“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 113, of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 37, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 104, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for constituting a separate District for spiritual purposes to be taken partly out of the District Parish of the Trinity, Stockton upon Tees, and partly out of the Parish of Egglecliffe, both in the County of Durham and in the Diocese of Durham:

“ Whereas we are satisfied that the said District Parish of the Trinity, Stockton upon Tees, and the said Parish of Egglecliffe, are Cures wherein or in parts whereof the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof and it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said District Parish of the Trinity, Stockton upon Tees, and of the said Parish of Egglecliffe, which are hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a Separate District in the manner which is hereinafter set forth:

“ And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed Separate District any consecrated Church or Chapel in use for the purposes of Divine Worship:

“ And whereas by a certain Indenture bearing date on or about the 16th day of October, 1924, and made or expressed to be made under the authority of the ‘ New Parishes Acts, 1843, 1844, and 1856 ’ or some or one of them, between the Reverend Arthur Trehane Dingle, Rector of the Rectory of the said Parish of Egglecliffe, of the first part, Sir Hugh Bell, of Rounton Grange, Northallerton, in the County of York, Baronet, the Patron of the said Rectory of Egglecliffe, of the second part, the Right Reverend Herbert Hensley, Bishop of Durham, the Ordinary of the said Rectory of Egglecliffe, of the third part, and us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, of the fourth part, (which Indenture is intended to be enrolled in the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice), the said Arthur Trehane Dingle did, with the consents of the said Hugh Bell, as such Patron as aforesaid, and the said Herbert Hensley, Bishop of Durham, as such Bishop as aforesaid, assign unto us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, the sum of £1,250 £4 per centum Funding Stock (1960-1990) (part of a sum of £7,335 14s. 0d. of the same Stock) standing in the books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England in the name of us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, as part of the endowments of the said Rectory of the Parish of Egglecliffe, to have and to hold for or towards the endowment of the Minister of the District hereinafter recommended to be constituted, so soon as a Minister shall have been duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the secondly herein mentioned Act, and to his successors, and when such District shall have become a New Parish, then of the Vicar or Incumbent of such new Parish and his successors for the time being:

“ And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the original limits of the Parish of Stockton upon Tees, in the said County of Durham and in the said Diocese of Durham, have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein mentioned Acts or of some or one of them, and we have in respect of such hereditaments and premises agreed to make and pay out of the Common Fund created by the firstly herein mentioned Act a grant of £120 per annum to the Minister of the said proposed Separate District when duly licensed as hereinbefore mentioned, and to his successors, Ministers or Incumbents of the said proposed District or New Parish, such grant to be in lieu of the two yearly sums of £60 each at present payable out of the Common Fund hereinbefore mentioned towards the stipend of an Assistant Curate to be employed within the said District Parish of the Trinity, Stockton upon Tees, and to serve the Conventional District of all Saints, Preston upon Tees:

“ And whereas by an Instrument dated the 18th day of October, 1923, and published in the London Gazette on the 30th day of the same month, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, in consideration of a benefaction of a capital sum of £1,000 paid to us for the spiritual benefit of the said District Parish of the Trinity, Stockton upon Tees, did in pursuance of the Act of the 29th and 30th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 111, section 5, grant to the Incumbent of the Vicarage of the said District Parish of the Trinity, Stockton upon Tees, one yearly sum or stipend of £45, such yearly sum or stipend to be paid only upon the production of a certificate that an Assistant Curate has been employed within the said District Parish of the Trinity, Stockton upon Tees, at a salary of not less than £120 per annum, and such yearly sum or stipend to continue payable so long only as may appear to us to be expedient:

“ And whereas it has been made to appear to us to be expedient that such yearly sum or stipend of £45 payable by us as aforesaid should cease to be so payable and that in lieu thereof we should grant a yearly sum of £45 to the Minister of the said proposed District when duly licensed as hereinbefore mentioned and to his successors, Ministers or Incumbents of the said proposed District or New Parish:
