The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury do hereby, under the authority of the Customs Consolidation Act, 1876, appoint Barnstaple, on and after the date of this Warrant, to continue and be a port in that part of the United Kingdom called England and do hereby declare that the limits of the said port shall commence at a small stream of water running into the Bristol Channel at a place called Glenthorne and which divides the Counties of Devon and Somerset near the Headland in the Bristol Channel and County of Devon called the Foreland (being the western limit of the port of Bridgwater) and shall continue thence in a westerly direction along the coast of the said County to the point of land called Morte Point and from thence in a direct straight line across Barnstaple and Bideford Bay to the point of land in the said County called Hartland Point and thence in a southerly and south-westerly direction along the coast of the County of Devon and County of Cornwall to Dazard Point in the Parish of Saint Gennys in the last named County (being the northern limit of the port of Padstow) and shall extend seaward from low water mark along the coast within the aforesaid limits and from the line drawn from Morte Point aforesaid to Hartland Point aforesaid and shall include the River Taw and both sides thereof and all other rivers, bays, harbours, creeks and pills within the aforesaid limits but the said limits shall not extend to or include any area south of an imaginary straight line between North Point of Skern (being the point of land to the northward of Appledore) and Instow Parish Church Tower being the northern limit of the port of Bideford.

And We do hereby further declare that the Island called Lundy Island in the Bristol Channel and the sea surrounding the same to a distance of three miles from low water mark shall be and form part of the said port of Barnstaple.

And We do hereby annul as from the date of this Warrant all former limits of the port of Barnstaple.

Dated this eighteenth day of April, 1928.

TENDERS FOR TREASURY BILLS.

1. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that Tenders will be received at the Chief Cashier's Office, at the Bank of England, on Friday, the 4th May, 1928, at 1 o'clock, for Treasury Bills to be issued under the Treasury Bills Act, 1877, the National Debt Act, 1869, and the War Loan Acts, 1914-1919, to the amount of £40,000,000.

2. The Bills will be in amounts of £5,000 or £10,000. They will be dated at the option of the Tenderer on any business day from Monday, the 7th May, 1928, to Saturday, the 12th May, 1928, inclusive, and will be payable at three months after date.

3. The Bills will be issued and paid at the Bank of England.

4. Each Tender must be for an amount not less than £50,000, and must specify the date on which the Bills required are to be dated, and the net amount per cent. (being an even multiple of one penny) which will be given for the amount applied for. Separate Tenders must be lodged for Bills of different dates.

5. Tenders must be made through a London Banker, Discount House or Broker.

6. The persons whose Tenders are accepted will be informed of the same not later than the following day, and payment in full of the amounts of the accepted tenders must be made to the Bank of England by means of Cash or a Banker's Draft on the Bank of England not later than 2 o'clock (Saturday 12 o'clock) on the day on which the relative Bills are to be dated.

7. In virtue of the provisions of Section 1 (4) of the War Loan Act, 1919, Members of the House of Commons are not precluded from tendering for these Bills.

8. Tenders must be made on the printed forms, which may be obtained from the Chief Cashier's Office, Bank of England.

9. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury reserve the right of rejecting any Tenders.

Treasury Chambers,
27th April, 1928.
