

in their discretion may think fit, provided that:—

(i) Retired pay be not granted to any Officer who would not have been eligible therefor if placed on the retired list for incapacity.

(ii) The maximum rate of retired pay shall be the lower of the two following rates, viz.:—

(a) The rate admissible on the incapacity scale, after crediting the Officer with any service lost as the result of sentence by Court Martial, less 10 per cent., or

(b) The rate admissible on the incapacity scale calculated upon the Officer's service as reduced by sentence of Court Martial.

(iii) The gratuity be not in excess of that for which the Officer might have been eligible if retired for incapacity.

" 3. An Officer who has been dismissed the Service or dismissed with disgrace by sentence of Court Martial or whose name has been removed from the list of Officers, or who has been allowed to resign his commission or warrant to avoid trial by Court Martial may be awarded a compassionate allowance, but the grant of such an allowance and its duration, if granted, shall be entirely at the discretion of the Admiralty. No Officer may, however, be awarded a compassionate allowance in excess of the retired pay or gratuity which might have been granted to him if placed on the retired list under Clause 1 of this Schedule.

" 4. Nothing in this Schedule shall prejudice or affect the power of the Admiralty to discharge or dismiss Officers or shall confer on any person who has been removed from His Majesty's Service any right to half pay, retired pay or pension, compassionate allowance or gratuity.

" 5. The expression 'An Officer' in this Schedule shall include Commissioned Officers, Commissioned Officers from Warrant Rank, Warrant Officers and Subordinate Officers of all ranks in the Royal Navy and the Royal Marines."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of June, 1926.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Maintenance Orders (Facilities for Enforcement) Act, 1920, provision has been made for the enforcement in England and Ireland of maintenance orders made by a Court in any part of His Majesty's Dominions outside the United Kingdom to which the said Act extends:

And whereas by the said Act it is amongst other things provided that where His Majesty is satisfied that reciprocal provisions have been made by the Legislature of any part of His Majesty's Dominions outside the United Kingdom for the enforcement within that part of maintenance orders made by Courts within England and Ireland, His Majesty may by Order in Council extend the said Act to that part, and thereupon that part shall become a part of His Majesty's Dominions to which the said Act extends:

And whereas on the 6th day of December, 1922, the Irish Free State was established under the provisions of an Act of Parliament shortly entitled the Irish Free State Constitution Act, 1922 (Session 2):

And whereas His Majesty is satisfied that the Legislature of the part of His Majesty's Dominions outside the United Kingdom, hereinafter mentioned, has made reciprocal provisions for the enforcement within that part of maintenance orders made by Courts within England and Ireland:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers by the above recited Act in His Majesty vested, is pleased by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

1. The Maintenance Orders (Facilities for Enforcement) Act, 1920, shall apply to the part of His Majesty's Dominions outside the United Kingdom hereunder mentioned:—

VICTORIA.

2. Nothing in this Order shall affect the making, registration, confirmation or enforcement in the Irish Free State of any maintenance order as defined in sections 10 and 11 of the said Act.

And the Right Honourable Leopold Charles Stennett Amery, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of June, 1926.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Lord Chamberlain.
Sir John Gilmour.
Sir Francis Bell.
Sir John Wallis.

WHEREAS it is provided by the Colonial Prisoners Removal Act, 1884, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council from time to time to direct that the said Act shall apply, as if, subject to the conditions, exceptions, and qualifications (if any) contained in the Order, any place out of His Majesty's dominions in which His Majesty has jurisdiction, and which is named in the Order, were a British possession and part of His Majesty's dominions, and to provide for carrying into effect such application:

And whereas His Majesty has power and jurisdiction within the Somaliland Protectorate:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in pursuance and exercise of the powers in this behalf by
