Published by Authority.

From Thursday December 9. to Monday December 13. 1697.

Kensington, Decemb. 11.

THE following Address of the Justices of the Peace and the Grand Jury for the County of Middlesex, was presented to His Majesty by Sir John Wolstenholme and Sir John Bucknall, Knights of the Shire for the said County, Introduced by his Grace the Duke of Bedford, Lord-Lieutenant of the County.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of Your Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, and of the Grand Jury Assembled, at the General Sessions of the Peace, held at Hicks-Hall in St. John-street in the said County, on the 6th day of December 1697.

May it please Your Most Excellent Majesty,

WE Your most Dutiful and Obedient Subjects do heartily Congratulate Your safe and happy Return into these Your Majesty's Dominions.

And we beseech Your Majesty to be graciously pleased to Accept our most humble Thanks for Your Great Goodness and Compassion towards us, in Rescuing us, thro' at the Hazard of Your Sacred Person, from Popery and Arbitrary Government, and Establishing us in an Honourable, and we hope, a lasting Peace.

We do faithfully Assure Your Majesty, That we will do our utmost Endeavours to Support and Defend Your Sacred Person and Government, according to our voluntary Association.

The following Address of the Borough of Kings-Lynn, was presented to His Majesty by Sir John Turner and Sir Charles Turner, their Representatives in Parliament, Introduced by his Grace the Duke of Norfolk, Lord Lieutenant of that County.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

Great SIR!

WE Your Majesties most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, and Chief Inhabitants of Your Borough of Kings-Lynn in the County of Norfolk, crave Leave, to Prostrate our selves at Your Royal Feet, with sincerest Joy, and most Devout Thankfulness, Adoring the Divine Goodness for watching over Your Precious Life, (in all the Dangers it hath been expos'd to, by Sea and Land) upon the Safety whereof, the Fate of so many Nations did depend.

The Comfort is too big for us to express, to behold Your Sacred Person with Happiness and Honour returned to these Your Dominions, after the vast Toils of a War, engaged in for the Security of Your Realms, and the Tranquillity of Europe.

For, no sooner had Your Princely Tenderness secured to us the Inestimable Blessings, of Law, Liberty, and Religion, but Injur'd and Ruin'd Provinces abroad, Implor'd Your Aid: Then it was, That you awakened the Slumbering Genius of this Warlike People, and with matchless Conduct, Courage and Vigilance, Led forth the British Forces to Fame and great Achievements, in Foreign Lands.

Let other Chiefs and Potentates of Your Alliance have their Deserved Praise: But 'tis Your Majesty's Right, for what by Your Council and Arms has been done in Accomplishing this great Work, to remain possessed of the brightest Share of the Glory that attends it, which outweighs the Poms of all other Triumphs, to be the chosen Instrument of Providence, to Calm a Stormy World, to make Wars and Desolations cease, and to restore Repose and Peace to Christendom.

May the same Propitious Providence make these Blessings durable and perpetual, May Your Sacred Majesty be still the Charge of the Life Guards of Heaven, May Your Royal Care be Sweetned, (tho' they can never be requir'd) by the constant Loyalty and Duty of a grateful People, May Your Days be many and prosperous, and Your Renown Increase, May Your Realms flourish in Virtue, Union, Plenty and Peace, and when You shall be call'd to a Heavenly Crown, may Generations to come rise up and call You Blessed.

The following Address of New Romney, was presented to His Majesty by John Brewer Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, Introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Romney, Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town and Port of New Romney in the County of Kent.

WE Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, with a just and grateful Memory, acknowledge the many great Blessings derived to us in common with Your Majesties Subjects, by Your happy Accession to the Crown: And we beg leave on this extraordinary Occasion, in an especial manner to Congratulate Your Majesty on Your safe and happy Return to us, Crowned with a Peace so honourably founded, and so gloriously Accomplished, that we could not expect from any other Conduct and Courage, (under GOD) Even that of Yours, Great SIR, (His Vicegerent.) These Considerations (with many more) justly unite and continue us in our Inviolable Association (which we early entered into) for the Preservation of Your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government against all Your Enemies whomsoever, as becomes Subjects, who by Inclination and Duty own their Allegiance due to You, (Dread SIR,) their Lawful and Rightful King, whom GOD long preserve as a chosen Instrument of His Honour and our Happiness.

The following Address from Thetford, was presented to His Majesty by Sir John Woodhouse Bar. and James Sloane Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, Introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Wharton.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Burgesses, and Commoners of the Ancient Borough of Thetford in the Counties of Norfolk and Suffolk, and of the Chief Inhabitants there.

Pardon us, (Great SIR,) that with the rest of Your good Subjects, we also trouble Your Majesty with the Expressions of our Allegiance, Gratitude and Joy, for that as Your Majesty heretofore Rescued our Religion, Laws and Liberties; so now by ending the War in so Honourable a Peace, You have to us and our Posterity Established that Deliverance which Your Mighty Hand so wonderfully wrought; And while the whole World Admire Your Invincible Courage and Conduct which have brought these things to pass, through so many Dangers and Difficulties, which none but Your Majesty could Attempt; while the most Powerful of Your Enemies, Court Your Friendship, and the rest of them stand Ashamed and Afraid: We, who are Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, whose Hearts You entirely Command, who have most Chearfully contributed to the War, and are now in Peace to reap the Fruits of Your Royal Labours, think it the least Tribute we owe on this Occasion to renew our most sincere Assurances to Your Majesty, That as we obliged our selves by the voluntarily Association, so we will always continue most Unanimous, Zealous, and Affectionate in this Your happy Reign, to promote and Contribute every thing in our Power for the Safety and Preservation of Your Majesties Sacred Person and Government: And we will not only thus pay and perform our Vows to Your most Sacred Majesty, as our Rightful and Lawful King, but will join with the World to Acknowledge You as the greatest and best of Princes.

The following Address was presented to His Majesty by the Dean and Prebendaries of Norwich, Introduced by the Lord Bishop of that Diocesis.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the Dean and Prebendaries of Norwich.

In so general a Confluence of Men of all Ranks and Qualities, importunate in paying a small part of that Veneration the wide Extent of Europe, with all its vast Concerns, and most important Interests owe You; May it please Your Majesty, To give us Your Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Dean and Prebendaries of the Cathedral Church of Norwich, Leave to join likewise our particular Acknowledgements in publick, of that inward Gratitude, Homage and Submission, becoming our peculiar Interest as well as Duty.

This, May it please Your Majesty, We do most heartily and with such a Sincerity as the whole Body of the English Nation in a more especial manner ought to Transcribe from Your Majesties own great Example in Your whole Conduct towards us, in a constant Care of our Safety and Preservation: All Your Majesties most Honourable Pretences, and as Honourable Proceedings, having at all times held equal Pace together: May that Peace, which is the present Subject of so Universal a Joy and Satisfaction; and which Your Majesty by a most signal Concurrence of Divine Providence hath purchas'd for us, with an Inestimable Hazard of Your Royal Person by our heartiest Endeavours, be render'd as lasting and beneficial to us, as it will be ever Glorious to the Purchaser. And that Glory, as it cannot reasonably be supposed to Die, or be forgotten in this present World, so may Your Majesty feel no other Sense of its Decay, but when You shall have safely reach'd the utmost Limits set to Humane Nature here, by finding it swallowed up in the greater Glories of the next.

The following Address was presented to His Majesty by the Reverend Dr. Mountague, Clark of the Cloister to His Majesty, and several of the Prebendaries.

The Humble Address of the Dean and Prebendaries of the Cathedral Church of Durham.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Dean and Chapter of Durham, being engaged, as well by our Affections as our Station, to be Your Daily Orators at the Throne of Grace, do hold our selves peculiarly obliged, to Congratulate Your Majesties Safe Return with an Honourable Peace.

This brings many Advantages to us and all our Fellow Subjects, but we value none of them more than the removing the Occasion of exposing Your Sacred Person to perpetual Dangers.

It gives us the Prospect of owing the Enjoyment of our Religion and Laws to the same Hand, which (under GOD) formerly Rescued and now hath Secured both.

We have first owned these Wondrous Blessings to the King of Kings; and next, we beg leave, to Express our Grateful Sense of them to Your Majesty, to Express our our Tranquillity, as well as the Defender of our Faith. May Your Majesties Reign be so ease, as to require all Your own Hazards and Toil, and so long, that Posterity may Share in the Blessings of it, till at last You Exchange a Temporal for an Eternal Crown.

The following Address from the Colledge of Physicians in London, was Presented to His Majesty by Sir Thomas Millington, President, and several of the Members of the said Colledge.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your most Excellent Majesty,
WE the President, Fellows, and other Members, of Your Royal Colledge of Physicians in London, humbly Crave leave to Congratulate Your Majesties Safe Return into these Your Kingdoms, whose Battles You have fought, whose Religion You have Defended, whose Laws and Liberties You have Preserved. All Europe Acknowledges Your Majesty for their great Deliverer: Your Wise and early foresight first united their different Interests: Your Prudence gave Life to their Alliance, and Supported the Confederacy. Your Conduct Govern'd their Force, and they were Inspired with Valour from Your Example. By a steady and invincible Courage You have Surmounted such Difficulties, and Performed such Actions, as no former Age could Equal, and Posterity will scarce Believe.

And now at length, Having finished a tedious War, against a most Politick and Powerful Enemy, You are return'd with the best kind of Victory, and the Noblest Triumph, an Honourable Peace.

It has been heretofore said of the English, That what they got by Arms, usually they lost in Treaties: Your Majesty has Revers'd this Sentence; and, by the Advantages You have gained at Redwick for us, and other Nations abroad, it appears to the World that 'tis alike impossible to over-reach you in Council, and to overcome You in the Field.

At home You have Establish'd Your Empire, not only over the Persons, but in the Hearts and Affections of Your People; where may Your Majesty long Reign, with Health, Happiness and Honour.

This, SIR, is, and ought to be the Prayer of every good Subject and true hearted English-Man: But in a more peculiar manner it becomes this our Society, which owes its Being to Your Royal Predecessors, and the Priviledges it Enjoys to Your Majesty's Favour.

The humble Address of the City of Bristol, was presented to His Majesty by Sir Thomas Day, and Robert Tate Esq; introduced by his Grace the Duke of Ormond, their High Steward.

The humble Address of the Deputy Lientenants, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Huntingdon, was presented to His Majesty by Anthony Hammond Esq; one of the Burgesses of the Town of Huntingdon, introduced by the Right Honourable Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Town Clerk, Common Council, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Boston in the County of Lincoln, was presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Peregrine Bertie Esq; Vice-Chamberlain of His Majesties Household, and Sir William York, their Representatives in Parliament.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Harwich in the County of Essex, was presented to His Majesty by Sir Thomas Duval, and Sir Thomas Middleton, their Representatives in Parliament.

All which Addresses His Majesty received very Graciously.

Cadix, Nov. 16. N. S. On the 15th Instant arrived here the Earle, Aylmer, and Drake Gallies, in 4 days from Alicant, and on the 17th they sailed again in Company of the Susanna and Robert, and Sarah Gallies. The same day came in the St. George in 5 weeks from Newfoundland, and the Essex in 21 days from Bilboa. The Siege of Ceuta is still continued by the Moones.

Madrid, Nov. 27. On the 11th Instant the Peace between Spain and France was proclaimed here in several parts of the Town by the Heralds, Justices and Bayliffs of the Town; and on this Occasion here have been publick Rejoycings, with Bonfires and Illuminations for 4 nights successively.

Cracow, Nov. 30. N. S. The Great Men that were for the Prince of Conte have most of them made their Submissions to the King, some in Person, and others by Letter. The King has yet fix'd no time for his Journey to Warsaw. Frequent Consultations are held in his Majesties Presence, for settling the Affairs of the Kingdom, and procuring an Union among the Nobility; and for the better effecting this, a General Dyet is intended to be held in the month of January or beginning of February. The Advices from the Frontiers say, the Tatars are preparing to conduct a great Convooy of Provisions to Gaminiec.

Warsaw, Dec. 3. The Cardinal Primate continues at his Castle of Lowitz, and the Marschal of the Rokortz (or Confederacy divers Gentlemen entred into, to stand by the Prince of Conte), is retired to his own House, declaring he will meddle no more with Publick Affairs.

Danzicke, Dec. 7. The last Letters from Poland tell us, the King intends to keep his Christmas at Warsaw, and soon after begin his Journey to Prussia. In the mean time they make preparations here for his Majesties Reception.

Vienna, Dec. 4. The Imperialists have demolished and quitted the several Places they made themselves Masters of in their late Expedition into Bosnia, except the Fortress of Doboy, which being a Place of Consequence by opening a passage into that Country whenever the Germans please, they have put into it a good Garrison, and supplied them with Provisions and Ammunition from Breda. 'Tis confirmed that the Imperialists had not above 150 men killed and wounded at the storming of Vipalanka; There were in the place 400 Janitars, and 300 other Turks bearing Arms, who were all put to the Sword, except some few, who escaped to the Danube, and got over the River in little Boats; Count Rabutin summoned in the Peasants of the Country thereabouts, and set them on work to ruin the Fortifications, which being done, the Germans set fire to the Town, and then retired, marching back by Caransebes to Transilvania, where they are since gone into Winter Quarters. Our Advices from Turkey give an account, that the Grand Signior with the Visier arrived the 28th of October near Belgrade, and went directly to his Seraglio, avoiding a publick Entrance; He has writ to the Cham of Tartary, to repair forthwith to Adrianople, to advise with him concerning the Affairs of the War; and has commanded publick Fasts to be observed within his Dominions, and Pilgrimages to be made to Mecca, because of their unfortunate success in the last Campaign. The same Letters add, that the Turkish Fleet was returned to the Dardanelles, having lost a great many Men, and several of their Ships being much shattered in their Engagements with the Venetians.

Francfort, Dec. 11. The German Troops that are designed to Garrison Philippsbourg, Brisack, and Fribourg, lie cannoned in the Villages, and in a readiness to march, but the French have not yet set any time for evacuating those Places.

Paris, Dec. 11. The Balls and Entertainments on occasion of the Duke of Burgandy's Marriage, have been continued for several days. The Prince of Conte's safe return has caused much Joy here; He landed on the 10th at Dunkirke. Monsieur de Harlay arrived here on the 8th from his Embassy in Holland. Monsieur Vauban, Principal Ingenier, is going to Germany, with Orders to Fortifie the French frontier Places. On the 11th was Registered in the Parliament of Paris, the Kings new Declaration, by which he forbids all his Subjects, of what Quality or Condition soever they may be; to go and settle in the Principality of Orange, commands such as are now there, to return to his Dominions within 6 months; and prohibits all his Subjects to perform any Exercise of the Reformed Religion in the said Principality, to contract any Marriages, or to send their Children thither to be Christned.

Brussels, Dec. 15. Ath and Charleroy were not delivered up on the 13th and 14th, as was expected; and 'tis now said, that the French have appointed the Evacuation of these Places, and of Metz, to be to morrow.

Hague, Dec. 17. N. S. Yesterday the French Ambassadors, Monsieur Verjus and Monsieur Callicre, had their Audience of Leave of the States, and intend on Thursday to begin their Journey to France, leaving a Secretary here till the arrival of Monsieur de Bonrepos, who is expected in a short time with the same Character. Count Tirimont one of the Spanish Ambassadors is likewise returning in a few days to Flanders. The Earl of Pembroke went hence last Saturday intending to embark at Rotterdam, but the Maize being Frozen within these 3 days, the Yacht that is to carry his Excellency to England, cannot get out of the River. The States of Holland have now under consideration to raise Twelve Millions of Livres for paying off Arrears, &c. This discouraged that Monsieur Hop is to go Ambassador from this State to Vienna, in the room of Monsieur Heneskerke, who is now there, and designed in the same quality to France.

Dublin, Dec. 4. Yesterday the Lords Justices went with the usual Ceremony and Attendance from the Castle to the House of Peers, and gave the Royal Assent to

An Act for granting a Supply to His Majesty for raising Money by way of a Poll.

An Act to Supply the Defects, and for the better Execution of an Act passed this present Session of Parliament, Intituled, An Act for the better Suppressing Tories and Rapparees, and for preventing Robberies and Burglaries, and other Heinous Crimes.

An Act for Preventing Frivolous and Vexatious Law Suits, and giving Remedy to the Parties grieved to recover their Costs of Law in certain Cases where heretofore no Costs were given.

An Act to Prevent Frauds by clandestine Mortgages.

An Act for the more easie obtaining Partition of Lands in Coparcenary, Joint-tenancy, and Tenancy in Common, and Binding and Mearning of Lands.

An Act for Avoiding Vexatious Delays caused by removing Actions and Suits out of Inferior Courts.

An Act for Redress of certain Abuses in Making Pewter and Brass.

An Act for the more Easie and Speedy Securing and Recovery of small Debts.

An Act for the Raising 2500l. for Relief of the Inhabitants of the Town of Bandon.

An Act for Dividing the Parish of St. Michans within the City and Suburbs of Dublin, into 3 distinct Parishes.

An Act for Erecting and Continuing Lights in the City and Suburbs of Dublin, and the several Liberties adjoining.

An Act for Settling certain Estates according to the Will of Sir Maurice Sullace, late Lord Chancellor of Ireland.

An Act to Enable James Barry Esq; to Charge his Estate with the Payment of his Debts and Legacies.

After which the Parliament was Prorogued to the Tenth day of May next.

Deale, Dec. 11. Several Merchants Ships are come into the Downes from the River, bound to Portugal, Virginia, Canaries, and other Places.

These are to give Notice, That Three Parcels of Exchequer Notes received for the Duties of Excise, and containing the Numbers and Sums hereunder mentioned, amounting in the whole to One thousand and thirty Pounds, being sent by the Post by Mr. Francis Johnson Collector of Excise from Portsmouth, and directed to the Commissioners of Excise at the Excise Office in London, by the 28th of November last were lost, together with the Portsmouth Bag, between Hammer Smith and London. All Persons therefore to whom any of the said Exchequer Notes shall be offered in Payment, are hereby desired to seize such Exchequer Notes, and to Examine the Person so tendering the same, how he came by such Note or Notes, and from whom he received the same, and forthwith to give notice thereof to the Cashier of His Majesty's Excise, or the Cashier of the Post Office; And whosoever shall bring the said Bag to either of the said Cashiers, with the said Exchequer

Notes, he shall forthwith be paid the Sum of Twenty pounds.
