia Order in Council, 1923.

7. His Majesty may from time to time revoke, alter, add to, or amend this Order.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of March, 1923.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Sir Frederick Ponsonby.
Sir John Baird, Bt.
Mr. Neville Chamberlain.

WHEREAS it is expedient to repeal the Southern Rhodesia Order in Council, 1913, with a view to making other provision for the exercise of the powers and duties of the Commandant-General in Southern Rhodesia upon the retirement of the present holder of that office:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers by the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, or otherwise in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Southern Rhodesia Order in Council, 1923.

2. The Southern Rhodesia Order in Council, 1913, is hereby repealed.

3. The Commissioner of Police shall exercise the chief command of all police or volunteer forces, whether employed on active service or not.

4. Where by any local Ordinance proclamation or other instrument in force in Southern Rhodesia any powers or duties are conferred or imposed upon the Commandant-General they shall be deemed to be imposed or conferred on the Administrator, who may, if he sees fit, delegate any of them to the Commissioner of Police.

5. Nothing in this Order shall in any degree affect the control which the High Commissioner is at present empowered to exercise over military and police forces when declared to be on active service.

6. This Order shall come into force upon the retirement of the present holder of the office of Commandant-General.

7. His Majesty may from time to time revoke, alter, add to, or amend this Order.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of March, 1923.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Sir Frederick Ponsonby.
Sir John Baird, Bt.
Mr. Neville Chamberlain.

WHEREAS by treaty, grant, usage, sufferance and other lawful means His Majesty has jurisdiction within the Islands of the Pacific Ocean known as the New Hebrides including the Banks Islands and Torres Islands:

And whereas by an Order in Council bearing date the 20th day of June, 1922, and entitled The New Hebrides Order in Council, 1922 (hereinafter called the Principal Order), provision was made for the exercise of His Majesty's jurisdiction within the said Islands in accordance with the terms of a Protocol signed at London on the 6th day of August, 1914, by Representatives of the Government of His Majesty the King and the Government of the French Republic and ratified on the 18th day of March, 1922, by His Majesty's Government and the Government of the French Republic:

And whereas it has been agreed by notes exchanged between the Government of His Majesty the King and the Government of the French Republic dated the 16th day of December, 1922, and the 26th day of December, 1922, respectively, and set out in the
