*Crown Office,
House of Lords,
30th August, 1927.*

The KING has been pleased by Letters Patent under the Great Seal to present The Rev. Edwin Albert Pavitt, M.A., to the Vicarage of All Souls, Harlesden, in the County of Middlesex and Diocese of London, void by the cession of the last Incumbent and in His Majesty's Gift in full right.

TENDERS FOR TREASURY BILLS.

1. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that Tenders will be received at the Chief Cashier's Office, at the Bank of England, on Friday, the 9th September, 1927, at 1 o'clock, for Treasury Bills to be issued under the Treasury Bills Act, 1877, the National Debt Act, 1889, and the War Loan Acts, 1914-1919, to the amount of £40,000,000.

2. The Bills will be in amounts of £5,000 or £10,000. They will be dated at the option of the Tenderer on any business day from Monday, the 12th September, 1927, to Saturday, the 17th September, 1927, inclusive, and will be payable at three months after date.

3. The Bills will be issued and paid at the Bank of England.

4. Each Tender must be for an amount not less than £50,000, and must specify the date on which the Bills required are to be dated, and the net amount per cent. (being an even multiple of one penny) which will be given for the amount applied for. Separate

Tenders must be lodged for Bills of different dates.

5. Tenders must be made through a London Banker, Discount House or Broker.

6. The persons whose Tenders are accepted will be informed of the same not later than the following day, and payment in full of the amounts of the accepted tenders must be made to the Bank of England by means of Cash or a Banker's Draft on the Bank of England not later than 2 o'clock (Saturday 12 o'clock) on the day on which the relative Bills are to be dated.

7. In virtue of the provisions of Section 1 (4) of the War Loan Act, 1919, Members of the House of Commons are not precluded from tendering for these Bills.

8. Tenders must be made on the printed forms which may be obtained from the Chief Cashier's Office, Bank of England.

9. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury reserve the right of rejecting any Tenders.

MERCHANDISE MARKS ACT, 1926.

In accordance with the provisions of Section 2, Sub-section (d), of the Merchandise Marks Act, 1926, the Board of Trade give notice that in pursuance of applications received by them for the making of Orders in Council requiring imported goods of certain classes and descriptions to bear an indication of origin, they have made a reference to the Standing Committee appointed by them under the Act in respect of the following classes and descriptions of imported goods:—

(1) (a) Electric cables, insulated, of all descriptions;

(b) Electric wires, insulated, of all descriptions.

(2) Rubber manufactures of the following descriptions:—

Rubber in sheets; piping and tubing of rubber or rubber and other materials, armoured or not; rubber balls of all descriptions (including golf balls and tennis balls); toys wholly or mainly of rubber; elastic cords, webs, braids and fabrics; mats, matting and tiling of rubber; rubber gloves; rubber proof cloth and articles made therefrom, as well as any other manufactures consisting wholly or mainly of rubber and including ebonite, vulcanite and manufactures thereof (but not including motor covers and tubes, motor cycle covers and tubes, cycle covers and tubes, solid and semi-solid tyres, boots, shoes and slippers or screw bottle stoppers).

(3) Briar pipes, stained or unstained, and briar bowls, stained or unstained.

(4) Electric incandescent lamps.

Attention is called to the fact that under the provisions of the above-mentioned Act, while the Committee in every case referred to them must consider whether the goods should bear the indication of origin at the time of sale or exposure for sale, they may also at their discretion consider and report upon the question whether such goods should bear an indication of origin at the time of importation.

BANK OF ENGLAND,

1st September, 1927.

THE Court of Directors of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England give notice—

That a General Court will be held at the Bank on Thursday, the 22nd September, at 12 o'clock precisely, to consider of a Dividend. This will also be one of the half-yearly General Courts.

A member is not qualified to vote in any General Court unless he holds £500 Stock (whether in his own right or in trust for another person) and has been possessed thereof for at least six calendar months unless he has acquired the said Stock by transmission on death or by marriage.

Where Stock stands in the joint names of two or more members, they may by writing under their hands, in a form provided on application at the Bank of England, nominate one of their number to vote in respect of such Stock; and if none of them is so nominated the one whose name stands first in the register of members shall be qualified to vote.

The nomination referred to must be lodged at the Head Office of the Bank in London, for examination, not less than 10 clear days before the first General Court at which the nominee desires to vote.
