At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 16th day of December, 1925.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 10th day of December, 1925, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the union of the Benefice (being an United Benefice) of Linstead Magna with Linstead Parva and the Benefice of Chediston (being part of the United Benefice of Halesworth with Chediston) all of which Benefices are situate in the County of Suffolk and in the Diocese of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich:

"Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend Walter Godfrey, Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, to inquire into and report upon the union of the said Benefice of Linstead Magna with Linstead Parva and the said Benefice of Chediston duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and

Ipswich and therein recommended the severance from the said United Benefice of Halesworth with Chediston of the said Benefice of Chediston and the union of the Benefice of Chediston so severed to the said Benefice of Linstead Magna with Linstead Parva and the terms for effecting the union, and the said Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the union of the said two Benefices of Linstead Magna with Linstead Parva and Chediston, which Scheme is based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

"And whereas both of the said Benefices of Linstead Magna with Linstead Parva and Halesworth with Chediston are now full, the Reverend John Alfred Burness being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Linstead Magna with Linstead Parva and the Reverend Henry Christian Newbery being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Halesworth with Chediston:

"And whereas only one Parsonage House will be left standing or remaining within or belonging to the United Benefice when the union which is hereinafter recommended and proposed shall take effect namely the Parsonage House belonging to the said Benefice of Linstead Magna with Linstead Parva:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said Walter Godfrey, Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

"1. That a portion of the said Benefice of Halesworth with Chediston, that is to say the said Benefice of Chediston, shall be severed from the said Benefice of Halesworth with Chediston and that the Benefice of Chediston so severed and the said Benefice of Linstead Magna with Linstead Parva shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Linstead with Chediston,' but the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects.

"2. That with the consents of the said John Alfred Burness and the said Henry Christian Newbery (testified by their signing this Scheme) upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect and the said John Alfred Burness if he is then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Linstead Magna with Linstead Parva shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice.

"3. That upon the said union taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Linstead Magna with Linstead Parva shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice.

"4. That after the said union has taken effect the Patronage of the United Benefice of Linstead with Chediston shall belong wholly to the Patrons of the said Benefice of Linstead Magna with Linstead Parva.

"5. That upon the said union taking effect a portion of the endowments of the said Bene-
