UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE.

BANKING INDUSTRY SPECIAL SCHEME
ORDER, 1924.

The Unemployment Insurance (Banking Industry Special Scheme) Order, 1924. Special Order dated June 18, 1924, made by the Minister of Labour under the Unemployment Insurance Act, 1920 (10 and 11 Geo. 5. c. 30). (a)

Whereas the Minister of Labour (hereinafter called "the Minister") has determined the classes of undertakings specified in the Special Scheme set forth in the Schedule hereto to be the Banking Industry for the purposes of Section eighteen of the Unemployment Insurance Act, 1920 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act"):

And whereas the said Special Scheme has been made by an Association of employers and employees so constituted that the members of the Association who are employers consist of persons employing a substantial majority of the employees in the said Industry, and the members who are employees consist of persons representing a substantial majority of the employees in the said Industry:

And whereas the said Special Scheme provides for the insurance against unemployment of all the employed persons in the Industry other than the classes specified in the said Special Scheme and the benefits are in the opinion of the Minister not less favourable on the whole than the benefits provided by the Unemployment Insurance Acts, 1920 to 1924.

And whereas it appears to the Minister that insurance against unemployment can be more satisfactorily provided for by a Scheme under section eighteen of the Act than by the general provisions of the Unemployment Insurance Acts, 1920 to 1924:

Now therefore the Minister by virtue of the powers conferred on him by section eighteen of the Act and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf hereby makes the following Special Order:—

(i) The Minister hereby approves the Special Scheme set forth in the Schedule hereto,

(ii) this Order may be cited as the Unemployment Insurance (Banking Industry Special Scheme) Order, 1924.

Signed by Order of the Minister of Labour this 18th day of June, 1924.

(Sgd.) H. J. Wilson.

Secretary of the Ministry of Labour.
