UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE.

BANKING INDUSTRY SPECIAL SCHEME (AMENDMENT) ORDER, 1925.

The Unemployment Insurance (Banking Industry Special Scheme) (Amendment) Order, 1925, dated April 1, 1925, made by the Minister of Labour under the Unemployment Insurance Act, 1920 (10 & 11 Geo. 5, c. 30).

Whereas by the Unemployment Insurance (Banking Industry Special Scheme) Order, 1924, the Special Scheme for the Banking Industry (hereinafter referred to as "the Scheme") was approved by the Minister of Labour (hereinafter referred to as "the Minister"); and the Joint Board of Management (Unemployment Insurance) for the Banking Industry is the body charged with the administration of the Scheme.

And whereas it is provided by sub-section (2) of section eight of the Unemployment Insurance (No. 2) Act, 1924, that for the purpose of securing in the case of a special scheme that like rates of benefit shall be payable to the persons to whom the Scheme applies as are payable under that Act and that the benefits under the Scheme shall otherwise be not less favourable than those provided by the general provisions of the Unemployment Insurance Acts, 1920 to 1924 (but for no other purpose) the Minister may after consulting with the body charged with the administration of the Scheme notwithstanding anything in section eighteen of the Unemployment Insurance Act, 1920, by order vary or amend the provisions of the Scheme and that any such order may provide for consequential amendments as to the rates of contribution and otherwise.

And whereas it is provided by sub-section (4) of the said section eight, that the power of the Minister under sub-section (9) of section eighteen of the Unemployment Insurance Act, 1920, to vary or amend the provisions of a scheme made under that section may, except in the case of provisions relating to rates of contribution, rates or duration of benefit, or the constitution of the body charged with the administration of the Scheme, be exercised by order instead of by special order.

And whereas application has been made to the Minister for the variation and amendment of the provisions of the Scheme.

Now therefore the Minister, after consultation with the Joint Board of Management (Unemployment Insurance) for the Banking Industry, by virtue of the powers conferred on him by the sections aforesaid and all other powers enabling him in that behalf hereby makes the following Order:—

1. The variations and amendments of the provisions of the Scheme contained in the Schedule hereto shall have effect and shall be deemed to have had effect as from the first day of August, 1924, save where some other date is expressly mentioned as the date from which any provision is to have effect.

2. This Order may be cited as the Unemployment Insurance (Banking Industry Special Scheme) (Amendment) Order, 1925, and this Order and the Unemployment Insurance (Banking Industry Special Scheme) Order, 1924, may be cited together as the Unemployment Insurance (Banking Industry Special Scheme) Orders, 1924 and 1925, and shall be construed as one.

Signed by Order of the Minister of Labour this first day of April, 1925.

H. J. Wilson.

Secretary of the Ministry of Labour.

SCHEDULE.

1. Clause (1) of Part II of the Scheme shall have effect as though for the words "The Joint Board of Management (Unemployment Insurance) for the Banking Industry" there were substituted the words "The Banking Unemployment Insurance Board."

2. Clause (1) of Part IV of the Scheme shall have effect as though after the figure

(1) there were inserted the figure (i) and as though the following sub-clauses were added at the end:—

(ii) Subject as hereinafter provided no person shall be entitled to receive unemployment benefit if the number of the contributions paid in respect of him, whether such contributions were paid under the general provisions of the Act or under this or any other special scheme since the beginning of the insurance year next before the beginning of the benefit year in which the application for unemployment benefit is made, is less than 20.

For the purpose of calculating under this sub-clause the number of contributions paid under this or any other special scheme a contribution shall be deemed to have been paid in respect of each week or part of a week of employment notwithstanding that contributions were payable at quarterly or some other intervals.

(iii) If an applicant for unemployment benefit in whose case the requirements of sub-clause (i) of this clause are fulfilled is not entitled thereto under the provisions of the last preceding sub-clause or Clauses (2) or (3) of the Second Schedule to this Scheme by reason either that the number of contributions paid in respect of him within the period mentioned in sub-clause (ii) hereof is less than 20, or that sufficient contributions are not standing to his credit or that he has already received benefit for periods amounting in the aggregate to 26 weeks in the benefit year in which the application is made he shall nevertheless be entitled to receive unemployment benefit if in addition to satisfying the requirements aforesaid he also proves:—

(a) that he is normally employed in insurable employment and will normally seek to obtain his livelihood by means of insurable employment;

(b) that in normal times insurable employment suited to his capacities would be likely to be available for him;

(c) that he has, during the two years immediately preceding the date of the application for benefit, been employed in an insurable employment to such an extent as was reasonable, having regard to all the circumstances of the case and in particular to the opportunities for obtaining insurable employment during that period;

(d) that he is making every reasonable effort to obtain employment suited to his capacities and is willing to accept such employment.

For the purposes of paragraph (c) of this provision:—

(i) in the case of a seaman, marine, soldier or airman in respect of whom a payment is to be made or has been made under Section forty-one of the Act, service as seaman, marine, soldier or airman; and

(ii) in the case of any person formerly engaged in war service, the undergoing of training for an insurable occupation, where the cost of the training is defrayed out of funds provided by the Minister or by the Minister of Pensions; shall be treated as employment in insurable employment.

(iv) If a question arises whether a person satisfies the additional conditions required to be satisfied by a person applying for benefit under sub-clause (iii) hereof, that question shall be decided by the Board whose decision shall be final, provided that in any case (a) the Board may refer such question to a committee constituted in accordance with rules made under this Scheme for their report and recommendation, or (b) the Board may refer such question to the Minister, or the Minister may require such question to be referred to him whether such question has been decided by the Board or not, and in either case the decision of the Minister shall be final.

3. Clause (2) of Part IV of the Scheme shall have effect as though—

(a) the following sub-clauses were substituted respectively for sub-clauses (i) (iii) and (iv)

(i) That he proves—

(a) that at least 30 contributions have been paid in respect of him whether such contributions were paid under the general provisions of the Acts or of this or any other special scheme since the beginning of the first of the two insurance years next before the beginning of the benefit year in which the application for unemployment benefit is made; and

(b) that he was employed in the Banking Industry on the 14th July, 1924, or entered such employment subsequently, and has been employed at any time for 12 weeks or more in the Banking Industry.

For the purpose of this sub-clause in the case of contributions paid under this or any other special scheme a contribution shall be deemed to have been paid in respect of each week or part of a week of employment notwithstanding that contributions were payable at quarterly or some other intervals.

(iii) That he is capable of and available for work;

(iv) That he is genuinely seeking work but unable to obtain suitable employment;

(b) after the words "capable of and available for work" in the second proviso to the said clause there were inserted the words "and is genuinely seeking work"; and

(c) there were inserted at the end of the said clause the following words:—

Until the first day of October, 1925, a person shall be entitled to receive unemployment benefit, notwithstanding that the condition in sub-clause (i) (a) hereof may not have been fulfilled in his case, if the Board thinks fit so to direct, or if the Minister requires the Board so to direct.

4. Clause (3) of Part IV of the Scheme shall have effect as though

(a) after the words "the remuneration" wherever they occur in sub-clause (a) there were inserted the words "or profit" and after the words "is payable" there were inserted the words "or is earned."

(b) for the words "less than three" in sub-clause (b) there were substituted the words "not more than six."

(c) the following sub-clause were inserted at the end thereof:—

(c) Notwithstanding that the employment of an insured person has terminated, he shall not be deemed to be unemployed during a period in respect of which he continues to receive wages or receives any payment by way of compensation for the loss of and substantially equivalent to the remuneration which he would have received if the employment had not terminated.

5. Clause (4) of Part IV of the Scheme shall have effect as though

(a) there were inserted at the end of sub-clause (a) the following words "provided nevertheless that this provision shall not apply in any case in which the insured person proves that he is not participating in or financing or directly interested in the trade dispute which caused the stoppage of work, and that he does not belong to a grade or class of workers members of which are participating in or financing or directly interested in the trade dispute, or that the stoppage is due to an employer acting in a manner so as to contravene the terms or provisions of any agreement existing between a group of employers where the stoppage takes place, or of a national agreement to either of which the employers and employees are contracting parties."

(b) the words "not being less than one week" in sub-clause (b) were omitted

(c) the words from the beginning of sub-clause (d) to "this Scheme, and" were omitted

(d) for the words "National Health Insurance Acts, 1911 to 1922," there were substituted the words "National Health Insurance Act, 1924."

6. Clause (6) (b) of Part IV of the Scheme shall have effect as though for the expression "Clauses 2 and 3" where that expression first occurs, there were substituted the expression "Clauses (2), (3) and (4)," and the words "and calling attention to the provisions of clauses 2 and 3 of this part of this Scheme" were omitted.

7. Clause (9) of Part IV of the Scheme shall be omitted.

8. Clause 1 of Part V of the Scheme shall have effect as if the words "Except as provided in sub-clause (iv) of Clause (1) of Part IV of this Scheme" were inserted at the beginning.

9. Clause (1) (f) of Part VIII of the Scheme shall have effect as though after the words "within the meaning of this Scheme or not" there were inserted the words "or as to who is or was the employer of an employed person" and as though in each place where the word "Board" occurs in that sub-clause the word

“ Minister ” were substituted therefor, and as though for the words “ the provisions of this Scheme ” there were substituted the words “ the provisions of the Acts and this Scheme. ”

10. The following Clause shall be added to Part IX of the Scheme :—

(7) Where, by any order or special order varying or amending the provisions of this Scheme, any clauses, sub-clauses, paragraphs or words are directed to be added to, or omitted from this Scheme, or to be substituted for any other clauses, sub-clauses, paragraphs or words therein then copies of this Scheme printed under the Authority of His Majesty’s Stationery Office, after such directions take effect, shall be printed with the clauses, sub-clauses, paragraphs or words so added, omitted or substituted and clauses, sub-clauses and paragraphs thereof numbered in accordance with such direction, and this Scheme shall be construed as if it had at the time at which such direction takes effect or such other time as may be directed by the order or special order, been made with such addition, omission or substitution.

11. Clause (1) of the Second Schedule to the Scheme shall have effect and shall be deemed to have had effect from the 14th August, 1924, as though—

(a) the following paragraph were substituted for the second paragraph of such clause :—

Where a person entitled to unemployment benefit—

(1) is a married man whose wife is living with him or is being maintained wholly or mainly by him ; or

(2) is a widower, widow or unmarried person who has residing with him or her any female person for the purpose of having the care of his or her dependent children, and is maintaining that person ; or

(3) is a widower or unmarried man and has and has had living with him as his wife any female person ; or

(4) is a married woman who has a husband dependent on her ; or

(5) is an unmarried person (not being a person entitled to an increase under this Clause otherwise than in respect of his or her dependent children) who has living with him or her and is wholly or mainly maintaining his or her widowed mother, the weekly rate of unemployment benefit hereinbefore authorised shall be increased by a sum of five shillings and where the person so entitled has dependent children the weekly rate of unemployment benefit shall be increased by two shillings in respect of each such child. Provided that the additional sum of five shillings shall not be payable in respect of a wife or female person who is in receipt of unemployment benefit under the Acts or under this or any other special scheme, or who is in regular wage-earning employment otherwise than as having the care of the dependent children of the person entitled to unemployment benefit or is engaged in any occupation ordinarily carried on for profit.

(b) the words “ or any husband, mother or child ” were substituted for the words “ or any husband or any child ” in the third paragraph of such clause.

12. Clause (4) of the Second Schedule to the Scheme shall have effect as though after the word “ disqualified ” there were inserted the words “ otherwise than by reason of being in receipt of sickness or disablement benefit or disablement allowance under the National Health Insurance Act, 1924, ” and as though the word “ continuous ” were inserted before the word “ periods. ”

Board of Trade.—April, 1925.

TAWE VALLEY GAS.

(Application for Special Order under Section 10 of the Gas Regulation Act, 1920.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to the Board of Trade forthwith by the Tawe Valley Gas Company (hereinafter called "the Company"), whose address is Gas Offices, Pontardawe, Glamorgan, for a Special Order under Section 10 of the Gas Regulation Act, 1920, for all or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

1. To authorise the Company to raise additional capital for the purposes of their undertaking by the creation and issue of new ordinary and new preference shares or stock, and by borrowing on mortgage and by the creation and issue of debenture stock, or by any one or more of such means, and to make provisions for regulating the raising of such additional capital, including provision for enabling the Company to offer the same for subscription, also to make provision as to the rights privileges and liabilities of the holders of shares or stock in the new capital and of mortgages and debenture stock of the Company.

2. To increase or to confirm the increase of the amount of moneys which the Company may borrow on mortgage of their undertaking or raise by the creation and issue of debenture stock in respect of their existing capital and to revoke the Tawe Valley Gas (Capital Issues) Consent 1924.

3. To empower the Company to create and issue redeemable preference shares or stock and debenture stock, to make provision with respect to the redemption of such shares or stocks either by a payment in cash or by the issue of other shares or stock (redeemable or otherwise) and to authorise the creation and issue of new shares or stock for any such purpose and the re-issue of any redeemable preference shares or stock or debenture stock after redemption.

4. To make provisions as to the dividend on different classes of ordinary stock of the Company and the application of excess of profits over the authorised rates of dividend, and to authorise the formation of a Special Purposes Fund and a Renewal Fund.

5. To repeal Section 18 of the Tawe Valley Gas Act, 1908.

6. To make further provision with reference to the Company's affairs, including provisions as to the holding of annual meetings, the preparation of the Company's accounts, the appointment of proxies, voting rights (including voting by joint holders), the election, disqualification and powers of the directors, the appointment of auditors and the closing of transfer books, and to empower the directors to pay interim dividends without the sanction or direction of a general meeting.

7. To authorise the Company and any local authority, company or person to enter into and carry into effect agreements and arrangements as to the supply by or to the Company of gas in bulk.

8. To make further provisions as to stand-by supplies, amending obligations as to the supply of gas, the mode of cutting off and reconnecting supplies and the expense thereof, the removal of fittings where gas supply discontinued, the provision of valves where high-pressure air is used, the laying of pipes for ancillary purposes, charges for special reading of meters, the size and materials of gas pipes and fittings upon premises supplied with power to refuse a supply where the requirements are not complied with, the provision of anti-fluctuators in connection with gas engines, the entry upon premises to which a supply of gas is laid on, the authentication and service of notices by the Company, the inclusion of several sums in one summons and the recovery of penalties.

9. The Order will vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would impede or interfere with its purposes and confer other rights and privileges.

10. To repeal, alter or amend all or any of the provisions of the Tawe Valley Gas Act, 1908, and any other Act or Order relating to the Company or their undertaking.

11. To incorporate with the Order, with or without modifications, or to render inapplicable all or some of the provisions of the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1847, the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1871, and the Companies Clauses Acts, 1845, 1863 and 1869.

Any local or other public authority, company or person desiring to bring before the Board of Trade any objection to the draft Order may do so by registered letter addressed to the Director of Gas Administration, Board of Trade, Great George Street, London, S.W. 1, and despatched on or before the 28th day of May, 1925.

Any such objection shall state:—

- (a) The specific grounds of objection; and
- (b) The omissions, additions or modifications asked for.

A copy of the objection must at the same time be forwarded to the undermentioned Solicitor or Parliamentary Agents.

A copy of the draft Special Order has been deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Brecknock at his office at County Hall, Brecon and with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Glamorgan at his office at the County Hall, Cardiff and at the offices of the Company at Pontardawe, Glamorgan. Printed copies of the draft Special Order may be obtained at the offices of the Company as aforesaid, and of the undermentioned Solicitor and Parliamentary Agents at the price of one shilling per copy.

Dated this 27th day of April, 1925.

COLONIAL BANK.

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the present Session by the Colonial Bank (hereinafter called "the Corporation") for an Act for the following purposes (that is to say):—

To reincorporate the Corporation as a company (hereinafter called "the Company") and to transfer to the Company the property, debts and obligations of the Corporation.

To authorise the Company to establish and develop the business of a banker in any part of the world, acquire the businesses of or amalgamate with other companies, act as agents, executors, administrators, receivers, managers, committees or liquidators, undertake trusts, carry on and deal with assets, businesses or property, become surety or give securities, guarantees and indemnities, underwrite, hold and subscribe for securities, acquire, hold, let and lease houses, lands and hereditaments, promote and support pension and other funds, lend moneys, sell their undertaking or part thereof, enter into joint adventures, and issue notes abroad.

To empower the Company to form, acquire or control and hold and dispose of or guarantee dividends or interest on shares or securities of other companies, keep registers of stocks, funds or securities of and undertake any business on behalf of any government, company or body, register the Company abroad, establish or guarantee local companies and promote or oppose Bills in Parliament.

To make provision as to the capital, shares and securities of the Company and matters relating thereto, as to unclaimed dividends or interest, share warrants to bearer and capital duty.

To provide for the cancellation of the share capital of the Corporation and for the issue to and acceptance by holders of shares in the Corporation of shares in the Company, and as to references to shares of the Corporation in wills and other documents.

To make provision as to transfers of, calls and liens on, and forfeiture of shares or other securities, meetings, directors, accounts, audit and reserve and other funds.

To make all convenient usual incidental or ancillary provisions in relation to any of the matters aforesaid.

To incorporate with the intended Act all or some of the provisions of the Companies Clauses Act, 1845 to 1889, the Companies Acts, 1908 to 1917, and any Act amending the same.

To repeal, annul, amend, vary or extend all or any of the provisions of the Charters of the Corporation, the Colonial Bank Acts, 1856, 1898, 1900, 1916 and 1917, and any other Act relating to the Corporation.

On and after the 28th day of April instant a copy of the Bill may be inspected and copies thereof may be obtained at a price not exceeding five shillings for each copy at the offices of the undermentioned Solicitors and Parliamentary Agents.

All Notice stating more fully the objects of the intended Act has been published or sent for publication in the "Times" of the 28th April and 5th May, 1925.

Dated this 27th day of April, 1925.
