"II. And also all that contiguous portion of the said New Parish of Saint Francis, Fenniscliffe, which is bounded upon the north partly by the said New Parish of Saint Mark, Witton, and partly by the above described portion of the said New Parish of Saint Andrew, Livesey, upon the east and upon the south by the said New Parish of Saint Andrew, Livesey, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Saint Andrew, Livesey, from the said New Parish of Saint Francis, Fenniscliffe, at a point in the middle of the Leeds and Liverpool Canal opposite to the middle of the road leading past the western side of the Victoria Cotton Mill, and extending thence north eastward to and along the middle of the last mentioned road for a distance of $5\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to its junction with Bonsall Street and with the road leading across Primrose Hill Bridge to Marsden Street, and extending thence first northward and then north eastward along the middle of the last described road and along the middle of Marsden Street for a distance in all of $13\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to the junction of Marsden Street with the road called Primrose Terrace, and extending thence north westward along the middle of Primrose Terrace for a distance of 15 yards or thereabouts to its junction with Hawkins Street, and extending thence north eastward along the middle of Hawkins Street for a distance of $6\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to its junction with Queen Victoria Street, and extending thence in a straight line due north for a distance of 2 chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Saint Francis, Fenniscliffe, from the said New Parish of Saint Mark, Witton."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly herein-before mentioned Act, been transmitted to the Patrons and to the Incumbents of the Cures out of which it is intended that the District recommended in such Scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such Patrons and Incumbents have respectively signified their assent to such Scheme:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Manchester.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 16th day of December, 1925.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 16th and 17th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 50, and of the Act of the 23rd and 24th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 124, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 26th day of November, 1925, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 16th and 17th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 50, and of the Act of the 23rd and 24th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 124, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of so much as is hereinafter mentioned of the ownership of the Advowson or right of Patronage of and presentation to each of five Benefices, all of them situate in the County of Cornwall and in the Diocese of Truro, namely, the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Charlestown, the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Par, the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Penponds, the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Treverbyn and the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Saint George, Kenwyn (Truro), by way of exchange for so much as is hereinafter mentioned of the Advowson or right of Patronage of and presentation to each of five other Benefices, all of them situate likewise in the said County of Cornwall and in the said Diocese of Truro, namely, the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Godolphin, the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Mithian, the Benefice (being a Vicarage), of Mount Hawke, the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Treleigh and the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of All Saints, Tuckingmill:

"Whereas under the provisions of the 21st section of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 37, the right of Patronage of and presentation to each of the ten Benefices mentioned above is at present exercised alternately by Your Majesty and Your Successors and by the Bishop of Truro for the time being:

"And whereas it has been proposed to us that the Patronage of the said ten Benefices should be assigned and transferred by way of exchange in the manner which is hereinafter recommended and proposed:

"And whereas we have made due inquiry and calculation as to the circumstances and relative values of the said Benefices and of the Patronage thereof respectively and we do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council that the circumstances and present values of the
