

recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

“ 1. That the said Benefice of Brent Eleigh and the said Benefice of Milden shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of ‘ The United Benefice of Brent Eleigh with Milden,’ but the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects.

“ 2. That if upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette both of the said two Benefices shall be vacant, the union of the same two Benefices shall take effect forthwith; and if one only of the said two Benefices shall be then vacant the said union shall also take effect forthwith if the Incumbent of the other of the said two Benefices shall with the approval of the Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich consent to become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice, but if he shall not so consent (or if the Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich shall not approve as aforesaid) then the said union shall take effect upon the next avoidance of his Benefice and the then Incumbent (if any) of the other of the said two Benefices shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice; and if neither of the said two Benefices be then vacant then the said union shall take effect on the next avoidance of either of the said two Benefices if the Incumbent at that time of the other of the said two Benefices shall, with the approval of the Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich, consent to become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice, but if he shall not so consent (or if the Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich shall not approve as aforesaid) then the said union shall take effect immediately upon the next vacancy of his Benefice and the then Incumbent (if any) of the other of the said two Benefices shall become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice.

“ 3. That at any time and from time to time after the union has taken effect the Incumbent of the United Benefice shall employ such clerical or lay assistance in the performance of the duties of the United Benefice as the Bishop may require and towards the remuneration of clergy or lay-workers so required to be employed the Incumbent of the United Benefice shall be liable to provide out of the income of the United Benefice such sum as may be necessary not exceeding the sum of £120 in any one year.

“ 4. That upon the said union taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Brent Eleigh shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice and so soon as conveniently may be the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Milden and the site and appurtenances thereof and the grounds heretofore usually occupied and enjoyed therewith shall be sold and disposed of by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient and that the net proceeds of such sale shall constitute and form part of the Expenses fund established pursuant to the 32nd Section of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923.

“ 5. That after the said union has taken effect the course and succession in which the respective Patrons shall present or nominate to the United Benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows, that is to say, the right of presentation shall be exercised by the Patrons of the said two Benefices alternately, and the first turn of presentation or nomination shall belong to the Patron of that one of the said two Benefices of Brent Eleigh and Milden an Incumbent of which does not become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice under any of the provisions of Clause 2 of this Scheme.

“ 6. That upon the union taking effect, or upon the cessation of the said pension, whichever shall the later happen, all the Tithe rentcharges, glebe lands, and all other the endowments belonging to the said United Benefice or which may hereafter belong to the same United Benefice shall be charged and for ever after be chargeable in favour of the Incumbents for the time being of the respective Benefices of Bury Saint Edmunds, Saint James, and Bungay, Saint Mary, both in the said Diocese of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich with the annual sums or yearly rentcharges hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, a clear annual sum or yearly rentcharge of £100 in favour of the Incumbent for the time being of the said Benefice of Bury Saint Edmunds, Saint James, and a clear annual sum or yearly rentcharge of £50 in favour of the Incumbent for the time being of the said Benefice of Bungay Saint Mary, the same annual sums or yearly rentcharges to be as from the date of the said union taking effect or of the cessation of the said pension, as the case may be, due and payable to the Incumbents in whose favour they are charged respectively and the said annual sums or yearly rentcharges to be apportionable in each case between any outgoing Incumbent of either of the said Benefices of Bury Saint Edmunds, Saint James, and Bungay, Saint Mary, or his representatives on the one hand and his successor in the same Incumbency on the other hand and to be receivable by the Incumbents in whose favour they are charged as aforesaid by equal half yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in every year and for the recovery of the said yearly rentcharges the Incumbents of the said Benefices of Bury Saint Edmunds, Saint James, and Bungay, Saint Mary, respectively, and their successors shall have and be entitled to all the powers and remedies provided by Sections 121 and 122 of the Law of Property Act, 1925, in respect of rentcharges to which those Sections apply. Provided always that if at any time the Incumbent for the time being of the said United Benefice shall by any Deed duly executed by him under his hand and seal in accordance with the provisions of any Statute in that behalf enabling him, grant, convey and annex to the said Benefices of Bury Saint Edmunds, Saint James, and Bungay, Saint Mary, or either of them, any part or parts of the endowments belonging to the said United Benefice which shall in the opinion of the Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich for the time being be a just and fair equivalent or not less than an equivalent for both or either of the yearly rentcharges hereby created as aforesaid, then the said yearly rentcharges in both cases, or
