

chester (hereinafter called 'the said Dean and Chapter'):

"And whereas the said Dean and Chapter are desirous that the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Warton now vested in them as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop of Blackburn for the time being:

"And whereas the Right Reverend Percy Mark, now Bishop of Blackburn, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the Diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Percy Mark, Bishop of Blackburn, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned:

"And whereas the transfer of the Patronage of the said Benefice of Warton which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the Parish or District in or in respect of which the right of Patronage or Advowson so recommended and proposed, to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the Parish of Warton:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Dean and Chapter (in testimony whereof they have caused their Common or Capitular Seal to be affixed to this Scheme) and with the consent of the said Percy Mark, Bishop of Blackburn (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Warton now vested in them, the said Dean and Chapter, as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Percy Mark, Bishop of Blackburn, and his successors in the Bishopric, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Percy Mark, Bishop of Blackburn, and by his successors in the same Bishopric for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Blackburn.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of July, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Reverend William, Lord Bishop of Exeter, has, under Section 26 of the Pluralities Act, 1838, made a Representation to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Cosmo Gordon, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, in the following terms:—

"We, William, Bishop of Exeter, in pursuance of the 26th Section of the Pluralities Act, 1838, do hereby represent to your Grace as follows:—

"There is in the County of Devon and Diocese of Exeter the Benefice or Vicarage of Bovey Tracey the Parish whereof contains a population of 2038 persons or thereabouts with accommodation in the Parish Church for 400 persons.

"The net annual value of the Benefice of Bovey Tracey is £509 or thereabouts.

"There is also in the same County and Diocese the Benefice or Rectory of Lustleigh the Parish whereof contains a population of 516 persons or thereabouts with accommodation in the Parish Church for 300 persons.

"The net annual value of the Benefice of Lustleigh is £263 or thereabouts.

"There are also in the same County and Diocese two isolated portions of the Parish of Hennock situate in the Parish of Bovey Tracey aforesaid with a population of 12 persons or thereabouts.

"That it appears to us and we do hereby represent to your Grace that under the provisions of the said Pluralities Act, 1838, a portion of the Parish of Bovey Tracey (the boundaries of which are more particularly described in the Scheme annexed to this Representation and also delineated on the Ordnance Map annexed thereto and thereon edged with red) may be advantageously separated therefrom and be annexed to the Parish of Lustleigh to which it is contiguous.

"That it also appears to us and we do hereby represent to your Grace that one of the said isolated portions and part of the other isolated portion of the said Parish of Hennock the boundaries of which are more particularly described in the Scheme annexed to this Representation and also delineated on the Ordnance Map annexed thereto and thereon coloured Green and the remainder of the isolated portion of the said Parish of Hennock delineated on the said Map annexed hereto and thereon coloured Yellow may be advantageously separated from Hennock and be annexed to the said Parishes of Lustleigh and Bovey Tracey respectively to which they are contiguous.

"The Patrons of the Benefice of Bovey Tracey are The Right Honourable Stanley
