“ PART I.

“ As to the proposed unions of the Benefices of (a) Wickham Market and Lowdham with Pettistree and (b) Bredfield and Boulge we recommend and propose:—

“ 1.—(a) That the said Benefice of Wickham Market and the said Benefice of Lowdham with Pettistree shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of ‘The United Benefice of Wickham Market with Lowdham and Pettistree’ and that such United Benefice shall be included in and form part of the Rural Deanery of Loes, but the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects; and (b) that the said Benefice of Bredfield and the said Benefice of Boulge shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of ‘The United Benefice of Bredfield with Boulge,’ but the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects.

“ 2. That if upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette the said Benefice of Wickham Market shall be vacant the union of the said Benefices of Wickham Market and Lowdham with Pettistree and also the union of the said Benefices of Bredfield and Boulge shall forthwith take effect and the said William Maulkinson Snook if he is then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Bredfield with Lowdham and Pettistree shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice of Bredfield with Boulge but if upon the day aforesaid the said Benefice of Wickham Market shall not be vacant then the said two unions shall take effect upon the next avoidance thereafter of the said Benefice of Wickham Market, and the said William Maulkinson Snook or his successor Incumbent of the United Benefice of Bredfield and Boulge with Lowdham and Pettistree (referred to in Part III of this Scheme) shall become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice of Bredfield with Boulge.

“ 3. That upon the said unions taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Wickham Market shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice of Wickham Market with Lowdham and Pettistree and the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Bredfield shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice of Bredfield with Boulge.

“ 4. That after the said unions have taken effect the course and succession in which the Patrons shall present or nominate to the United Benefices respectively from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows, that is to say, (a) that in every series of three successive turns of presentation or nomination to be made to the United Benefice of Wickham Market with Lowdham and Pettistree after the union the Patron of the said Benefice of Bredfield with Lowdham and Pettistree shall have the first turn and the Patrons of the said Benefice of Wickham Market shall have the second and third turns and (b) that in every series of three successive turns of presentation or nomination to the United Benefice of Bredfield with Boulge after the union the Patron of the said Benefice of Boulge with Debach shall have the first turn and the Patron of the said Benefice of Bredfield with Lowdham and Pettistree shall have the second and third turns.

“ 5. That at any time and from time to time after the unions have taken effect the Incumbent of the United Benefice of Wickham Market with Lowdham and Pettistree shall employ such clerical or lay assistance in the performance of the duties of the United Benefice as the Bishop may require and towards the remuneration of clergy or lay workers so required to be employed the Incumbent of the United Benefice shall be liable to provide out of the income of the United Benefice such sum as may be necessary not exceeding the sum of £100 in any one year.

“ PART II.

“ As to the proposed union of the Benefices of Burgh, Clopton and Debach we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further recommend and propose:—

“ 1. That the said Benefice of Burgh the said Benefice of Clopton and the said Benefice of Debach shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of ‘The United Benefice of Burgh with Clopton and Debach’ but the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects.

“ 2. That if upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette the said Benefice of Burgh shall be vacant the union shall forthwith take effect and the said John Walter Bowden Page if he is then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Clopton shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice but if upon the day aforesaid the said Benefice of Burgh shall not be vacant then the union shall take effect upon the next avoidance thereafter of the said Benefice of Burgh and the said John Walter Bowden Page or his successor, Incumbent of the United Benefice of Clopton with Debach (referred to in Part IV of this Scheme) shall become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice of Burgh with Clopton and Debach.

“ 3. That upon the said union taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Clopton shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice; and so soon as conveniently may be the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Burgh and the site and appurtenances thereof and the grounds heretofore usually occupied and enjoyed therewith shall be sold and disposed of by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient and that the net proceeds of such sale shall constitute and form part of the Expenses Fund established pursuant to the 32nd Section of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923.

“ 4. That a Curate be appointed to assist the Incumbent in performing the duties of the United Benefice and that the stipend to be
