At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 17th day of December, 1924.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section sixty-nine of the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, His Majesty is empowered by Order in Council to make such regulations as seem necessary or proper for setting in motion the Parliament and Government of Northern Ireland, and also for any other matter for which it seems to His Majesty necessary or proper to make provision for the purpose of bringing the said Act into full operation or for giving full effect to any of the provisions of the said Act, and in particular His Majesty is empowered, amongst other things, by any such Order in Council—

(1) To make such adaptations of any enactments as far as they relate to Northern Ireland as may appear to Him necessary or proper in order to give effect to the provisions of the said Act; and also to make any adaptations of any enactments so far as they relate to England or Scotland as may appear to Him necessary or proper as a consequence of any change effected by the provisions of the said Act; and

(2) To make such adaptation of any enactments as appear to Him necessary or proper with respect to the execution of services with respect to which the Parliament of Northern Ireland has not power to make laws, and in particular to provide for the exercise or performance of any powers or duties in connection with those services by any department of the Government of the United Kingdom or officer of that Government where any such powers or duties are, under any existing Act or by the common law, to be exercised or performed by any department or officer in Ireland who will cease to exist as a department or officer of the Government of the United Kingdom:

And whereas by Article 12 of the Government of Ireland (Companies, Societies, &c.) Order, 1922, being an Order made under the said section it is provided that in section one of the First Schedule to the Assurance Companies Act, 1909, references to the United Kingdom shall in the application of that Act to Northern Ireland be construed as references to Northern Ireland and in the application of that Act to the rest of the United Kingdom be construed as references to the United Kingdom exclusive of Northern Ireland (subject to a proviso relating to companies which before the appointed day had made deposits in accordance with the said Act in respect of any class of insurance business), and it is expedient that the said Article shall be amended in manner hereinafter appearing:

And whereas the provisions of section one of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Government of Ireland (Assurance Companies) Order, 1924, and shall be construed as one with the Government of Ireland (Companies, Societies, &c.) Order, 1922, hereinafter referred to as the principal Order.
