

Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 5th day of March, 1925, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the Church and Cure (hereinafter called ‘ the said Benefice ’) of Boyton, situate partly in the County of Cornwall and partly in the County of Devon and wholly in the Diocese of Truro:

“ Whereas the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Boyton is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in Thomas Vodin Walters, of Heane Street, Cottesloe, Western Australia, Esquire:

“ And whereas the said Thomas Vodin Walters is desirous that the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Boyton now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in His Royal Highness Edward Albert Christian George Andrew Patrick David, Prince of Wales, Duke of Cornwall and Rothesay, Earl of Chester and Carrick, Baron of Renfrew, Lord of the Isles and Great Steward of Scotland (hereinafter called ‘ His Royal Highness ’) as parcel of the possessions of the Duchy of Cornwall:

“ And whereas His Royal Highness is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness has affixed His Sign Manual to a Warrant authorising these Presents to be passed under the Seal of the Duchy of Cornwall:

“ And whereas the Right Reverend Walter, Bishop of Truro, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the Diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary:

“ And whereas the transfer of the Patronage of the said Benefice of Boyton which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same Benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the Parish or District in or in respect of which the right of Patronage or Advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the Parish of Boyton:

“ Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Thomas Vodin Walters (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme) and with the consent of His Royal Highness, being the person whose consent is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts and of the Act of the 1st and 2nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 106 (in testimony whereof the Seal of the Duchy of Cornwall has been affixed to this Scheme), and with the consent of the said Walter, Bishop of Truro (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), We, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Boyton, now vested in him, the said Thomas Vodin Walters, as aforesaid, shall be transferred to His Royal Highness as parcel of the possessions of the Duchy of Cornwall and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by His Royal Highness and His Successors in the said Duchy of Cornwall for ever.

“ And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Truro.
