PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 27, Sub-section 5, of the Cinematograph Films Act, 1927 (17 and 18 Geo. V, c. 29) it is provided that for the purposes of the said Section 27 the expression "British Empire" includes territories under His Majesty's protection and such (if any) of the territories in respect of which a mandate on behalf of the League of Nations has been accepted by His Majesty as His Majesty may from time to time by Order in Council direct shall be treated as if they were included in His Majesty's Dominions for the purposes of that Act;

And whereas in accordance with the provisions of the Treaty of Versailles mandates on behalf of the League of Nations have been accepted by His Majesty and are being exercised on behalf of His Majesty by His Majesty's Government in Great Britain in respect of the under-mentioned territories that is to say:—

- (a) the Tanganyika Territory;
- (b) the British Cameroons;
- (c) British Togoland.

And whereas in accordance with the provisions of the Treaty of Versailles mandates on behalf of the League of Nations have been accepted by His Majesty and are being exercised on behalf of His Majesty by His Majesty's Governments in those parts of His Majesty's Dominions hereinafter appearing in respect of the undermentioned territories that is to say:—

(a) The territory of South-West Africa (formerly German South-West Africa) exercised by His Majesty's Government in the Union of South Africa;

(b) the territory of New Guinea (i.e. the former German Possessions in the Pacific Ocean situated south of the Equator other than German Samoa and Nauru) exercised by His Majesty's Government in the Commonwealth of Australia; and

(c) the territory of Western Samoa (formerly German Samoa) exercised by His Majesty's Government in the Dominion of New Zealand.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to direct and it is hereby directed as follows:—

1. The above-mentioned territories shall be treated as if they were included in His Majesty's Dominions for the purposes of Section 27 of the Cinematograph Films Act, 1927.

2. This Order may be cited as the Cinematograph Films (Mandated Territories) Order, 1928.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 22nd day of March, 1928.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS by Section 445 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, it is enacted that where the Board of Trade certify that the laws and regulations for the time being in force in any foreign country and relating to overloading and improper loading are equally effective with the provisions of that Act relating thereto, His Majesty in Council may direct that on proof of a ship of that country having complied with those laws and regulations, she shall not, when in a port of the United Kingdom, be liable to detention for non-compliance with the said provisions of that Act, nor shall there arise any liability to any fine or penalty which would otherwise arise for non-compliance with those provisions:

And whereas by Section 1 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1906, provision, as is more particularly therein mentioned, is made for applying to foreign ships when in ports in the United Kingdom certain sections of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, which relate to loadline, without prejudice to any direction of His Majesty in Council given under the said Section 445 of the last-mentioned Act:

And whereas the Board of Trade have certified that certain statutory regulations which have been approved by the Portuguese Government relating to overloading, so far as regards the assignment of loadlines to Portuguese ships are equally effective with the corresponding regulations in force in this country respecting the assignment of loadlines to British merchant ships:

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council doth direct that on proof that Portuguese ships have complied with the aforesaid Portuguese regulations, such ships shall not, when in ports of the United Kingdom, be liable to detention for non-compliance with the provisions of the Merchant Shipping Acts relating to overloading, nor shall there arise any liability to any fine or penalty which would otherwise arise for non-compliance with those provisions.
