BY THE KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.I.

WHEREAS Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, by an Order in Council dated the nineteenth day of August, eighteen hundred and fifty-three, ordered the establishment of a Branch Mint at or near Sydney in New South Wales:

And whereas in pursuance of the Coinage Act, 1870 (in this Proclamation referred to as "the Act"), Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, by the Sydney Mint Proclamation, 1900, directed, among other things, that the said Branch Mint should continue to be established, and revoked the said Order of the nineteenth day of August, eighteen hundred and fifty-three, and certain other Orders and Proclamations relating to the said Branch Mint:

And whereas by virtue of the Act, it is lawful for Us, with the advice of Our Privy Council, by Proclamation to revoke any Proclamation previously made under the Act:

And whereas it appears to Us desirable, having regard to the great diminution in the production of gold within the Commonwealth of Australia and to the improvement of the means of communication between different parts of the said Commonwealth, that the establishment of the said Branch Mint should be discontinued:

We, therefore, in pursuance of the Act and of all other powers enabling Us in that behalf, do hereby, with the advice of Our Privy Council, proclaim, direct, and ordain as follows:—

1. The establishment of the branch of Our Royal Mint at or near Sydney in New South Wales, shall, as from the first day of January, nineteen hundred and twenty-seven, be discontinued, and the Sydney Mint Proclamation, 1900, shall as from that date cease to have effect:

Provided that nothing in this Proclamation shall affect anything legally done or suffered:

before the first day of January, nineteen hundred and twenty-seven, and all coins coined at the said Branch Mint before that date which are at that date current and a legal tender in any part of Our Dominions shall continue to be so current and a legal tender.

2. This Proclamation may be cited as the Sydney Mint (Discontinuance) Proclamation, 1926.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this fifth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six, and in the Seventeenth year of Our Reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1926.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it is provided by the Petroleum Act, 1871, that His Majesty may, from time to time, make, revoke, and vary Orders in Council directing that the said Act or any part thereof shall apply to any substance, and that the said Act or the part thereof specified in any such Order shall, during the continuance of the Order, apply to such substance, and shall be construed and have effect as if such substance had been included in the definition of Petroleum Spirit, subject inter alia to the qualification that the label on the vessel containing such substance shall be such as may be specified in that behalf in the Order:

And whereas the Petroleum Act, 1926, is to be construed as one with the Petroleum Act of 1871:

And whereas the provisions of Section 1 of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the above-mentioned provisions of the Petroleum Act, 1871, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order and prescribe that so much of the Petroleum Acts, 1871 to 1926, as relates to the conveyance of petroleum spirit by road shall apply to Bisulphide of Carbon, and that the label on the vessel or package containing Bisulphide of Carbon shall bear in conspicuous characters the words "Bisulphide of Carbon, Highly Inflammable," together with the name and address of the sender.
