

written, all of which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one Consolidated Chapelry for the said Church of All Souls, Witton, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of All Souls, Witton.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal Wisdom shall seem meet.

"THE SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of All Souls, Witton, comprising:—

"All those contiguous portions of the New Parish (sometime District Chapelry) of the Holy Trinity, Birchfield, in the County of Stafford and in the Diocese of Birmingham, and of the Parish of Aston juxta Birmingham, in the County of Warwick and in the said Diocese of Birmingham, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the New Parish of Saint James, Aston juxta Birmingham, in the said County of Warwick and in the said Diocese of Birmingham, from the said Parish of Aston juxta Birmingham, at the junction of Trinity Road with Witton Road, and extending thence north eastward along the middle of Witton Road for a distance of 28 chains or thereabouts to its junction with Aston Lane, and extending thence north westward along the middle of Aston Lane (thereby following in part the boundary which divides the New Parish of Saint John, Perry Barr, in the said County of Stafford and in the said Diocese of Birmingham, from the said New Parish of the Holy Trinity, Birchfield) for a distance of 38 chains or thereabouts to its junction with Stoneleigh Road, and extending thence southward along the middle of Stoneleigh Road for a distance of 23½ chains or thereabouts to its junction with Normandy Road, and extending thence eastward along the middle of Normandy Road for a distance of 6 yards or thereabouts to a point opposite to the wall or fence forming the eastern boundary of the house and premises known as Number 138, Normandy Road, and extending thence southward to and along the said wall or fence for a distance of 1¼ chains or thereabouts to the point where it meets the wall or fence forming the southern boundary of the houses and premises situate on the southern side of Normandy Road, and extending thence eastward along the last mentioned wall or fence and along the wall or fence in continuation thereof for a distance in all of 12½ chains or thereabouts to the point where the last mentioned wall or fence meets the wall or fence forming the western boundary of the King Edward Grammar School Cricket and Football Ground, and extending thence southward along the last mentioned wall or fence for a distance of 4 chains or thereabouts to the point where it meets the walls or fences forming the northern and western boundaries of the house and premises known as Number 77, Trinity Road, and extending thence southward along the wall or fence forming the western boundary of the last mentioned house and premises for a distance of 4½ chains or thereabouts to its southern end on the northern side of Trinity Road, and extending thence first southward to and then eastward along the middle of Trinity Road (thereby following in part the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Saint James, Aston juxta Birmingham, from the said Parish of Aston juxta Birmingham) for a distance of 9¼ chains or thereabouts to its junction with Witton Road, at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said Representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Birmingham.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 19th day of March, 1926.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 8th and 9th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 70, of the Act of the 14th and 15th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 97, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 55, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Representation, bearing date the 11th day of February, 1926, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 8th and 9th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 70, of the Act of the 14th and 15th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 97, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 55, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Representation as to the assignment of a Consolidated Chapelry to the consecrated Church of the Holy Trinity, Jesmond, situate within the New Parish (sometime Particular District) of Jesmond, in the County of Northumberland and in the Diocese of Newcastle:

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said New Parish of Jesmond, and of the New Parish (sometime District Chapelry) of Saint George, Newcastle upon Tyne, in the said County and Diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such New Parishes:

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population afore-
