

moved by rail, and shall in all cases be moved without unnecessary delay and direct to the authorised place of destination.

(6) Where imported cattle, sheep or goats are being moved by rail they shall not, until they reach the railway station from which they are to be moved to the premises specified in the licence, be removed from their trucks for any purpose other than the purpose of being fed or watered, and then only at some railway station, and if removed for that purpose shall not be taken outside the station premises:

Provided that, nothing in the foregoing provision shall prevent the removal from its truck of any animal on account of any injury sustained by it or for any other necessary purpose.

Savings.

35.—Nothing in this Part of this Order shall be deemed to authorise the movement of any cattle, sheep or goats in contravention of any Order of the Minister, or any regulation of a local authority prohibiting or regulating the movement of cattle, sheep or goats.

PART V.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

Duties of Local Authority and Police.

36. The Local Authority and all constables and police officers shall assist the Inspectors of the Ministry to carry into effect and enforce this Order, and shall do or cause to be done all things necessary for the effectual execution of the same.

Power of Local Authorities to make Regulations as to Landing and Removal of Dung, Fodder, &c.

37.—(1.) A Local Authority may for the purpose of preventing the spreading of disease make Regulations for:—

(a) regulating the landing in the District of the Local Authority of dung of animals brought from Ireland, the Channel Islands, or the Isle of Man, or of partly consumed or broken fodder that has been supplied to such animals, or of litter that has been used for or about such animals; or

(b) regulating the removal of dung, fodder, or litter out of a Landing Place in the District.

(2.) A Local Authority shall forthwith send to the Ministry two copies of every Regulation made by them under this Article.

(3.) If the Ministry is satisfied on inquiry, with respect to any Regulation made by a Local Authority under this Article, that the same is for any reason objectionable, and directs the revocation thereof, the same shall thereupon cease to operate.

Revocation of Orders.

38. The Orders specified in the Third Schedule to this Order are hereby revoked to the extent therein specified, and this Order shall apply to animals landed under any Order hereby revoked as if they had been landed under this Order.

Offences.

39.—(1.) If any animal or thing shall be landed or moved in contravention of this Order, or any Regulation made under this Order, or a licence thereunder, the owner thereof, and the occupier of the place of landing or other place where or from which such animal or thing is landed or moved, and the person causing, directing or permitting the landing or movement, and also in the case of the landing thereof, the owner and the charterer and the master of the vessel from which the same is landed, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts or defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(2.) If an animal is not detained or isolated or is not slaughtered as required by this Order, or by a licence thereunder, the owner of the animal, and the person in charge thereof, and the occupier of the place where the animal is detained, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts or defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(3.) If any person, whose entry into a Landing Place or any part of a Landing Place is prohibited, enters or attempts to enter into such Landing Place or part of a Landing Place he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(4.) If anything is done or omitted to be done as regards cleansing or disinfection in contravention of this Order the occupier of the Landing Place in which, and the owner and the lessee and the occupier of any other place or thing in respect of which; as the case may be, the same is done or omitted to be done; shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(5.) If any person fails to carry out or observe any direction as regards cleansing or disinfection, which he is by this Order required to carry out or observe, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

Commencement.

40. This Order shall come into operation on the first day of April, nineteen hundred and twenty-three.

Short Title.

41. This Order may be cited as the ANIMALS (LANDING FROM IRELAND; CHANNEL ISLANDS AND ISLE OF MAN) ORDER OF 1923.

In witness whereof the Official Seal of the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries is hereunto affixed this twenty-seventh day of March, nineteen hundred and twenty-three.

S. Stockman.

Authorised by the Minister.
