

nance enacted by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Council shall be invalid by reason that in the enactment thereof any such instructions were not duly observed.

XXXIV. The Sessions of the Council shall be held at such times and places as the Governor shall from time to time by proclamation appoint. There shall be at least one session of the Council in every year, and there shall not be an interval of twelve months between the last sitting of one session and the first sitting of the next following session. The first session shall be held within six months from the coming into operation of this Order.

XXXV. The Governor may at any time by proclamation prorogue the Council.

XXXVI. All questions proposed for debate in the Council shall be decided by the majority of votes and the President shall have an original vote in common with the other Members of the Council, and also a casting vote if upon any question the vote shall be equal.

XXXVII. The Governor may with the advice of the Council from time to time make, alter, revoke or renew such Standing Rules and Orders as may be necessary to ensure punctuality of attendance of Members of the said Council, and to prevent meetings of the said Council being held without convenient notice to the several Members thereof, and to maintain order and method in the despatch of business and in the conduct of debates in the said Council, and to secure due deliberation in the passing of Ordinances, and to provide that before the passing of any Ordinance intended to affect the interests of private persons due notice of the provisions thereof is given to all persons concerned therein.

All such Rules and Orders not being repugnant to any Letters Patent for the time being in force in the Colony or to any Order of His Majesty in Council or to any instructions which the Governor may receive from His Majesty shall at all times be followed and observed and shall be binding upon the said Council unless the same or any of them shall be disallowed by His Majesty.

XXXVIII. It shall be competent to any Member of the Council to propose any question relating to the affairs of the Territory for debate therein, and if seconded by any other Member such question shall be debated and disposed of in accordance with the Standing Rules and Orders: provided always that every Ordinance, vote, resolution or question the object or effect of which may be to dispose of or charge any part of the public revenue shall be proposed by the Governor unless the proposal of the same shall have been directed or expressly sanctioned by him. Provided further that any resolution or question which any Member may propose to bring forward for debate shall be notified to the Governor at least ten days before the meeting of the Council.

XXXIX. Minutes shall be regularly kept of all the proceedings of the Council and at each meeting of the Council the minutes of the last preceding meeting shall be confirmed or amended, as the case may require, before proceeding to the despatch of any other business. The Governor shall transmit to His Majesty through the Secretary of State, as soon as possible after every meeting, a full and exact copy of the minutes thereof.

XL. This Order shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the Governor by proclamation in the Gazette and shall be published in the said Gazette, and the Governor shall give directions for the publication of this Order at such places and in such manner and for such time or times as he thinks proper for giving due publicity thereto within the Territory.

XLI. From and after the date of the commencement of the first Session of the Council held in pursuance of this Order, Article XIII of the Tanganyika Order in Council, 1920, shall be revoked without prejudice to anything lawfully done thereunder.

XLII. His Majesty may from time to time revoke, alter, add to or amend this Order.

And the Right Honourable Leopold Stennett Amery, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein.

M. P. A. Hankey.

[This Order was brought into operation on the 1st July, 1926.]

Westminster, 4th August, 1926.

This day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them that The Lords, authorized by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by His Majesty, for declaring His Royal Assent to the Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to:—
