From Monday November 15. to Thursday November 18 1697.

Canterbury, Nov. 15.

Yesterday about four in the Afternoon His Majesty arrived here from Margate, being met by the Principal Gentlemen of the County several miles out of Town, and the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common-Council-Men, and the Officers of this City, attended His Majesty at the Gate, where the Recorder made a Speech to congratulate His Majesty upon his safe Return, and upon the Peace; and from thence they waited on His Majesty to his Lodgings at the Deanery, where the Vice-Dean, with the Clergy, made a Congratulatory Speech; The Train-Bands of the City were in Arms; and the Night concluded with Bonfires, ringing of Bells, Illuminations in every House, and all other Demonstrations of Joy imaginable. This Morning His Majesty went hence to Greenwich, the Mayor and Aldermen walking through the City before His Majesty's Coach, as yesterday

Whitehall, Nov. 16. His Majesty having been pleased graciously to accept of the Humble Request made to Him by the City of London, to Honour them by passing through the same publickly in his Return from Flanders, upon the Conclusion of the Peace with France; And the City having adjusted every thing on their Part in the most Splendid and Honourable manner for His Majesty's Royal Reception, His Majesty did this Day about Noon set forth in his Coach from Greenwich, accompanied by his Royal Highness Prince George, and attended by the Great Officers of State, and a Numerous Concourse of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, the Privy-Council, Judges, and divers other Persons of Quality of the Three Kingdoms, all in Coaches with 6 Horses; And being come to St. Margarets-Hill in Southwark, was there received by the Lord Mayor and Aldermen in their Formalities on Horseback: And his Lordship alighting, and presenting to the King the City Sword, and receiving it back again with His Majesty's Directions to carry it before him, and the Recorder also alighting, and in a short Speech Congratulating His Majesty's happy Arrival; the Proceeding from thence to Whitehall was in manner following.

First, a Detachment of about 100 of the City Trained-Bands, all in Buff Coats, led the way from the Bridge to Charing-Cross; then followed two of the King's Coaches, and one of Prince George's; the two City-Marshals, with their Men; the Sheriffs Officers with Javelin's, preceded by two of the City Trumpets; next the Lord Mayor's Officers in Black Gowns; the City Banner borne by the Water-Bay'iff, preceded by two more of the City Trumpets; next the City Officers on Horseback in their proper Gowns, each attended by a Servant in Livery; then the King's Banner borne by the Common Hunt, preceded by three more of the City Trumpets; the Common Crier, and Sword-bearer, the last in his Gown of Black Damask and Gold Chain, each with a Servant; Then the Aldermen, Recorder, and Sheriffs, and such as had served or fined for Sheriff or Alderman, the Juniors first, all on Horseback in Scarlet Gowns, each Alderman below the Chair attended by his Beadle and two Footmen, and those above the Chair with four Footmen each; the Messengers of the Chamber and Knight-Mareschal's Men attending the Proceeding in their proper Stations.

Then the King's Trumpets and Kettle-Drums, followed by the Sergeant-Trumpet with his Mace; the Heralds of Arms according to their several Classes between the Sergeants at Arms with their Maces, all bare-headed, and each attended by a Servant; Then the Lord Mayor of London on Horseback in a Crimson Velvet Gown, with his Collar and Jewel, bearing the City Sword, in the middle between Clare-voix King of Arms on the Right Hand, supplying the Place of Garret King of Arms, and one of the Gentlemen-Ushers on the Left Hand, supplying the Place of the Usher of the Black Rod; the Lord Mayor attended by four Servants, and each of the other by two Servants.

Then the King in a rich Coach of State, accompanied by Prince George, with the Gentleman of the Bedchamber in waiting, and attended on each side by His Majesty's Equeries, Footmen, and the Yeomen of the Guard, led by their Officers, and followed by His Majesty's Life-Guards, and a long Train of Coaches with six Horses of the Great Officers, Nobility and others, according to their respective Degrees, Ranks and Qualities, in the same Order as they came from Greenwich.

The Streets were lined and guarded in Southwark by the Militia of Surrey; assisted by the Militia of the Tower Hamlets; from the Bridge to Walbrook by three Regiments of the City Militia; From thence to St. Paul's Churchyard by the Liveries of the several Companies with their Banners and Ensigns displayed; and from thence to Temple-Bar by the other three Regiments of the City; and thence to Whitehall by the Militia of Middlesex, and His Majesty's own Guards; the City Conduits running with Wine all the while.

Thus

Thus the Proceeding moved to Whitehall Gate, only the Lord Mayor, accompanied as before by Garret and the Usher of the Black Rod, attended His Majesty to the Foot of the Stairs in Whitehall leading up to the Guard-Chamber, where humbly taking Leave of His Majesty, his Lordship and the Aldermen were conducted into the Lodgings, and Treated with a Noble Supper by my Lord Steward.

The Balconies and Windows were adorned with rich Hangings and Tapestries, and crouded with infinite Numbers of Spectators, and all the Streets as His Majesty passed rang with loud Acclamations of Joy.

At the East End of St. Paul's were placed the Hospital Boys, one of which made a Congratulatory Oration to His Majesty.

The whole Ceremony was performed with great Order: The Cannon at the Tower were discharged at His Majesty's taking Coach, and at His passing over the Bridge; His Majesty's Foot-Guards gave 3 Volleys in St. James's-Park; and the Evening concluded with Bonfires, Illuminations, Ringing of Bells, and all other Demonstrations of Dutiful Affection to His Majesty's Sacred Person and Government.

By the King,

A PROCLAMATION, For a Publick THANKSGIVING.

WILLIAM R.

WHEREAS it hath Pleased Almighty God in His great Goodness to put an End to the late War, in which His Majesty and His Allies were engaged against the French King, by the Conclusion of Peace between His Majesty and the Princes and States in Confederacy with Him, and the said French King, upon such a Foundation as by the Blessing of God may prove effectual to procure a Firm and Lasting Tranquillity to Europe; His Majesty therefore Adoring the Divine Goodness, and duly considering that such great and publick Blessings do call for publick and solemn Acknowledgements, hath thought fit, (by the Advice of His Privy Council) to Issue this His Royal Proclamation, hereby appointing and commanding, that a General Thanksgiving to Almighty God for these His Mercies be observed throughout this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, on Thursday the second day of December next; And for the better and more orderly Solemnizing the same, We have given Directions to the Most Reverend the Archbishops and Right Reverend the Bishops of this Kingdom, to Compose a Form of Prayer suitable to this Occasion, to be used in all Churches and Chapels, and other Places of Publick Worship, and to take Care for the timely dispersing of the same throughout their respective Dioceses; And We do strictly Charge and Command, That the said Publick Day of Thanksgiving be Religiously observed by all Our Loving Subjects as they tender the favour of Almighty God, and upon Pain of suffering such Punishment as We can justly inflict upon all such who shall contemn or neglect the same.

Given at Our Court at Kensington, the 17th day of November, 1697. In the Ninth Year of Our Reign.

By the King,

A PROCLAMATION.

WILLIAM R.

HIS Majesty having been Detained beyond the Seas by contrary Winds longer then he intended, and being desirous that there should be a full Appearance of Members at the Opening of the next Sessions, His Majesty hath thought fit, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to Declare His Pleasure, That the Parliament which stands now Prorogued to the Three and Twentieth day of this instant November, shall be then further Prorogued to the Third Day of December next, on which Day they are to Meet and Sit for the Dispatch of divers Weighty, and Important Affairs. And all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, Knights, Citizens and Burgeses of the House of Commons, are hereby Required and Commanded to give their Attendance accordingly at Westminster on the said Third Day of December next.

Given at Our Court at Kensington, the 17th day of November, 1697. In the Ninth Year of Our Reign.

Whitehall, Nov. 17. This day the Vice-Chancellor, with several Heads of Colledges, and the Proctors of the University of Oxford, attended His Majesty, being introduced by his Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, and presented the following Address, which His Majesty received very graciously, and was pleased to assure them of His Royal Favour and Protection.

May it please your Most Excellent Majesty,

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, Your University of Oxford, and we humbly beg leave to cast our selves at Your Royal Feet, with this Tender of our Duty and Testimony of our sincerest Joy, for Your Majesty's late prosperous Return to Your Kingdoms in Peace, Safety, and Honour.

Under the deepest sense of Gratitude and Devotion, we adore the Goodness of Almighty God, who in his most wise Providence hath entrusted Your Majesty with the Execution of those Great and Glorious Enterprizes, which our Eyes have seen, and all the World stands amazed at. Who, after the Deliverance of our Church and State, soon call'd You to the Protection of so many Neighbouring Nations; who hath constantly defended You from the manifold Dangers of Sea and Land; who hath strengthened Your Hand and covered Your Head in the Day of Battle, and who, at length, hath blessed Your Auspicious Arms, with what Your Majesty always propos'd as the only just end of War, an Honourable and an Happy Peace.

Amidst that Universal Joy for which Europe is indebted to the Courage and Conduct of Your Sacred Majesty, We bring this Early Tribute of Thanks and Allegiance, from Your Majesty's most Faithful and Loyal University. It will always be the Ambition of that Ancient Seat of Learning, to be Exemplary both in the Doctrine and Practice of Fidelity and Submission, Duty and Affection to Your Royal Person and Government. Nor can we make any other Conscientious Return for all those Uncommon Privileges which we enjoy, first by the Bounty of Almighty God, and next, by the Favour of Your Sacred Majesty.

May the same Propitious Providence which hath hitherto preserved Your Majesty, Defend and Prolong Your Reign, in a fruitful Increase of Peace and Glory; may Your Majesty be ever blest with the Hearts of all Your Subjects, and They with the Continuance of Your Royal Favour; and may You late pass through all the hazardous Honours of an Earthly Crown, into the Peaceful Possession of an Everlasting Kingdom.

An Humble Address from the Borough of Newark, was this Day presented to His Majesty, by Sir Francis Molineux, and Sir George Markham, Baronets, Members of Parliament for that Corporation, which His Majesty received very Graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty, WILLIAM the Third, by the grace of God, of England, Scotland, France and Ireland King Defender of the Faith, &c.

Dread Sovereign,

WE your Majesties most Loyal, Dutifull and Obedient Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Gentlemen, and other Inhabitants of your Majesties Corporation and Barrough of Newark, do Humbly beg leave to make our sincere and hearty Acknowledgments of the great Blessings and Happiness we enjoy under the Government of your Sacred Serene and most Illustrious Majesty; By which our Religion, Laws and Liberties are secured, our Properties preserved, and the Nation from the violent Insults of Foreign Enemies defended. And Lastly, Great S I R, by your only insatiable Industry, unparral'd Prowess, Care and Conduct, a tedious and Expensive War is changed into a Glorious and Advantageous Peace: As these Blessings are unspeakable; So the Zeal is unexpressible, with which we pray for your most Excellent Majesties long and happy Reign.

The Right Honourable the Earl of Macclesfield presented this day an humble Address to His Majesty from the Justices of the Peace and the several Grand Juries met at the Quarter Sessions at Lancaster, Preston, Wigan and Manchester in the County Palatine of Lancaster, wherein they declare, That being deeply sensible of the many Hazards to which His Majesty's Royal Person has been exposed during the late War, and that the same by His Majesty's great Wisdom and Conduct is ended, by a happy Peace, they beg leave to express their most Durifull Affection and Zeal, which is due from a Grateful and Loyal People, made happy by His Majesty, the Preserver of their Religion, Rights, and Liberties; which His Majesty graciously accepted.

An Humble Address of the Gentlemen, Freeholders, and other the Inhabitants of the Isle of Thanet in the County of Kent, was likewise presented to His Majesty; In which they humbly congratulate His Majesty's glorious Success in restoring Peace to Christendom, as also His Majesty's Safe and Happy Return; and pray for the long continuance of His Majesty's Just and Gentle Government over us; which His Majesty accepted very graciously.

Venice, Novemb. 8. N. S. We have received advice from Turkey, that the News of the late defeat of their Army in Hungary, arriving at Constantinople, caused a great consternation and disorder among the People, the ill consequences whereof were much to be apprehended unless prevented by a Peace, to which 'tis said the Ottoman Court began to be much enclined, especially since they heard that a Peace was near concluding in Europe.

The Captain-General Cornaro, who departed hence the last week with several Men of War and Vessels laden with Provisions for the Levant, has continued his Voyage with a fair Wind. They write from Rome, that the Pope persisting in his Resolution not to concern himself in the Dispute about the Crown of Poland, has sent Orders to his Nuncio to leave that Kingdom, and to go to Cologne, where he should receive further Directions; The Pope has at the same time writ to the Primate, to advise him to act with Prudence and Moderation, and not to expose his Dignity to any ill Treatment or Contempt.

Cracow, Nov. 5. There is yet no day set for the King of Poland's departure from hence to Warsaw, but every body believes it will be very soon; In the mean time his Forces march this way from Hungary, and several Regiments of the Army of Poland, are quartered not far from this place, and in a readiness to obey his Majesties Orders; but in all likelihood there will be no need of employing them against the Primate's Party, which is so weakened, as not to be in a condition to bring any considerable Force together. We hear no more of the Tartars; The Troops they had at Caminac are retired, besides those that constantly remain in Garrison there; however the Crown General has poised several strong Parties in several places where they may be most useful for the security of our Frontiers.

Warsaw, Nov. 8. The Primate continues at Lowitz with several of his Adherents, being under a great perplexity, occasioned by the falling off of divers Gentlemen who appeared very zealous on his side; 'Twas expected that Prince Sapieha, Great General of Lithuania, would have marched with a very good Body of Troops towards Prussia, according to his promise; but it seems he has been dissuaded from it by some of the Great Men who are in the Kings Interests.

Danzick, Nov. 13. The news we had here at the going away of the last Post of the taking of Martenbourg, is contradicted by fresher Advices, which say, that the Sieur Kraicy Caronni had prevailed with the Garrison to defend the place, which held out still, though they were not in a condition to do so long; This Gentleman was first very active for the Elector of Saxony, and took an Oath of Fidelity to him, but afterwards went over to the Prince of Conti, and therefore looks upon his Circumstances to be somewhat desperate. Since the defeat of the Poles by the Saxon Troops at the Monastery of Oliwa, the rest of the Gentlemen of that Party in those Parts, are quite dispersed. The young Prince Sapieha, seeing Affairs very much changed, has made his Peace, and declared for the King, and about 300 Men, who came with him from Lithuania, by his direction are entered into his Majesties Service under the command of General Brandt; The Sieur Lubomirski going hence two days ago, was beset in a House not far from this place by a Party of Saxons, and obtained his Liberty by signing a Paper, by which he promises to be faithful to the King; Another considerable Man, named Czerstorniski, has done the like, but several others taken at the Monastery of Oliwa, not making the same submission, continue still Prisoners. The Saxons got a great deal of rich booty at the Monastery of Oliwa, which they have sold here, and among other things took a rich Coach that was made for the Prince of Conti, with several fine Horses. The Sieur du Bart's Squadron have had very bad Weather since their departure out of our Road; one of the Masters of the Dantzicker Ships they took, was sent ashore by the Sieur du Bart, to acquaint the Magistrates, that he had Orders to take all their Ships he should meet with, and treat them as Enemies; and the Dantzickers have hereupon seized in Money and Effects belonging to the French, to the value of a Million of Florins, and have likewise secured several French Officers, that were here. Prince James, who has been some time in this City, went hence yesterday; and the Queen Dowager of Poland has acquainted the Magistrates, that she intends likewise in few days to leave this place.

Vienna, Nov. 9. There are no Letters come from the Imperial Forces, employed in the Expedition into Bosnia, since those of the 30th past, when they lay near a place called Schepze; They had put Garrisons into the Castles of Maglay and Debay; and Colonel Kiba was ordered to march march the 31th with 3000 Horse and Dragoons to attack the Castle of Tischin, and if he succeeds in it, a good Garrison will likewise be put into that place, by which means the Germans will have a free entrance into Bohemia, and put great part of that Country under Contribution. The Sarott Zydzaczow arrived here some days ago with the Character of Ambassador from the King of Poland, and after having had Audience of the Emperor, proceeded on his Journey to Rome. General Rabutin is returned to Transilvania with the Forces under his Command, which served in the Imperial Army this Campaign, and being informed that several Hundred Hungarian Rebels were got together again, had sent some Troops to suppress them.

Frankfort, Nov. 17. The Imperial Regiments that lay in our Neighbourhood are all marched to Bohemia. The Deputies of the Upper-Rhine continue their meeting here, and it's said, that the Circles of Suabia, Franconia, Bavaria, Westphalia, and the Rhine, intend to enter into an Association, and to maintain an Army of 60000 Men for their common security in time of Peace. They have begun to build several new Houses at Hydelberg, and for the encouragement of such as will come and inhabit there, great privileges are granted them.

Hamburgh, Nov. 19. The Letters come this day from Copenhagen of the 16th Instant, give an account, that the Prince of Conti was returned into the Sound from Dantzick with two Ships of the Sieur du Barri's Squadron, the rest being separated in bad Weather; The Prince went privately ashore at Copenhagen, refusing the Ceremony, which was offered by the Court of Denmark, and 'twas said he would continue his Journey to France by Land. Another Ship of the Sieur du Barri's Squadron arrived afterwards in the Road before Copenhagen with 4 Dantzickers, their two other Prizes (having taken 6 in all) not being yet come in. The City of Dantzick has writ a Letter to the King of Denmark to desire his Protection. The Advice from Prussia is, that divers Gentlemen of the Prince of Conti's Party have since his departure submitted themselves to the King of Poland, and it's believed others will quickly follow their example.

Paris, Nov. 18. On the 16th Instant Te Deum was Sung in the Church of Nostre-Dame for the Peace, at which assisted the Parliament, the Sovereign Courts, and the Provost of Merchants, with the Eschevins and Officers of the City; There was afterwards a Firework before the Town House; The Shops were all kept shut, and at night the Streets were filled with Bonfires, with other Rejoicings. Count Tallard prepares for his Embassy to England; and Orders have been sent to Monsieur de Bonrepos, who now resides as Ambassador from this Crown in Denmark, to repair to Holland with the same Character; 'Tis not yet declared who are to go in this Quality to the Emperor, and to Spain. There was yesterday a Review in the Plain of Grenelle of the Regiment of French Guards, and the 20 Men that have been added to each Company since the War, are still continued. An Express arrived here two days ago from Poland, who brings an account, that the Gentlemen who had promised to appear in Arms at the Prince of Conti's arrival, came in so slowly, and in such small numbers, that the Prince seeing no likelihood of being in a condition to withstand the Saxon Forces, that were marching towards Prussia, he had resolved to return to France; and by other Advices we are informed of his departure from Dantzick, and that he may be expected here towards the end of this month. Three French Men of War are fitting, who are to go out with the Ships our Company are sending to India. The Marriage of the Duke of Burgundy with the Princess of Savoy, will be celebrated the 10th of the next month at Verfaillies, for which very magnificent preparations are made.

Brussels, Nov. 20. The French continue to remove their Effects from the places they are to restore, and it's believed the evacuation will be made towards the end of this month. The Count d'Auvergne is arrived here from France, going to his Estate at Bergenopzoom.

Portsmouth, Nov. 16. Yesterday the Dutch homeward-bound East-India Ships, with 4 Men of War, sailed from Spithead for Holland.
