

UNIVERSITY OF EDINBURGH.

To The King's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it Please Your Majesty,

We, Your Majesty's loyal subjects, the Principal and the University Court of the University of Edinburgh, humbly tender to Your Majesty an expression of the profound sorrow which has been evoked by the death of your much beloved Mother, Queen Alexandra.

We respectfully offer to Your Majesty, to Queen Mary, to the Prince of Wales and the other Members of the Royal Family, our humble sympathy in the irreparable bereavement which your Royal House has sustained.

We recall with devout gratitude, the kindness, the sympathy and the spirit of service which ruled her life, and which made her in truth the beloved Queen-Mother of all her people at home and in the Dominions beyond the Seas. We mourn our loss and will ever hold her in honoured and loving memory.

J. A. Ewing,

Principal.

W. A. Fleming,

Secretary.

14th December, 1925.

To which Address the following gracious Reply has been sent by His Majesty's Command:—

20th January, 1926.

Sir,

I am commanded by The King to convey to the Principal and the University Court of the University of Edinburgh His Majesty's thanks for the loyal address of the University on the occasion of the death of Queen Alexandra, and to say that he deeply appreciates the sympathy extended to him, to the Queen, and to the other Members of the Royal Family in the personal loss which has fallen upon them, and the expression of the affectionate regard in which the University held his beloved Mother.

I am, Sir,

Your Obedient Servant,

John Gilmour.

The Secretary to the University,
Edinburgh.
