Public Health (London) Act, 1891:
 Confirming Order under Section 19.

CITY OF LONDON.

WHEREAS in pursuance of the powers vested in them under subsections (1) and (10) of Section 19 of the Public Health (London) Act, 1891, and the City of London Sewers Act, 1897, the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, acting through the Common Council, have made the Order set forth in the Schedule to this Order:

Now therefore, the Minister of Health, in the exercise of his powers in that behalf, hereby confirms the said Order.

This Order may be cited as "The City of London (Offensive Trade) Confirmation Order, 1924," and shall come into operation on the 28th day of July, 1924.

SCHEDULE.

CORPORATION OF LONDON.

PUBLIC HEALTH (LONDON) ACT, 1891.

Slaughterer of Poultry.

Whereas by Section 19, subsection 1, of the Public Health (London) Act, 1891, it is enacted as follows:—

If any person—

(a) Establishes anew the following businesses or any of them that is to say, the business of blood boiler, bone boiler, manure manufacturer, soap boiler, tallow melter or knacker; or

(b) Establishes anew without the sanction of the County Council the following businesses or any of them, that is to say, the business of fellmonger, tripe boiler, slaughterer of cattle or horses, or any other business which the County Council may declare by Order confirmed by the Local Government Board and published in the London Gazette to be an offensive business, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Fifty pounds in respect of the establishment thereof and any person carrying on the same when established shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Fifty pounds for every day during which he so carries on the same;

And whereas it has been represented to the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London (being the Sanitary Authority for the City of London as Successors in Law to the late Commissioners of Sewers and substituted for the County Council in the application of the section to the City of London) that the business of a slaughterer of poultry is an offensive business and ought to be so declared, and the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London after due enquiry and consideration have determined to make an Order accordingly:

Now the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London in pursuance of the provisions of the above-mentioned Statute do by this Order declare that for the purposes of the said Statute the business of a slaughterer of poultry is an offensive business.

Examined.

HOMWOOD CRAWFORD,

City Solicitor.

The Common Seal of the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London was affixed to this Order at a duly constituted Meeting of the Court of Common Council held on the Fifteenth day of May, One thousand nine hundred and twenty-four and in my presence.

JAMES BELL,

Town Clerk.

L.S.

Given under the Official Seal of the Minister of Health, this Eleventh day of July, in the year One thousand nine hundred and twenty-four.

A. B. MACLACHLAN,

Assistant Secretary,
 Ministry of Health.
