"Whereas the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Cowley is vested in George Boyce Hilliard, of Number 1542, North Hampshire Road, Oak Bay, Victoria, British Columbia, Esquire; Edward Hilliard, of Number 120, Banbury Road, Oxford, Esquire; Philip James Hilliard, of Number 30, The Greenway, Uxbridge, in the said County of Middlesex, Esquire; and the Reverend Ernest Stafford Hilliard, of Number 19A, Down Street, London, W., Clerk in Holy Orders, as Trustees:

"And whereas the transfer of the Patronage of the said Benefice of Cowley which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the Parish or District in or in respect of which the right of Patronage or Advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the Parish of Cowley:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said George Boyce Hilliard, Edward Hilliard, Philip James Hilliard and Ernest Stafford Hilliard (in testimony whereof they have signed and sealed this Scheme), and with the consent of the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of London (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Cowley, now vested in them, the said George Boyce Hilliard, Edward Hilliard, Philip James Hilliard and Ernest Stafford Hilliard, as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of London, and his successors in the same Bishopric, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of London, and by his successors in the same Bishopric for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.
