At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of August, 1924.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Act, 1919, and of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1921, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 31st day of July, 1924, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Act, 1919, and of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1921, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for effecting the union of two neighbouring Benefices, that is to say the

Benefice (being a Rectory) of Grittleton and the Benefice (being a Rectory) of Leigh Delamere, both of which Benefices are situate in the County of Wilts and in the Diocese of Bristol:

“ Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend George, Bishop of Bristol, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Act, 1919, to inquire into and report upon the union of the said two Benefices of Grittleton and Leigh Delamere duly made their report to the said Bishop of Bristol and therein recommended the union of the said two Benefices and the terms for effecting the union, and the said Bishop of Bristol signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

“ And whereas we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have prepared this Scheme for the union of the said two Benefices based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

And whereas both of the said Benefices of Grittleton and Leigh Delamere are now full the Reverend Edward Alexander Gowing being the present Incumbent thereof:

“ And whereas the said Edward Alexander Gowing has consented to become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice, if and when the union which is hereinafter recommended and proposed shall take effect:

“ And whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to each of the said Benefices of Grittleton and Leigh Delamere is at present vested in one and the same Patron:

“ Now, therefore, we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said George, Bishop of Bristol (in testimony whereof he has hereunto set his hand), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

“ 1. That the said Benefice of Grittleton and the said Benefice of Leigh Delamere shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with cure of souls under the style of ‘ The United Benefice of Grittleton with Leigh Delamere,’ but the parishes of the said Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects.

“ 2. That upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect, and the said Edward Alexander Gowing, if he is then Incumbent of the said Benefices of Grittleton and Leigh Delamere, shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice.

“ 3. That upon the said union taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Grittleton shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice.

“ Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been published locally in the manner prescribed in the Statutory Rules made under the said Act and also transmitted in the manner so prescribed to the patron affected together with a Notice in each case requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or
