UNIVERSITY OF LONDON ACT, 1898.

Notice is hereby given, in pursuance of the above named Act, that the following Amendment of No. 125 of the Statutes of the University of London has been made by the Senate, and that copies of the said Amendment can be obtained on application to the Acting Secretary to the Senate, University of London, South Kensington, S.W. 7.

UNIVERSITY OF LONDON.

Amendment of No. 125 of the Statutes of the University.

The Senate have this day adopted a resolution for the amendment of the third sentence of No. 125 of the Statutes of the University.

The amendment consists in the addition of the words underlined and the omission of the words enclosed in square brackets, as set out below:—

Any person who has passed the Intermediate Examination as an External Student [before he is registered as an Internal Student] may be allowed to take the final examination for the first degree before the end of a three years' course provided that [subsequently to passing the Intermediate Examination] he shall have attended for two years as an Internal Student an approved course of study for the final examination.
