

And whereas We have this day been pleased to make a new Proclamation of Emergency under the said Act:

And whereas it is provided by the said Act that where a Proclamation of Emergency has been made the occasion thereof shall forthwith be communicated to Parliament, and, if Parliament is then separated by such adjournment or prorogation as will not expire within five days, a Proclamation shall be issued for the meeting of Parliament within five days, and Parliament shall accordingly meet and sit upon the day appointed by that Proclamation, and shall continue to sit and act in like manner as if it had stood adjourned or prorogued to the same day:

And whereas the House of Lords stands adjourned to Thursday, the 21st day of October next, and the House of Commons stands adjourned to Tuesday, the 9th day of November next:

Now, therefore, We, in pursuance of the said Act and all other powers enabling Us in that behalf, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, hereby proclaim and give notice of Our Royal intention and pleasure that Our Parliament, notwithstanding that it now stands adjourned as aforesaid, shall assemble and be holden on Monday, the 27th day of September instant; and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said Monday, the 27th day of September.

Given at Our Court at Balmoral, this twenty-second day of September, in the year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and twenty-six, and in the Seventeenth year of Our Reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

Privy Council Office,
22nd September, 1926.

EMERGENCY POWERS ACT, 1920.

Notice is hereby given that His Majesty in Council was pleased, on the 22nd day of September, 1926, to make by Order in Council under Section 2 (1) of the above-named Act, Regulations entitled:—"The Emergency Regulations (No. 6), 1926".

Copies of the said Order may be purchased, when published, through any bookseller or directly from His Majesty's Stationery Office at the following addresses:—Austral House, Kingsway, London, W.C. 2; York Street, Manchester; 1, St. Andrew's Crescent, Cardiff; 120, George Street, Edinburgh; and 15, Donegall Square West, Belfast.

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 17th day of September, 1926.

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS on 10th July, 1925, the Secretary-General of the League of Nations communicated to His Majesty's Government a certified copy of a draft Convention concerning Workmen's Compensation for Occupational Diseases which had been adopted by the International Labour Conference at Geneva on 10th June, 1925:

And whereas it is provided in Article 405 of the Treaty of Versailles that in the case of a draft Convention so communicated each Member of the International Labour Organisation shall, if such draft Convention obtains the consent of the authority or authorities within whose competence the matter lies, communicate the formal ratification thereof to the Secretary-General of the League of Nations:

And whereas such draft Convention has in respect of Great Britain and Northern Ireland obtained the consent of the authority or authorities within whose competence the matter lies and such action as is necessary to make the provision of the said draft Convention effective therein has been taken:

Now, therefore, the Lords of the Council are pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said draft Convention be confirmed and approved accordingly and that formal communication thereof be made to the Secretary-General of the League of Nations.
