

And whereas by virtue of an Order in Council made on the 20th day of December, 1919, under Section 1 of the said last recited Act, the dissolution of the said Commissioners was suspended, and their powers continued for a period of four years from the end of 1919:

And whereas by virtue of an Order in Council made on the 28th day of November, 1923, under Section 1 of the said last recited Act, the dissolution of the said Commissioners was further suspended, and their powers continued for a period of five years from the end of 1923, and the said Commissioners would be dissolved at the end of the present year:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made an application that their dissolution may be suspended and their powers continued for a further period:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the dissolution of the said Commissioners shall be suspended and their powers shall (subject as aforesaid) be continued for a period of seven years from the end of the present year, and at the expiration of the said period the Commissioners shall be dissolved unless His Majesty in Council is pleased further to suspend their dissolution and continue their powers.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of November, 1928.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 659 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894 (which is a Section in Part XI of that Act), it is (among other things) enacted that His Majesty may, by Order in Council, fix the establishments to be maintained by each of the General Lighthouse Authorities, on account of the services of light-houses, buoys and beacons, or the annual or other sums to be paid out of the Mercantile Marine Fund in respect of these establishments, and that an increase of any establishment or part of an establishment so fixed shall not be made without the consent of the Board of Trade:

And whereas by Section 1 of the Merchant Shipping (Mercantile Marine Fund) Act, 1893, it is (among other things) provided that references in Part XI of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, to the Mercantile Marine Fund shall be construed as references to the General Lighthouse Fund by the now reciting Act constituted:

And whereas by Orders in Council made on the 14th day of December, 1922, the 16th day of December, 1925, and the 22nd day of March, 1928, respectively, in pursuance of the above recited powers, the clerical and engineering establishments which might be maintained by the Corporation of the Trinity House of Deptford Strond (hereinafter referred to as "the Corporation") being one of the General Lighthouse Authorities referred to in the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, and the amount of the salaries to be paid to the officers of the said establishments were duly fixed:

And whereas it is expedient that the engineering establishment of the Corporation should be varied in manner hereinafter appearing:

And whereas it has been made to appear to His Majesty that the Board of Trade have consented to such variation:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Him by the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, and of any other powers Him thereunto enabling, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Trinity House (Variation of Establishment) (No. 2) Order, 1928.

2. In addition to the posts specified in the before-mentioned Orders in Council there shall, as from the 1st day of November, 1928, be included in the engineering establishment of the Corporation a post of Marine Engineer Inspector with a salary commencing at £300 per annum, and rising by annual increments of £10 to a maximum of £350 per annum.

3. The salary payable under the provisions of this Order shall be paid out of the General Lighthouse Fund.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of November, 1928.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Marquess of Londonderry, K.G.

Lord Chamberlain.

Viscount Peel.

Secretary Sir W. Joynson-Hicks.

WHEREAS His Majesty the King has power and jurisdiction in the territories of South Africa known as Northern Rhodesia:

And whereas by an Order of His Majesty in Council bearing date the 16th day of July, 1914, and entitled "The Northern Rhodesia Naturalisation Order in Council, 1914," (hereinafter referred to as the Principal Order) provision was made for the grant of letters of naturalisation to aliens in Northern Rhodesia:

And whereas it is expedient to amend the said Order by the addition of the provisions hereinafter contained:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

I. This Order may be cited as "The Northern Rhodesia Naturalisation Order in Council, 1928," and shall be read and construed as one with the Principal Order.

II. A person to whom letters of naturalisation have been granted in Northern Rhodesia under the Principal Order and who, when in any foreign state and not under disability, by obtaining a certificate of naturalisation or by any other voluntary and formal act, becomes naturalised therein, shall thenceforth be deemed to have ceased to possess the local status of British subject in Northern Rhodesia, and the wife and every minor child of that person shall thereupon also cease to possess that status.

III.—(1) Where the Governor is satisfied that letters of naturalisation granted under
