

Benefice of Clopton shall become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice.

"2. That upon the said union taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Clopton shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice.

"3. That after the said union has taken effect the course and succession in which the respective Patrons shall present or nominate to the United Benefice from time to time if the same shall become vacant before the union referred to in Part II of this Scheme shall have taken effect shall be as follows, that is to say, that in every series of four successive turns of presentation or nomination to be made to the United Benefice after the union the Patron of the said Benefice of Clopton shall have the first, the second and the third turns, and the Patron of the said Benefice of Boulge with Debach shall have the fourth turn.

" PART V.

"As to the endowments and property of the present United Benefices of Bredfield with Lowdham and Pettistree and Boulge with Debach, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further recommend and propose:—

"1. That upon the taking effect of any of the unions referred to in this Scheme the endowments and property now belonging to the said Benefice of Boulge with Debach shall (save as hereinafter mentioned) be divided as follows, that is to say there shall be transferred and annexed to the United Benefice of Bredfield with Boulge or to the United Benefice of Bredfield and Boulge with Lowdham and Pettistree as the case may be the whole of the Tithe Rentcharges commuted at £134 arising within the Parish of Boulge and now or formerly payable to the Incumbent of the said Benefice of Boulge with Debach together with all capital sums of money, stocks, securities and other property representing or being the produce of any sale, redemption or other conversion of all or any of such Tithe Rentcharges, and there shall be transferred and annexed to the United Benefice of Burgh with Clopton and Debach or to the United Benefice of Clopton with Debach as the case may be all other the endowments and property belonging to the said Benefice of Boulge with Debach.

"2. That upon the taking effect of any of the unions referred to in this Scheme the capital sum of money now in the hands of the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty representing the proceeds of the sale of the Parsonage House formerly belonging to the said Benefice of Boulge with Debach shall cease to be held for the benefit of that Benefice and shall be held by the said Governors for the benefit of the United Benefice of Burgh and Clopton with Debach, and the said sum of money (together with all accumulations of income, if any, pending the taking effect of the union of the said Benefices of Burgh, Clopton and Debach) shall be applied towards the cost of providing a house of residence for the Curate referred to in Clause 4 of Part II of this Scheme.

"3. That upon the taking effect of the unions referred to in Part I of this Scheme the endowments and property now belonging to the said Benefice of Bredfield with Lowdham and Pettistree shall be divided as follows, that is to say, there shall be transferred and annexed to the United Benefice of Wickham Market with Lowdham and Pettistree the whole of the Tithe Rent Charge commuted at £96 15s. arising within the Parish of Pettistree and now or formerly belonging to the Incumbent of the said Benefice of Bredfield with Lowdham and Pettistree together with all capital sums of money, stocks, securities and other property representing or being the produce of any sale redemption or other conversion of all or any of such Tithe Rentcharges and there shall be transferred and annexed to the United Benefice of Bredfield with Boulge all other the endowments and property belonging to the said Benefice of Bredfield with Lowdham and Pettistree.

"Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the same Measure to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923:

And whereas the prescribed time has elapsed and no such objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme, and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich.
