UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE ACTS, 1920-1927.

DECISION OF THE HIGH COURT ON REFERENCES BY THE MINISTER OF LABOUR, PURSUANT TO SECTION 10 (i), PROVISIO (ii) OF THE UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE ACT, 1920.

Contributions Payable.

On the 30th July, 1928, Mr. Justice Roche gave judgment in the High Court on a question referred by the Minister for decision:—

Whether employment by a firm of garden architects as labourer in connection with the construction of a landscape garden to excavate chalk with pick and shovel for levelling purposes;

whether employment by a firm of garden architects as labourer in connection with the construction of a landscape garden to shift and lever heavy rocks and occasionally to wheel mould and excavate chalk;

whether employment by a firm of garden architects as labourer in connection with the construction of a landscape garden to dig a trench for a waterpipe, to shovel and wheel mould for levelling purposes, to beat turf and plant shrubs;

whether employment by the agricultural department of a co-operative society as labourer to drain, excavate and level in connection with the construction of Sports Grounds;

whether employment by a firm of landscape gardeners and nurserymen as labourer in connection with the construction of a new golf course to dig, mow, carry, roll, and tend turf; and whether employment as an estate carpenter on a private estate was such employment as to make the persons respectively engaged therein employed persons within the meaning of the Unemployment Insurance Acts, 1920-1927.

The Judge held that employment in the circumstances described was not excepted under Paragraph (a) of Part II of the First Schedule to the Unemployment Insurance Act, 1920, and that the persons in question were, therefore, employed persons within the meaning of the Acts.

UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE ACTS,
1920 TO 1927.

DECISION OF THE KING'S BENCH DIVISION OF THE HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE UNDER SECTION 10 (1) OF THE UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE ACT, 1920.

Contributions not payable.

On 25th June, 1928, judgment was given by Mr. Justice Roche in the King's Bench Division of the High Court of Justice in three cases in which the question was raised as to the insurability under the above Acts of certain persons employed in hostels carried on in connection with a high school for girls, which was primarily a day school.

The persons in question were employed as housemaid, cook, and charwoman respectively. Pupils and students attending the high school were only permitted to reside in hostels, the proprietors of which complied with certain regulations made by the school authorities.

The Judge held that the employment of the persons in question was employment in domestic service and, by reason of the nexus that existed owing to the management and control imposed on the hostels by the school authorities, was not employment in a trade or business carried on for the purposes of gain, and that the employment was accordingly excepted under paragraph (b) of Part II of the First Schedule to the Unemployment Insurance Act, 1920. The persons in question were, therefore, not required to be insured.

COMMISSIONERS OF THE AYLSHAM AND COLTISHALL NAVIGATION.

ABANDONMENT OF AYLSHAM AND COLTISHALL NAVIGATION.

IN the matter of the Railway and Canal Traffic Act, 1888, and of an application made by the Commissioners of the Aylsham and Coltishall Navigation for a Warrant authorising the abandonment of the Aylsham and Coltishall Navigation.

WARRANT OF ABANDONMENT.

Whereas by Section 45 Sub-section (1) of the Railway and Canal Traffic Act, 1888, it is enacted that where, on the application of any local authority it appears to the Board of Trade that any canal or part of a canal has for at least three years previously to the making of the application been disused for navigation, the Board of Trade may by warrant signed by their secretary authorise the abandonment by the existing proprietors of such derelict canal.

And whereas it is enacted by Section 3 of the Regulation of Railways Act, 1873, as applicable to the said Section 45 of the Railway and Canal Traffic Act, 1888, pursuant to Section 1 of that Act, that the term "canal" includes any navigation which has been made under or upon which tolls may be levied by authority of Parliament and also the wharves and landing places of and belonging to such canal or navigation and used for the purposes of public traffic.

And whereas by Section 2 Sub-section (1) of the Ministry of Transport Act, 1919, and the Ministry of Transport (Board of Trade Exception of Powers) Order, 1919, the powers of the Board in relation to canal undertakings were transferred to the Minister of Transport.

And whereas by a Public Act of Parliament 13 Geo. III Cap. XXXVII, Commissioners were constituted and were empowered to make and extend the navigation of the River Bure from Coltishall to Aylsham Bridge;

And whereas that part of the River Bure (hereinafter referred to as the Aylsham and Coltishall Navigation) was made navigable accordingly by the Commissioners;

And whereas the Commissioners of the Aylsham and Coltishall Navigation are a local authority within the meaning and for the purpose of the said Section 45 of the Railway and Canal Traffic Act, 1888, and the said Commissioners have made application to the Minister of Transport pursuant to that Section for a warrant authorising the abandonment of the Aylsham and Coltishall Navigation, on the ground that the same has for at least three years been disused for navigation, and it appears to the Minister of Transport that the representations contained in such application are correct;

Now therefore in pursuance of the powers conferred upon him by Section 45 of the Railway and Canal Traffic Act, 1888, the Minister of Transport does hereby authorise the abandonment by the Commissioners of the Aylsham and Coltishall Navigation, together with all wharves, buildings, locks, bridges, gates, passages, stiles, cuts, trenches, staunches, dams, sluices, gutters, drains, arches, tunnels, banks, towing paths, back socks, easements and other property belonging to or used in connection with the said Navigation.

Given under the Seal of the Minister of Transport this twentieth day of September, 1928.
