

retired or is not on the active list at the date of this Order, but is eligible to be re-employed or is liable to be recalled to service in a national emergency or when a national emergency appears imminent, he shall on re-employment or recall serve on his original Commission as if this Order had not been made :

Provided that such an officer on being so re-employed or recalled shall exercise power of command in such manner and on such occasions as shall be prescribed whatever may be the form of his Commission.

6. Where any officer as aforesaid having retired has, before the date of this Order, been re-employed and the circumstances are such that had the date of the re-employment occurred after the date of this Order he would have served on his original Commission, the last foregoing Article shall apply to him as if his re-employment had occurred after the date of this Order.

7. An officer who at the date of this Order holds a Commission in the form numbered 3 or the form numbered 5 in Schedule B to the Order of 1873, and an officer who receives a Commission in the form set out in Part I or in the form set out in Part II of the Schedule to this Order, shall not receive a further Commission on his future appointment by promotion, exchange, transfer or otherwise in the force to which he belongs, but such appointment, when approved by His Majesty, shall be notified by one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, or, in the case of an officer of the Royal Marines, by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, in the London Gazette, or shall be notified in such other manner as may for the time being be prescribed by Order in Council.

8. All Commissions in the form set out in the Schedule to this Order shall be countersigned by two members of the Army Council, or, in the case of the Royal Marines, by two of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

9. (1) This Order may be cited as the Officers' Commissions Order, 1927.

(2) The Order of 1873 is hereby revoked, but such revocation shall not invalidate a Commission issued in either of the forms numbered 3 or 5 in Schedule B, or 9 in Schedule C to that Order, or of any Commission held by an officer who is retired or not on the active list and is re-employed or recalled to service

M. P. A. Hankey.
