PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 3rd day of May, 1926 (N/M. 172/26), in the words following, viz. :—

“Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

“And whereas by Orders in Council of the 11th October, 1921, and the 4th November, 1925, payment of allowances to ratings employed as Telegraphist Aerial Gunners was approved:

“And whereas we consider that the word ‘Aerial’ should be used only in connection with wireless telegraphy:

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council, to sanction the alteration in title from ‘Telegraphist Aerial Gunner’ to ‘Telegraphist Air Gunner.’”

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 30th day of April, 1926 (N. 261/26), in the words following, viz. :—

“Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

“And whereas under the provisions of Your Majesty's Order in Council of the 17th May, 1920, the pay of men sent sick to hospital from ships at home with disabilities due to their own misconduct, carelessness or neglect is subject to stoppages the rate of which for non-commissioned officers and men, Royal Marines, is less than the rate for naval ratings:

“And whereas the rates of pay for naval ratings and non-commissioned officers and men, Royal Marines, are now assimilated:

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction hospital stoppages for non-commissioned officers and men, Royal Marines, at the rate applicable to naval ratings.”

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
