

shall act as collectors at the same place, and no person shall collect money within 30 yards of the place where any other person or persons are collecting.

7. No person under the age of 18 years shall act or be permitted to act as a collector

8. No collector shall use a table for the purpose of any collection so as to cause or be likely to cause obstruction. No table used shall exceed 30 inches in length and 20 inches in width.

9. No collector shall use a box or other receptacle at the end of a pole intended to reach upper windows or the roofs of conveyances.

10. No collector shall be accompanied by any animal.

11. No collector shall importune any person to the annoyance of such person.

12. Every collector shall carry and present to all contributors for the reception of money contributions a box or other receptacle numbered and securely closed and sealed in such a way as to prevent the same being opened or the money extracted without such seal being broken, and into this box or other receptacle all money received shall be immediately placed. All such boxes or receptacles shall be numbered consecutively. Every collector shall deliver his boxes or other receptacles with the seals unbroken to one of the persons responsible for the proper application of the money received.

13. A collector shall not carry any collecting box or receptacle which does not bear displayed prominently thereon the name of the fund for which the collection is being made, with the date of the collection nor any box or other receptacle which is not duly numbered.

14. No payment by way of reward shall be made or given to any collector. No payment or reward shall be made or given either directly or indirectly to any other person connected with the promotion or conduct of a collection for or in respect of services in connection therewith except such payment as may be shewn in the application made before the permit for the collection is granted.

15. Within one month after the date of any collection the society, committee or other body of persons responsible therefor shall forward to the Commissioner for the information of the Advisory Committee a statement, with vouchers, certified by two officials of the society and audited by its auditor or other responsible person not connected with the fund, showing in detail the amount received and the expenses incurred in connection with such collection and shall if required by the Commissioner satisfy him as to the due and proper application of the proceeds of the collection. The Society, committee or other body shall also, within the same period, and after audit, publish in such newspaper or newspapers as the Commissioner may direct a short statement showing the name of the society, etc., responsible for the collection, the name of the Charity or fund which is to benefit, the date of the collection and the amount collected, the amount of the expenses and the amount distributed to the Charity or fund.

Any person wilfully disregarding or refusing to conform to these Regulations is liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings for each offence.

The general limits referred to are such parts of the Metropolis as are enclosed in a circle of which the centre is Charing Cross, and the radii are six miles in length as measured in a straight line from Charing Cross.

Compliance with the above Regulations shall not exempt a person from proceedings under the Vagrancy Acts or other Statutory provisions, or any bye-laws made by any Local Authorities.

W. Horwood,

Commissioner of Police of the Metropolis.

I approve the foregoing Regulations, and the Regulations dated 22nd February, 1921, are hereby cancelled.

W. Joynson-Hicks,

One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.
