

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday January 3. to Thursday January 6 1697.

Kensington, January 4.

THE following Address of the Justices of the Peace for the North-Riding of the County of York, was presented to His Majesty by several Gentlemen, Members of Parliament, and Justices of the Peace of the said Riding, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Falconberg, their Custos Rotularum.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the Justices of the Peace for the North-Riding of the County of York.

Dread S I R,

WE do with the greatest Joy Congratulate Your Majesties safe Return from the many Dangers You have been exposed to, and do think we cannot sufficiently admire Your Valour, and Conduct, that has procured us so Honourable a Peace. We do beg Leave to assure Your Majesty, we will in our several Stations, use our utmost Endeavours to maintain and preserve it, and to prevent all Attempts of Your Majesties Enemies against Your Royal Person and Government.

The following Address from the Borough of Plympton was presented to His Majesty by Sir Thomas Trevor, and Courtenay Croker Esq; their Representatives in Parliament.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bayliff, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Plympton-Earle in the County of Devon.

THE Silence of us Your most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects hitherto may be Excusable from our Astonishment at such a Revolution, such a Confederation, such a War, and such a Peace, as Your Majesty has carried on to perfection.

When we call to mind the many Royal Voyages and Campaignes Your Majesty hath made, and to how many Deaths, from secret and open Designs, Your Inestimable Life hath been exposed, we find our selves under the greatest Obligation of Thanks and Praises to Almighty God for its Preservation.

When we look abroad we cannot but Observe that Your Majesty hath raised England's Prowess and Honour, and led forth Her Forces to Noble and Renowned Achievements, so that the Kingdom never made such a Figure in the World as in this Your Reign.

But when we look at home, and consider how Your Majesty hath Rescued our Religion, Laws, and Liberties, (Interests most valuable to us as Men and Christians) we acknowledge our selves indebted to Your Transcendent Courage, Wisdom and Goodness, for the greatest Blessings that Subjects can receive from a Prince.

It is our Duty and no less our Interest to make all the Returns we are capable of, by Doing and Undergoing what is within our power for the Defence and Maintaining of Your Sacred Person and Rightful Government.

God grant that Your Majesty who has given us Deliverance and Peace, may have Quiet, Safety, and a Prosperous Course of Glory for many years, Reigning over a Remembering and (consequently) Grateful and Obedient People.

The humble Address of the Clergy of Rochester, was presented to His Majesty by the Dean and Prebendaries of Rochester, being introduced by his Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury.

The humble Address of the Dean and Prebendaries of the Cathedral Church of Gloucester, was presented to His Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Chief Burgesses, Freemen, and other the Inhabitants of the Borough of Sudbury in Suffolk, was presented to His Majesty by Sir Thomas Barnardiston Bar. and Sir John Robinson Kt. their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Gornwallis, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Suffolk.

All which Addresses His Majesty received very Graciously.

Genova, Dec. 22. N. S. Sir Lambert Blackwell, His Majesty of Great-Britain's Envoy Extraordinary to the Great Duke of Tuscany, and to the Republick of Genova, is arrived at Savona, and expected here in few days.

Leghorne, Dec. 23. The Great Prince and Princess and their Courts, are come to Pisa, in order to pass the Carneval here. By a Bark from Algiers we have an account, that the Ships of that Government have lately taken and brought in two Portuguese Ships laden with Sugar.

Venice, Dec. 27. The Earl of Manchester continues incognito till his House be in a readiness to receive him. The French Ambassador has sent his Excellency a Compliment, and desires to Visit him, as soon as tis with his Lordships conveniency. Divers Officers are come hither to offer their Service to this Republick; and some of these have already received Commissions from the Senate to Lift such Men, as are on the occasion of the Peace disbanded in Germany. This week was launched at the Arsenal here a Ship of War of between 70 and 80 Guns, and another will be launched in few days. The Advices from Turkey say, the Sultan has been persuaded by his principal Ministers to lay aside all thoughts of Peace at present, when they cannot expect to make it but upon very Dishonourable Terms, by reason of their unfortunate Campagne the last year, and that it would be better to stay for a more favourable opportunity to set such a Negotiation on foot; and that the Sultan had accordingly dispatched Orders to all his Bassa's and Governors of Provinces, to raise all the Men they can, to reinforce his Armies against the next Summer.

Warsaw, Dec. 28. The King of Poland, according to our last Letters from Cracow, intended to set out from thence yesterday, on his Journey hither; Whether the Prignate will wait upon his Majesty at his arrival here, is not yet known; though the temper he seems to be yet in, makes it thought he will not. The Prince Sapieha, Great General of Lithuania, is expected in this City the next week, where divers of the Nobility are already arrived to attend his Majesty.

and