

ing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

LEIRE.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint Peter, Leire, and except as hereinafter provided in the Churchyard attached thereto.

Provided that—

(a) In the undermentioned brick graves now existing in the said Churchyard, the burial may be allowed of the bodies of the following persons at their decease, viz.:—

(1) Thomas Edward Jarvis, in the grave of his wife.

(2) Mary Stevens, in the grave of her husband.

Subject, in each case, to the condition that the coffin be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b) In the said Churchyard, the burial may be allowed of the bodies of Ellen Dale, Thomas Richardson, and Caroline Jane Richardson at their decease, for whom grave spaces have been reserved and appropriated as a burial place, with the exclusive right of burial therein, subject in each case to the same condition as that above mentioned.

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 27th day of August, 1927.

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS on 20th August, 1926, the Secretary-General of the League of Nations communicated to His Majesty's Government a certified copy of a draft Convention concerning the simplification of the inspection of emigrants on board ship which had been adopted by the International Labour Conference at Geneva on 5th June, 1926:

And whereas it is provided in Article 405 of the Treaty of Versailles that in the case of a draft Convention so communicated each Member of the International Labour Organisation shall, if such draft Convention obtains the consent of the authority or authorities within whose competence the matter lies, communicate the formal ratification thereof to the Secretary-General of the League of Nations:

And whereas such draft Convention has in respect of Great Britain and Northern Ireland obtained the consent of the authority or authorities within whose competence the matter lies and such action as is necessary to make the provisions of the said draft Convention conditionally effective therein has been taken:

Now, therefore, the Lords of the Council are pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said draft Convention be confirmed and approved, provided, however, that such confirmation and approval shall not take effect until the date by which the Secretary-General of the League of Nations shall have received and registered the formal ratifications without reservations of the said draft Convention by France, Germany, the Netherlands, Italy, Norway and Spain.

And it is further ordered that formal communication thereof be made to the Secretary-General of the League of Nations.

M. P. A. Hankey.
