Malaga, October 1. N. S.

THE 28th of the last month arrived here the King-William Galley from Cadiz, the Upton Galley from the Downes, and the Concord from Plimouth, all bound to this place; The same day came in the Bridget, the Hope, the Industry, the John, and the William and John likewise from Plimouth; and the Mary-Rose Galley bound home from Legborne.

Lisbonne, October 15. The King of Portugal has appointed the Cortes or States of this Kingdom to meet here the next month. The Ship Haniball, which some of her Men run away with, being arrived here from Brazille, is restored to the Owners, by Order from this Court.

Madrid, October 16 The King and Queen of Spain went the last week in solemn manner to the Chapel of Nuestra Senora de Atcha, where Te Deum was Sung for the Conclusion of the Peace, and that night and the two following here were Illuminations, with Fireworks and other Rejoyceings; To morrow their Majesties intend to go to Alcala, the 18th to Aranjuez, and the 19th to Toledo, at which last place they will make a stay of 7 or 8 days, and be Entertained with a Bull Feast; The 27th their Majesties will return hither, and the 28th, being the Queen's Birth Day, there will be a Comedy at Court, and on the 29th a Royal Bull Feast in the Placa-Mayor of Madrid. The Norton Galley arrived at Cadiz the 29th past, in 3 weeks from Newfoundland.

Corke, October 19. Yesterday came in here a Merchant Ship called the Charles of London from Virginia, who left the Squadron commanded by Capt. Dilkes in the Latitude of 48.

Dublin, October 24. Yesterday being the Anniversary for our Deliverance from the Irish Rebellion in 1641, was observed here with the usual Solemnity; The Lords-

Justices went to Christchurch in the morning, attended by the Nobility, Privy-Councillors, and Chief Officers Civil and Military, who afterwards Dined at the Castle; The great Guns were discharged, and the Evening ended with Bonfires.

Falmouth, October 25. Yesterday arrived here the Spanish-Expedition in 6 days from Corunna. The same day went out two Dutch Privateers, bound home with two Prizes they took some time ago.

Plimouth, October 26. The Mary Galley, Capt. Cleasby Commander, and the Lyme and Hunter Fireship, came in here this day, being part of the Newfoundland Squadron, commanded by Capt. Norris, from whom they were separated the 13th Instant in the Lat. of 48, near the outward Bank of Newfoundland; These 3 Ships came in separately, not having seen one another since they parted in the Storm, till this day: The rest of the Squadron are hourly expected. The Crown, Portland, and Bonadventure, went from Newfoundland to the Coasts of Spain and Portugal.

Cowes, October 28. The Deptford, and the rest of the Ships bound to New-England, continue in this Road, by reason of the contrary Winds.

Portsmouth, October 28. The 26th Instant arrived at Spithead from the West-Indies, but last from Virginia, His Majesty's Ships the Cambridge, Blackwall, Warwick and Ruby, having been separated from the rest of the Squadron under the Command of Capt. Dilkes in bad Weather. This day Vice-Admiral Mitchell came to an Anchor at Spithead with a Squadron of His Majesty's Ships under his Command, and 15 Dutch homeward-bound East-India Ships, whom he met the 17th Instant in his Cruise to the Westward; The said East-India Ships had lost most of their Cables and Anchors at the Cape of Good-Hope, and wanted Provisions, which occasioned their putting in here.

Portsmouth, October 30. His Majesty's Ship the Guernsey arrived yesterday at St. Helens, who came from Newfoundland with the Squadron commanded by Capt. Norris, on the 8th Instant, but 3 days after was separated from them in a Storm. They had finished the Fortifications at St. John's before they came away, and left there several Companies of Soldiers under the command of the Major of Colonel Gibson's Regiment.

Deale, October 29. Captain Warren, in His Majesty's Ship the Windsor, with the rest of the English Men of War and Merchant Ships from Cadiz, are come into the Downes.
