

System" and described in a document which has for the purposes of identification been signed by the Master and Senior Fellow and is deposited in the Master's safe or to any modification of the Superannuation System that may be duly made by the Central Council constituted in connection therewith. The Superannuation System which by this clause is incorporated into and forms part of these Statutes shall extend and apply to all the dividends and stipends from time to time received by any person appointed to some or one of the pensionable offices in respect of the following offices

(a) a fellowship of the College including allowances for income tax taken for the purpose of this Statute at twenty per centum of the nett value of the fellowship dividend but no other allowances

(b) some or one of the pensionable offices but the Superannuation System shall not extend or apply to any stipend fees or other payments for lecturing or other work received by a College Officer otherwise than directly from the College notwithstanding that such stipend fees or other payments may have been collected by the College on behalf of such Officer. The aggregate annual amount from time to time of the dividends and stipends so comprised within the Superannuation System shall form the basis of the deductions and contributions contemplated by the Superannuation System.

(2) When any Fellow not holding nor having held any of the pensionable offices shall after the date of the making of this Statute be appointed to some or one of the offices of Tutor Assistant Tutor or College Lecturer and shall while holding some or one of the last mentioned offices attain the age of sixty years he shall at the beginning of the next annual meeting after he attains the age of sixty years vacate any of the last mentioned offices held by him. It shall however be competent to the Governing Body to re-appoint him to any office or offices thereby vacated by him or to appoint him to the office or offices of Tutor Assistant Tutor or Lecturer for a period not exceeding five years.

(3) It shall be competent to the Governing Body to agree with any Fellow who shall at the date of the making of this Statute be holding some or one of the pensionable offices for the surrender by him of his existing and contingent rights and claims to a fellowship for life and to substitute an agreement whereby he shall become henceforth subject to the provisions for the compulsory retirement contained in Section two of this Statute and to the Superannuation System in respect and to the extent of his fellowship dividends and of his emoluments from the College offices now carrying pension rights upon such terms as may be agreed between the Governing Body and him. No member of the Governing Body with whom such an agreement is being negotiated or concluded shall be present at the voting on his own agreement.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other Statute a Fellow who under this Statute becomes subject to the Superannuation System shall be subject to the provision herein-after made in this Section become a Supernumerary Fellow at the next annual meeting after he attains the age of sixty years. Provided that no Fellow who shall at the next annual meeting after he attains the age of sixty years be appointed or re-appointed to some or one of the pensionable offices shall become a Supernumerary Fellow so long as he continues to hold any of the said offices.

(5) During any period in respect of which leave of absence shall have been granted by the Governing Body to any College Officer who is subject to the Superannuation System the annual contributions due and payable thereunder by the College and the Officer respectively shall continue to be paid by the College and the Officer respectively on the same basis as during the year preceding his leave of absence whether the leave of absence shall have been granted on terms of the receipt by the Officer of his full or of reduced emoluments or without receipt of any emolument.

(6) It shall be competent to the Governing Body by a vote in which not less than two-thirds of the Governing Body shall concur out of the College income to supplement the provision made by way of pension or superannuation allowance to or for which any past present or future College Officer may be or may become entitled or eligible under any Statutes in force at the date of the making of this Statute or under this Statute.

(7) Neither the vacation of a Fellowship under Chapter IV nor the deprivation of a Fellowship under Chapter VII of the Statutes in force at the date of the making of this Statute shall operate so as to cause the vacation or forfeiture of any pension or superannuation allowance actually being received by or due to a Fellow under the Superannuation System or of any claim to or interest in the realisable value at the date of such vacation or deprivation of any provision being made for his pension or superannuation allowance by way of insurance or otherwise under the Superannuation System. In the event of suspension from the emoluments of a Fellowship under Chapter VII the College shall nevertheless continue during the period of the suspension to make all contributions that may be necessary to preserve unimpaired the benefits accruing under the Superannuation System.

(8) Nothing contained in the Statutes in force at the date of the making of this Statute shall operate to prevent the Mastership from being held together with any pension or superannuation allowance which has accrued or may accrue under the Superannuation System.

Sealed with the Common Seal of Sidney Sussex College on the 23rd day of June, 1924, in pursuance of a resolution duly passed on the 21st day of June, 1924.

G. A. Weekes,
Master.

Seal affixed by order of the University of Cambridge Commissioners made in pursuance of S. 11 of the Schedule to the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1923, approving Statute X (a) made by the Governing Body of Sidney Sussex College, no representation having been received from any member of the said Governing Body.

H. A. Holland,
Secretary.

L.S.

L.S.

August 4th, 1924.