

1929, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, Chapter 134, of the Act of the 2nd and 3rd years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 49, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 55, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Representation as to the assignment of a District Chapelry to the consecrated Church of Saint Edyth, Sea Mills, situate in the Parish of Henbury, in the County of Gloucester and in the Diocese of Bristol:

“ Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a District Chapelry should be assigned to the said Church of Saint Edyth, Sea Mills, situate as aforesaid:

“ Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend George, Bishop of Bristol (testified by his having signed and sealed this Representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said Parish of Henbury which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a District Chapelry to the said Church of Saint Edyth, Sea Mills, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘ The District Chapelry of Saint Edyth, Sea Mills ’.

“ And with the like consent of the said George, Bishop of Bristol (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said Church of Saint Edyth, Sea Mills, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees or dues to be received in respect of the publication of banns and of the solemnization or performance of marriages, churchings and burials should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being. Provided always that so long as the Reverend John Collins Lloyd, Clerk in Holy Orders, the present Vicar or Incumbent of the Vicarage of the said Parish of Henbury, shall continue to be such Vicar or Incumbent, all the fees or dues which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization or performance at the said Church of Saint Edyth, Sea Mills, situate as aforesaid, shall be paid over by the Minister thereof to the said John Collins Lloyd.

“ We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal Wisdom, shall seem meet.

“ The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“ The District Chapelry of Saint Edyth, Sea Mills, being:—

“ All that part of the Parish of Henbury, in the County of Gloucester and in the Diocese of Bristol, which is bounded upon the west by the Parish of Shirehampton, in the said

County and Diocese, upon the south west by the Parish of Abbots Leigh, in the County of Somerset and in the said Diocese of Bristol, upon the south east by the New Parish of Saint Mary Magdalene, Stoke Bishop, in the said County of Gloucester and in the said Diocese of Bristol, upon the east partly by the said New Parish of Saint Mary Magdalene, Stoke Bishop, and partly by the Parish of Westbury upon Trym, in the said County of Gloucester and in the said Diocese of Bristol, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the north, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said Parish of Westbury upon Trym from the said Parish of Henbury at the centre of the bridge which carries Dingle Road across the River Trym, and extending thence northward along the middle of Dingle Road for a distance of 4½ chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road called Sylvan Way and Westbury Lane, and extending thence first northward, then westward and then southward along the middle of Westbury Lane for a distance of 51 chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road leading from Stoke Bishop to King’s Weston and with the road leading through Shirehampton Park to Shirehampton, and extending thence westward along the middle of the last mentioned road for a distance of 35 chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said Parish of Henbury from the said Parish of Shirehampton.”

And whereas the said Representation has been approved at the Council held under the authority of the said Commission:

Now, therefore, His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and the Prime Minister and First Lord of the Treasury, being authorized thereto by His Majesty’s said Commission, have taken the said Representation into consideration, and do hereby, by and with the advice of His Majesty’s Privy Council, on His Majesty’s behalf, ratify the same and order, as it is hereby ordered, that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And do hereby, by and with the like advice, direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Bristol.
