

Protestant Strangers may have the Benefit of former Acts of Parliament made in their favour, notwithstanding this Act; which was ordered accordingly. A Motion being made that the Committee appointed to prepare Heads of a Bill for the Encouragement of the Linnen and Hemp Manufacture in this Kingdom be enlarged; Ordered that the same be enlarged accordingly. And that it be an Instruction to the said Committee to consider of the Papers now read, relating to the said Manufacture, and that they have Power to name a President for each County out of the Persons returned for Directors; and that Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer do prepare and bring in a Clause to be inserted in the said Bill for the better Encouragement of the said Manufacture, pursuant to a Paper now laid before the House.

The Bill for Confirmation of Articles made at the Surrender of Limericke, was on the 14th read the first time in the House of Lords, and is ordered to be read again on Saturday next, when the Lords, at present out of Town, are summoned to attend the House.

Newcastle, September 17. On Tuesday last arrived here about 100 Sail of Light Ships under Convoy of the Smirna-Merchant; and the same day the said Man of War and Rupert-Prize sailed hence with a Fleet of 200 Sail of Laden Colliers. Yesterday in the evening 3 Dutch Men of War came to our Bar, with about 70 Sail of Merchant Ships bound to Rotterdam; Several Vessels went from hence and joined them; and they all proceeded on their Voyage with a fair Wind.

Chester, September 18. On Thursday last His Majesty's Ship South-Sea-Castle, of 36 Guns, and 100 Men, came into High-lake, with two Virginia Ships from Leverpool, but it blowing hard at W. by N. her Anchors gave way, and she run a-ground upon the Sand called the Dove, where she beat to pieces, but the Men were all saved.

Lynn, September 20. The Mayor and Aldermen of this Corporation having received the Welcome News of the Peace, they met together, and caused Bonfires and Illuminations to be made; which was performed by the Inhabitants, with firing of Guns, Ringing of Bells, and other Rejoycings proper for the Occasion.

Weymouth, Sept. 18. The good News of the Peace has been received here with all suitable Demonstrations of Joy, and with repeated Expressions of Zeal, and most Dutiful Affection for his Majesties Royal Person and Government.

Barnstable, Sept. 19. Friday last was spent here with great Rejoycing for the happy Conclusion of the Peace; and the Evening concluded with Bonfires and Illuminations.

Plimouth, September 19. Yesterday came into this Port the Two-Brothers of and from Flushing, Daniel Markse Master, bound to Cadix.

Deale, September 20. The 18th His Majesty's Ship the Pendennis came into the Downes, with several Vessels under her Convoy from the Westward. The 19th came in the Dunkirk, Newarke, Greenwich, Essex-Prize, and Vulcan Fireship from the Northward; and this day the Experiment and Maidstone.

There are Two Mails due from Holland.

Admiralty-Office, September 21. 1697.

Whereas the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty did receive a Letter by the Post, signed A. B. which contains several things relating to the late Action of Captain Harlow; These are to give Notice, That if the Person who wrote the said Letter, will apply himself to one of the Secretaries of the Admiralty, his Name shall not be made known, without his own consent, and he shall likewise be Rewarded, and Preferred by their Lordships.

William Bridgeman.

Advertisements.

On the 21th Instant in a Hackney Coach, No 216, a Gold Watch with a black Shagreen Case studded, made by Mr. Harris of the Old Bailey; it has a black Satin Ribbon tied to it, with a Locket of Hair made in shape of a Heart, with dark coloured Hair on one side, and light on the other, with a Gypper in the middle. Whoever gives notice of it, so as it may be had again, to Mr. Tizard at the Blue Ball in Kingstreet, Westminster, shall have a Guinea Reward.

An Account of the Life and Death of Mr. Philip Henry, Minister of the Gospel near Whitechurch in Middlesex, who died June 24. 1696. in the 65th year of his Age. With a Preface by Will. Bates, D. D. 121. Printed for Tho. Parkhurst in Cheap-side, and John Lawrence at the Angel in the Poutry.

Whereas E. F. went away from her Friends the 5th of July last, aged about 12, tall of her age; light brown hair, had on a grey Serge Mantua, a brown Petticoat, a white Apron, and a Straw Hat lined with Painted Callicoe. If she will return to her Friends she shall be kindly received; Or whoever gives notice of her at the Swan-Inn in Kings-Clear, Hampshire, or to Timothy Carew at the Red-Cross Tavern in Blackfriars, London, shall have 20s. Reward, and Charges.

Taken away the 2d Instant, between 7 and 8 at night, by Two Highwaymen, both of them of a middle stature, a large Liver Watch with a Chain, and made by Mr. Charles Gretton, London, the Ourward Case studded all over, and very much worn, several of the said Sticks being out; with several other things besides. If the said Watch be offered to be pawned or sold, you are desired to stop the said Watch and Party, and give notice to Mr. Charles Gretton, Watchmaker, at the Ship in Fleetstreet, and you shall have a Guinea Reward; Or if already pawned, or sold, their Money again, and reasonable profit for the same.

Taken away by 3 Highwaymen on Thursday the 16th Instant at night, near Tyburn, a sorrel Mare 14 hands and 3 Locks high, all her Feet white, Saddle spots, a large Blaze down her Face, Scar on the off Knee, and a Hurt on the outside of the off Fore-leg. Whoever gives notice of her, so as she may be had again, to Mr. Merdall at the Black-Swan, Holborn, or to Mr. Brown at the 3 Colts in Finchbury, shall have a Guinea and Charges.

Stolen out of the Stable of John Finden of Farrington in the County of Southampton, a sorrel Gelding about 15 hands high, with a bald Face, his hind Feet white, and a Pitch mark on the near Buttock in S. the S. Branding the wrong way, 5 years old but Grays, with a hob Tail. Whoever secures him, and gives notice to Mr. Richard Hester, Baker, in Hungerford Market, London, or to John Finden in the Parish of Farrington aforesaid, shall have a Guinea Reward.

Taken or strayed, a dark bay Mare 14 hands or something better high, a thick Head, brisk Eye, full Ribbed, round Buttock, with the Mane turning both ways, a small Lock of white Hair upon the Crest, and long Tail. Whoever secures the said Mare, and gives notice to M^r. Wotton, Bookseller, at the 3 Doggers in Fleetstreet, or to Edmund Higginson at the Haven Inne near Bewdley-bridge in Worcester-shire, shall have a Guinea Reward.

TI

From
By

A P R O

The Cantuar.

W Here

several quest
Sess
Forged and Count
issued, and by Fo
an Examination
more than Five of which Fines Bills
any further Pre
the Persons conce
ing are apprehen
to others, (viz.)
her Marriot; a T
she were princ
from their usual
it therefore (wit
all; Privy Coun
nation, hereby C
sent to Discover Anno, and Ro
then may be Cou
the of Peace or to Commit them
they shall be shen
to heroby Req
affairs, immedi
Privy Council, cr
vic of Sease.
Command all His
to give the contr
they Conceal, but Domingo Antunes
to the end they Office, according Declare, That wh
and Domingo An
and bring them
Magistrate, shall Prison, the Sum of One hundred Treasury are here
to heroby further Persons concerned
except the said
and Discover an
in the said Forged
of them, and br
in Case of Magistra
have and receive his Offence.

Given at the C
of September
Justice Reign.

At the Cou
the 24th

Their Excellen

W Here as it
that on S
the Riding Survey
of Kent, and Ben
near Dury in Berk
Judith, Beasen, C
Lives, by certain
her Weapons. T
Council are please
the Offenders, and

Given at the C
of September
Justice Reign.

At the Cou
the 24th

Their Excellen

W Here as it
that on S
the Riding Survey
of Kent, and Ben
near Dury in Berk
Judith, Beasen, C
Lives, by certain
her Weapons. T
Council are please
the Offenders, and

Given at the C
of September
Justice Reign.

At the Cou
the 24th

Their Excellen