GREAT INDIAN PENINSULA RAILWAY ANNUITIES.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the General Meeting of the Annuity Trustees of both classes of the Great Indian Peninsula Railway Annuities, which was held at Winchester House, Old Broad-street, London, E.C. 2, on Friday, the 8th day of January, 1926, at 12.15 p.m., for the purpose of considering and, if thought fit, passing the sub-joined Resolution, stands adjourned until Friday, the 29th day of January, 1926, at the same place and time:—

Resolution.

That the sanction of Parliament be sought for the modification of the Great Indian Peninsula Railway Purchase Act, 1900, so as (a) to enable the Annuity Trustees to increase the sum to be deducted from the half-yearly or other payments of the Annuities of each class for the expenses of the payment and management of the said Annuities, such deduction to be increased to a sum not exceeding three-halfpence in respect of every twenty shillings or fractional part of twenty shillings of the gross amount of the Annuity then payable, and such further sum or sums as may from time to time be approved by the Annuity Trustees of each class in General Meeting, but so that the total amount of such deduction shall not exceed a sum of two-pence in respect of every twenty shillings or fractional part of twenty shillings of the gross amount of the Annuity then payable; and (b) to provide so far as provision has not already been made for the same for the payment out of the Sinking Fund of the expenditure which will have to be incurred in the distribution of the Fund and winding-up of the Trust on the cesser of the Annuities in the year 1948. And the Annuity Trustees are hereby authorised to take the necessary steps for causing
