

the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Hittisleigh, now vested in them, the said Edgar Hay Hay and Arthur Huxley Thompson as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said William Gascoyne Cecil, Bishop of Exeter, and his successors in the same Bishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said William Gascoyne Cecil, Bishop of Exeter, and by his successors in the same Bishopric for ever.

“ And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Exeter.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of October, 1923.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 16th and 17th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 50, and of the Act of the 23rd and 24th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 124, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 26th day of July, 1923, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 16th and 17th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 50, and of the Act of the 23rd and 24th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 124, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting an exchange of the alternate Patronage of the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Westbury-on-Trym, situate in the County of Gloucester and in the Diocese of Bristol, for the alternate Patronage of the Church and Benefice of Redland, situate in the said County of Gloucester and in the said Diocese of Bristol:

“ Whereas one undivided moiety of the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to each of the said Benefices of Westbury-on-Trym and Redland is vested for an estate in fee simple free from incumbrances in John Athelstan Laurie Riley, of Number 2, Kensington Court, London, S.W. 1, Seigneur de la Trinité in the Island of Jersey:

“ And whereas the remaining undivided moiety of each of the said Advowsons is vested in the persons commonly known as the Church Trust Fund Trustees (hereinafter called ‘ the said Church Trust Fund Trustees ’), that is to say, the Reverend Marmaduke Washington, of the Cedars, Albemarle Road, Norwich, in the County of Norfolk, Clerk in Holy Orders and a Canon of the Cathedral Church of Norwich, Samuel Henry Gladstone, of Darley Ash, Bovingdon, in the County of Herts, Esquire, Robert Armitage, of Farnley Hall, Leeds, in the County of York, Esquire, Martin Hubert Foquet Sutton, of Erleigh Park, Whiteknights, Reading, in the County of Berks, Esquire, John Francis William Deacon, of Number 20, Birchin Lane, in the City of London, Banker, and the Reverend Earle Legh Langston, of Number 36, Lingfield Road, Wimbledon, London, S.W., Clerk in Holy Orders, upon certain trusts:

“ And whereas the said John Athelstan Laurie Riley and the said Church Trust Fund Trustees have respectively signified their desire that the Patronage of the said two Benefices of Westbury-on-Trym and Redland may be re-arranged by way of exchange in the manner which is hereinafter recommended and proposed:

“ And whereas we have made due inquiry and calculation as to the circumstances and relative value of the said two Benefices and of the Patronage thereof respectively and we do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council that the circumstances and present values of the said two Benefices are as set forth in the Schedule hereunto annexed:

“ Now, therefore, with the consent of the said John Athelstan Laurie Riley (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme), and with the consent of the said Church Trust Fund Trustees, that is to say, the said Marmaduke Washington, Samuel Henry Gladstone, Robert Armitage, Martin Hubert Foquet Sutton, John Francis William Deacon, and Earle Legh Langston (in testimony whereof to this Scheme they have respectively set their hands and seals), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the moiety of the said Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Redland which now as aforesaid is vested in the said John Athelstan Laurie Riley, shall be transferred from the said John Athelstan Laurie Riley and shall become and be for ever thereafter absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time and at all times be exercised by the said Church Trust Fund Trustees their heirs and assigns upon the same trusts and with the same powers and for the same purposes as the moiety of the Advowson of the said Benefice of Redland hitherto vested in the said Church Trust Fund Trustees as aforesaid is held, and that in exchange for the same the moiety of the said Advowson or perpetual right
